

CHARGE OF ARSON INCENDIARY BLAZE LIVELY RALLIES

Brought Against Mrs. Adams of Lincoln Street

As Result of Recent Fire in Her House—Chief Hosmer and Firemen Testified to What They Found—Two Different Fires in Progress

Mrs. Margaret Adams was arraigned before Judge Hadley in police court this morning on a complaint in which there were three counts, one alleging that she committed arson by maliciously burning a building, the second that she attempted to defraud the Michigan Fire and Marine Insurance company of $800, and the third complaint that she attempted to defraud the Albany Insurance company of $1500.

Lawyer J. Joseph O'Connor appeared for the defendant and entered a plea of not guilty. The prosecution was conducted by Charles F. Rice, chief fire inspector of the state police.

The case grew out of the fire which occurred in a house in Lincoln street, belonging to Robert G. Bartlett, on the morning of November 7th and occupied by Mrs. Adams. According to the testimony offered, fires started or were started in two different places and that Mrs. Adams complained of a loss of $300, but subsequently stated that her loss was only $500.

An investigation followed and the fire marshal brought the matter before the court.

The policies which covered the insurance were made payable to Mr. Henry Adams, the husband of the accused.

Robert G. Bartlett was the first witness called. He testified that Mr. Adams had been a tenant-at-will at his house at 240 Lincoln street for about a year and a half. Witness said that there was considerable livestock about the place. He said that Mrs. Adams had notified him that she was about to move away.

There was no cross examination. Recalled by Judge Hadley, Mr. Bartlett testified that there was a fire in the house on the morning of Nov. 7.

Wm. A. Coburn, a milkman, was the next witness called. While delivering milk on the morning of Nov. 7 he saw smoke coming from the house. He kicked the door of the house and rang the bell, but was unable to get any response. He then went through the rear yard and failed to arouse any occupant of the building.

Witness then went to the firehouse in Lincoln street and notified the firemen. He accompanied the firemen to the scene, and at the request of one of the firemen sent in an alarm.

Chief Engineer E. S. Hosmer of the fire department was called and after answering the preliminary questions said: "An alarm was rung in at 4:21 o'clock on the morning of Nov. 7. When I arrived there was a fire in the bedroom which had made its way through the roof.

"There was another fire in the kitchen. There were two distinct fires. In the kitchen there were rags on the back of a chair. The chair was badly charred.

"Did you detect any peculiar odor as you entered the house?" asked Mr. Rice.

"Yes, sir."

"What was it?"

"Kerosene oil."

"Did you notice any vessel there?"

"Yes, sir."

"What was it?"

"A kerosene oil can."

"Where did you find that?"

"Under the table in the kitchen."

"Was there any stopper on the can?"

"No, sir."

Lawyer O'Connor objected to Mr. Rice questioning witness as to what he thought was the cause of the fire and the objection was sustained.

Chief Hosmer told of his conversation with Mrs. Adams after the fire had been extinguished. He said that she informed him that she had lost $300 which was sewed up in a velvet sacque.

Witness said that Mrs. Adams told him that on the night of the fire she saw a man peeping out of a room which led off the kitchen. At the time that she saw the man she said she was in a bed in the entry.

Chief Hosmer said that the front door was blocked by a bed and that the fire department was unable to get in that way. He testified that the entry was packed with goods. There was no furniture upstairs. All of the

General Alarm From Box 42 Called Entire Department to Stubborn Fire in Davis & Sargent's Lumber Mill in Middlesex Street—Department Still at Work at Scene This Afternoon—Thief in Search of Pay Envelopes Supposed to Have Set Fire

The most stubborn and most destructive fire that has visited Lowell in a long time broke out about midnight in the big three story brick building in Middlesex street opposite Howard, known as the Davis and Sargent building and occupied by that concern and several others, in the lumber, box and machinery business.

The fire is believed to be the work of a thief incendiary who either disappointed in an unsuccessful attempt to steal pay envelopes fired the building, or else in making a hurried exit dropped a match among a pile of shavings causing an instantaneous blaze. The fire marshal's office was notified this morning and a rigid investigation will be made at once.

While the different concerns affected by the fire could not make an estimate of their losses at the time of going to press, for the fire was still in progress with several hours' work before the firemen, it is believed that the aggregate loss will reach about $100,000, as a large amount of lumber and machinery was destroyed.

While the fire was destructive and entailed the loss above mentioned, the presence of massive fire walls of brick and stone separating the big brick exterior into several individual exteriors undoubtedly prevented one of the greatest conflagrations in many years. The direction of the wind was such that under ordinary circumstances the many frame buildings on both sides of Middlesex street between the scene of the fire and the Middlesex street depot would have been destroyed with a possible loss of life. In this morning's fire two of the firemen, Charles Bugbee of Hose 2 and Gilman S. Alcott of the Branch street company were overcome. Mr. Bugbee recovered on the scene and gamely refused to leave his work, while Mr. Alcott, whose condition was more serious, was removed to his home in the ambulance, where he recovered this forenoon and will be all right.

The heaviest losers will be the Davis & Sargent Lumber company and Marshall & Crosby, manufacturers of furniture. There were also the original tenants of the building, and have had several fires, having been almost completely wiped out way back in 1876.

Started in Basement

The fire originated in a shaving pile in the basement of the upper part of the building occupied by Davis & Sargent. It was discovered by Herb Livingston, who noticed black smoke curling through the windows as he was passing. About the same time Officer Frank Donovan happened along, and the latter immediately sent in an alarm from box 42.

Upon the arrival of the fire apparatus dense and stifling volumes of black smoke poured from every aperture in the building, filling the street and hiding the blaze so that it was impossible to learn at once just where the fire was raging within. A second alarm was sounded and as the smoke poured out more furiously a third or general alarm, seldom heard in Lowell, was rung in. The general alarm drawing an immense crowd of people to the scene along with all the policemen not patrolling routes on the outskirts. The smoke hung low in Middlesex street on the lower side of the street, particularly keeping the spectators at a safe distance.

Lieut. Conners took charge of the police detail and roped off the street 100 feet away from the burning building on both sides of the street.

Several employees of the different firms in the building were early on the scene and gave directions to the firemen as to how to get to the fire within the building, but the firemen used their own judgment in the matter for which one insurance man this forenoon was heard to criticize them.

Several Big Meetings Held Last Night Without any Personalities—The Candidates Conducting a Clean and Gentlemanly Campaign Predicting United Action and Victory

James E. O'Donnell held a largely attended and enthusiastic rally in the Lyon street schoolhouse last evening, addressing the gathering for 40 minutes on his record in the legislature.

Mr. O'Donnell enumerated the many labor measures on which he not only voted favorably, but also advocated on the floor of the house and worked for in committee. On the one labor measure which he opposed, the picketing bill, Mr. O'Donnell stated that he looked into the matter carefully, considered its constitutionality and decided that it was not a good measure and for that reason voted against it. He was told before he voted that the measure would not go through the senate, and was asked to get on the wagon and favor it anyway.

"With this information, if I desired to play politics," he said, "I might have voted for the bill, knowing that it would have been killed in the senate and there would have been no criticism; but I didn't believe in it and was honest about it. On this as on all other measures I voted, talked and acted as I believed to be right." In relation to his vote to raise the salary of the judges, which was criticised in some quarters, Mr. O'Donnell called attention to the fact that the Lowell session of the superior court is at present suspended with a large docket because there is no judge to try it. It is impossible to get the right kind of men in the judiciary unless they are allowed an adequate salary. The welfare of the commonwealth depends in a large measure on the high standard of its judiciary. In concluding his remarks, Mr. O'Donnell referred to the charity board and stated that it was the one issue upon which all democratic candidates appeared to be agreed. "The charity board is in need of reorganization and an adequate salary," he said. "The present moment he had no opponent below the belt, in hall, on the street or in printed advertisement and would not under any circumstances, no matter what may be the result."

Mr. Maloney addressed a second meeting in Wittle street and this noon spoke before a large gathering at the Rensselaer, receiving a very cordial reception.

James E. O'Donnell, Esq., will address the voters of wards 1 and 6 at Odd Fellows hall, Bridge street, to night, at 8 o'clock.

ROBERT BURMAN IN HIS BUICK

ROBERT BURMAN

From Death

SAN ANTONIO, Tex., Nov. 18.—Driving his Buick racer at a terrific pace into the stretch turn yesterday in the six hour race, the closing event of the four days automobile meet, Robert Burman narrowly escaped death when his machine was overturned and he was hurled to the ground. Burman was badly shaken up and severely bruised, but not seriously injured. The car turned a complete somersault, just missing Burman when it fell to the ground.

Of the five cars which started in the race, four were wrecked or withdrawn. The Chalmers-Detroit car, driven by Ben Johnson, was awarded first prize after covering 216 miles in 4:52. The second and third prizes were pooled and divided between Clark and D. Hymel.

The race started at 11 o'clock this morning, the entrants being Barney Oldfield in a Knox car, D. Hymel in a Stoddard-Dayton, George Clark in a Jackson, Ben Johnson in a Chalmers-Detroit and Burman in a Buick.

TROY, N. Y., Nov. 18.—The leg and part of the thigh of a girl about 16 years, apparently very recently severed from the body were found by the police in an ash pile in a lot in the center of the city last night. It is known that the ashes were not dumped in the lot until Tuesday. The police are working on the theory of murder.

DIED OF BLOOD POISONING

PROVIDENCE, R. I., Nov. 18.—

Death due to devotion to his profession is the verdict of the friends of Dr. Francis B. Borogame, one of the foremost ear and throat specialists in the country, who died yesterday of blood poisoning, contracted while operating on a charity patient three weeks ago.

W. J. MOXLEY, WHO CONDUCTS ODD CAMPAIGN IN CHICAGO

CHICAGO, Nov. 18.—Chicago people in general and William J. Moxley in particular are having a world of fun out of Mr. Moxley's campaign for representative to fill the vacancy caused by the election of Mr. Lorimer to the senate. Moxley is the regular republican candidate. The independent republican candidate is Charles L. Barnes and the democratic opponent is Frank S. Ryan. Newspaper paragraphers and other ways characterize Mr. Moxley's fight as a "whispering campaign" because of his departure from the beaten paths of political methods. Snuggers, vandeville entertainments and hard to hand greetings, with heart to heart talks, are the features of the Moxley campaign and the candidate is having as much fun out of it as his constituents. He declares himself that he is getting more real amusement out of the race than both of his opponents put together. The election takes place on Nov. 23.

PROBABLE HEAD DANCING PARTY

Of the Big Telephone Merger Held by the Bon Marche Employees

NEW YORK, Nov. 18.—It was Theodore N. Vail, president of the American Telephone and Telegraph company, who announced the new billion dollar merger of the telephone and telegraph companies of the country, and it is believed that he will head the big combination when all the details of the merger are completed. Mr. Vail has been in the telephone and telegraph business nearly all of his life. One of his medals was the principal backer of Morse, the inventor of the telegraph as now operated. Mr. Vail is a native of Ohio and in his boyhood lived on a farm in Iowa.

SECRETARY MEYER

INTENDS TO ASK FOR A REPAIR SHIP

WASHINGTON, Nov. 18.—In recommending a naval program for next year, Secretary Meyer will ask congress to provide for a repair ship equipped with a complete machine shop for all emergency work, or failing to get the repair ship, the equivalent in cost of such craft in torpedo boat destroyers. This will be in addition to two 25,000 ton "breadstuffers" which it has long been understood the secretary would recommend.

The repair boat desired would have a speed equal to the fastest battleship afloat so that in all cases it could keep with the fleet.

BOWLING NEWS

There was considerable doing on the alleys last night. The bowlers turned out in large numbers and the majority of the games played were of a very exciting nature, a large gallery being present at the different contests.

Auto Accident Victims in Serious Condition

SPRINGFIELD, Nov. 18.—So critical was the condition at 9 a. m. today of the four survivors of the auto accident in West Springfield last night in which five business men were hurt from a car, that the list of fatalities was expected to reach three before the close of the day.

Max O. Drown was instantly killed, while W. Reid, a prominent architect, and A. L. Leberte, a builder, were so badly injured about the head that their chances of recovery were considered early today to be very slight. J. Lewis Perkins, the owner, and driver of the auto, suffered only a few bruises, while John Chadwick was painfully but not seriously injured. Mr. Perkins said that in turning out suddenly for another car his machine struck a tree.

"OPEN THE SHAFT"

Cry of the Widows and Orphans Will be Heeded

CHERRY, Ill., Nov. 18.—The cry of the desperate widows and orphans of Cherry—"Open the shaft—open the shaft!"—will be heeded today if human lives have to be sacrificed to reclaim the entombed dead.

Morning saw over the shaft of the St. Paul mine a heavy structure of wooden piles which will support the burden of grappling tackle to be lowered into the depths. Women, many of them almost insane from the grief that has consumed them for five days, reached the desolate scene before sunrise.

"They are going down to get the poor fellows today," they were told. "Oh, why don't they hurry?" was the unanimous appeal. "Why don't they hurry before it is too late?"

Under the direction of the mining inspectors of Illinois the most hazardous efforts will be made to satisfy the demand of the bereaved to remove the bodies. After the preliminary exploration in the shaft last night the inspectors and mining experts reported an encouraging condition, and it was determined to take advantage of the low temperature at the bottom of the emergency shaft.

Early today it was reported that E. Y. Williams who went into the shaft last night had seen bodies in the second gallery not far from the shaft. After a midnight conference of officials, however, carpenters, masons and laborers were sent for and before morning work of preparing for the uncertain task of today had begun. It was proposed to lower two men armored with oxygen helmets. They will enter the galleries and penetrate as far toward the main shaft as they can. If bodies are encountered they will be fastened to the grappling tackle and raised.

The exploration last night, made while soldiers guarded the workers, revealed that at the bottom of the air shaft there was less smoke and gas than at any time since the fire started last Saturday. The temperature had also fallen to an unusual degree.

In the opinion of mining inspectors who came here from many states the mine still is burning with a consuming fire and human life cannot endure it. It is their conviction that the St. Paul mine must be sealed for a definite period before any successful expedition can be conducted. This was the recommendation to the officials of the company yesterday but the Illinois inspectors realizing the fury that such action would arouse among the afflicted citizens of this community insisted that a last effort be made to reach the dead.

No outbreak of any kind occurred in Cherry last night. The troops guarded the mine and the special train of cars against which threats were made, but all was quiet save for the tapping of hammers as workmen prepared for the task of the day.

JUMPED RAILS

Trolley Car Accident at Kittery, Me.

KITTERY, Me., Nov. 18.—That there was not a serious loss of life when a trolley car of the Atlantic coast line railroad jumped the rails and plunged beneath the surface of a deep creek, near here, early today, was due to the fact that there was no one on board at the time except three employees of the company. These, consisting of the conductor, motorman and one of the officials of the road, saved themselves by jumping. All sustained painful bruises and one of them was picked out of the water by a fisherman.

The car left the rails at the entrance of the bridge which crosses the creek. The bridge was around a sharp turn at the foot of a steep hill. The car sank in thirty feet of water, only the top of the trolley pole showing above the tide.

JUDGE FICKETT

Says Cook Climb Was Never Made

BOSTON, Nov. 18.—Judge Frederick W. Fickett of Galveston, Tex., who is visiting a relative, F. A. Fickett of 106 Oliver street, Malden, said Tuesday it was impossible for Dr. Cook to climb Mt. McKinley. The judge says he was with the government exploring party to survey Alaska, and that he was one of those who named the mountain.

In speaking about Dr. Cook's claim, Judge Fickett said:

"There is absolutely no foundation for the statement of Dr. Cook, who declares that he climbed Mt. McKinley. I know the conditions in that region, and have read the doctor's statements of his claim. Mt. McKinley is a solid mass of ice and rocks. There are no signs of any vegetation, with the exception of a few small shrubs. The doctor explains how he ascended, but it seems to be that no living man could have followed the route he points out. Before the mountain can be reached a person runs great danger of losing his life. The soil resembles cranberry bogs, only it is great deal worse."

"From viewing the sides of the mountain there are many cracks and crevices. It would be almost impossible to attempt the climb. The government has no records showing that the McKinley was ever climbed."

Continuing, Judge Fickett stated that as the mountain is over 27,000 feet in height it would take at least six months to make the ascent.

WORTH $100,000

Gift to Museum of Fine Arts

BOSTON, Nov. 18.—The Museum of Fine Arts is now in possession of a Greek head of a young woman, valued at more than $100,000, which is considered by men prominent in the world of art as the finest specimen of marble head sculpture in existence.

The head is clearly a Greek original of the fourth century, from the hand of a master.

Part of the hair on either side is gone and shows signs of having been repaired in antiquity, but the beautiful face of the subject is unmarred. Whether it is a queen or a goddess, no one can say, but critics seem satisfied that it is the best example of the work of Praxiteles.

The French sculptor, Rodin, has studied the head and said it is the most remarkable marble head in existence.

This piece of marble has attracted the thousands who have already viewed the new museum. The owner of this work of art has refused an offer of $100,000.

Visitors to the National Museum in Rome remember as perhaps the finest Greek marble there a three-sided relief representing the birth of Venus from the sea. A companion piece is now exhibited for the first time in the Boston Museum of Fine Arts. It is more complete than the one in Rome and equally beautiful, perhaps, from the hand of the same sculptor.

BROWN ELEVEN IS READY FOR THE CARLISLE GAME

PROVIDENCE, R. I., Nov. 18.—The finishing touches for the Carlisle game were put on the Brown football team today and at the close of the practice, the last of the season, the usual formality of burning the dummy was gone through. The squad will be taken to New York tomorrow at 7.10 o'clock and beside the coaches will make the trip. A large number of students will go down on Saturday and they express the opinion that Brown will win.

ST. PATRICK'S ACADEMY ALUMNI

The banquet committee having in charge the coming banquet and reunion of all the former students of St. Patrick's Boys' school to be held Wednesday evening, Dec. 23, will meet this evening in the school hall and formulate plans for this affair. Reports will be received from the different committees appointed at the last meeting and active preparations will be made to make this year's reunion surpass last year's very successful one. Practically every class, since the first graduating class of '89, is represented on this committee and every member is thoroughly interested and wants to make this a banner night in the social history of St. Patrick's Boys' school.

ST. PATRICK'S HOLY NAME

On next Tuesday evening the Holy Name society of St. Patrick's will hold the regular monthly business meeting and much business of importance will be transacted. This meeting will end the membership contest that has created so much interest and has so largely increased the society's membership. The smoke talk committee will report on the smoke talk and lecture to be held Tuesday evening, Nov. 30. It has secured Thomas A. Mullin, Esq., of Boston to deliver the lecture and the committee feels flattered at securing such an able and scholarly man as Mr. Mullin. The smoke talk will be for members and friends, and members can secure their tickets from the secretary.

Committees will be appointed to bring in a list of officers for the coming year to be balloted for at the December meeting.

At the spiritual meeting held last Sunday evening Rev. Fr. Curtin announced that on Thanksgiving morning, Nov. 25, a high mass would be sung for Holy Name members and urged every member's attendance. The members will attend in a body and will meet in the church basement.

The reception to the newly enrolled members will be held on Sunday evening, Dec. 5, at the vesper service, and it is expected there will be about 200 members received.

COAL LAND INQUIRY LAWRENCE MAN

W. J. McGee Today

SEATTLE, Wash., Nov. 18.—The inquiry instituted by the department of the interior into the validity of the 23 coal land entries in Alaska that are included in the Cunningham group around which the Ballinger-Pinchot controversy centers began this morning before Commissioner W. J. McGee, J. M. Sheridan, of Denver, chief counsel for the government and W. B. Pugh, of Washington, D. C., counsel and member of the board of land review in the general land office have been engaged for several weeks, preparing the case of the government. At least four days will be required to take the testimony here. At the conclusion of the sitting in Seattle, Special Commissioner McGee will resume the inquiry at Spokane.

The aggregate acreage involved is 5250. An estimate of the value of the coal in these claims is $50,000.

The land department claims that entrymen did not make locations for their own exclusive benefit, but that prior to making the locations they entered into an agreement to consolidate and held the lands. It is also contended that the lands have not been improved as required by law.

The claimants insist they have made the entries in good faith and maintain that as the government accepted final payment several months ago, it is unfair to withhold the patents.

The patents were held up originally at the instance of L. R. Glavis, former chief of the field division of the general land office at Seattle. It was the disagreement between Secretary Ballinger and Mr. Glavis over the disposition of these claims that caused Glavis' removal.

Held on a Charge of Larceny

CHICAGO, Nov. 18.—Robert H. Fleury, 24 years old, employed in the office of the freight auditing department of the Illinois Central railroad, is locked up at central station on a charge of larceny preferred by the Mercantile cooperative express company of Lawrence, Mass.

Fleury was arrested early yesterday on a fugitive warrant at a boarding house near East 52d street and Jackson Park avenue. According to the police, he has confessed that while he was employed by the Lawrence express firm he appropriated $300 of their money to his own use and spent it for a "good time."

SANFORD COMES BACK TO SHILOH.

Elijah Sanford is returning to the United States to resume his fanatical onslaughts and establish a colony of people who are silly enough to be led by him. He has tried to establish a colony of his followers in Palestine but he found the people there far less gullible than his victims at Shiloh. He is to send out missionaries to secure new recruits. His cult is as bad as Mormonism although its worst tendencies do not run in the direction of polygamy.

THE APPORTIONMENT OF THE CORPORATION TAX.

The city of Lowell paid a state tax of $98,685 this year but received in return as a share of the corporation tax the sum of $105,228. That will help considerably in lessening the tax rate for the coming year. This money is returned to the city under a law passed last year which returns half the tax to the city or town in which the corporation carries on its business rather than where the stock is assessed as formerly.

Such residential centres as Brookline, Milton and Newton lose heavily as they have been receiving a considerable portion of the corporation taxes on stock held by their residents. The change in the law is just and right.

CONGRATULATIONS TO PRESIDENT TUTTLE.

The business people who have been acquainted with President Tuttle of the Boston and Maine railroad for many years will rejoice to find that he has been re-elected to his position at a time when rumor had it that owing to the influence of the New Haven company and the merger, another official would be chosen in his place.

President Tuttle has always proved himself to be a man of great ability and foresight and always progressive in his ideas. He has, furthermore, done what he could to improve the service and to meet as far as possible the needs of the various cities through which the Boston and Maine lines run. Even if new policies are to be applied in the management of the road, President Tuttle will be as good as any other man who can be chosen, to put them into operation.

SERUM FOR PNEUMONIA DISCOVERED.

A very important announcement comes from the medical schools of Tufts and Harvard to the effect that a serum has been found that will greatly reduce the mortality in cases of pneumonia. This is a matter of very great importance to this country, and in fact to the world at large.

Pneumonia has defied the doctors, the main treatment being something to stimulate the heart action during the progress of the disease.

If the reports from Tufts and Harvard that a serum has been discovered that cures a large percentage of cases are true, the discovery is one of the most important made by medical science during the current century.

The medical experts of Tufts claim that as a result of the serum but two out of forty-nine ordinary cases were lost and but six out of thirty-four very serious cases. The Harvard men claim that the serum there provided saved thirty-six out of forty-nine cases.

The deaths from pneumonia in the United States constitute 11 per cent. of the whole, while the deaths from tuberculosis, of which we hear so much, amount to but 9 per cent. Furthermore, the medical experts at Harvard and Tufts claim that through the use of the serum just discovered 45 per cent. of the deaths can be prevented.

Such a saving of the people who are usually cut off by pneumonia in the prime of life would mean a great deal to this country and to the world at large.

It is to be hoped that the serum just announced will accomplish all that is claimed for it in reducing the death rate from a disease that has hitherto baffled all the efforts of medical science.

SANITATION IN FACTORIES.

Professor Winslow of the Institute of Technology in addressing the Women's Trade Union league in Boston dealt with the subject of factory sanitation, claiming that there is still much to be desired in that direction.

"I know from personal experience," he said, "that many of our largest factories are in pretty poor sanitary condition. The most dangerous thing of all is dust in factories, such as flax, cotton, emery and glass dust. It mechanically lacerates the lungs and renders the individual powerless to resist tuberculosis germs. The State Board of Health has done splendidly, but it still has to make analysis of factory air."

It is impossible to eliminate all dust and flogage in the air in cotton and other factories; but so far as sanitation by ventilation, plumbing and pure water are concerned there is undoubtedly a vast improvement over former conditions.

Formerly it was not uncommon for mill operatives in Lowell to drink either canal or pump water which in some cases was fully as bad as that from the canals.

There are various other improvements in the line of sanitariness, spittoons and wash rooms. There are, besides, printed rules in each room cautioning the operatives against spitting on the floors and insisting upon strict cleanliness. The management of the corporations as a rule cooperates with the Board of Health in its efforts to check the spread of tuberculosis by adopting preventive measures.

There may be some factories in which, as Dr. Winslow observes, conditions are not as they should be; but in the principal factories of Lowell it seems that a great deal has been done for the protection of the health of the operatives.

If there is any such condition as Dr. Winslow mentions the operatives can have it speedily remedied by notifying Dr. Simpson, the sanitary inspector of factories, or even the local factory inspector, Mr. Roche, successor to the late Inspector Wasley.

SEEN AND HEARD

This is an actual happening, and the girl in the story holds a clerical position in—well, never mind where—suffice it to say in Lowell.

She—"How much do you get a week?"

He—"Fifteen dollars."

She—"Come around and see me when you grow up. I get $18 a week myself." The poor fellow vanished.

AFTER ALL
After you and I have ceased to care
The April winds will blow across the hill,
The rose will spread its fragrance on the air,
The swallows twitter round the chimney still;
The brook will wind its leisure way along,
And right will still be right and wrong be wrong.

After you and I have ceased to fret
Because our planning sometimes comes to naught
The foolish still will foolishly regret—
When home the spite they vented has been brought;
They will be needed most who give delight,
And wrong will still be wrong and right be right.

After you and I have ceased to toil
It may be that we shall with joy arrive
Where none shall be undone and none despoil,
Where no one for another's gain shall strive.

But here the wise men still shall be the strong,
And right will still be right and wrong be wrong.

"Antony and Cleopatra."

"That's a comic opera, isn't it?"

"I don't think so (looking through newspaper). No; it's a play."

"Who wrote it?"

man's wife, so the neighbors said, was given an allowance by her husband and out of this allowance she was expected to pay the household accounts. But the wife sometimes desired more money for personal expenses than she could obtain from her husband and so the household fund was robbed. The woman had been dodging the milkman for so long that it had become a habit with her. He called once or twice every week with his bill, but the lady of the house was never "at home"—to him.

The day finally came when he had to have the money and he determined to get it before bedtime. He called at the back door and poured his story into the unsympathetic ear of a housemaid, and she carried it or said she did, to the "mistress," but the word came back that the "mistress" was taking her bath and could not then attend to the matter. In an hour the milkman returned, but was informed that her ladyship had "gone out." The collector thereupon boarded a street car and went to the shop of a customer and told himself in temporary possession of the accoutrements of a gentleman of fashion. Those he took to his room and about supper time he dozed them, spending perhaps an hour in getting them "on straight." Then he sallied forth. He made straight for the house of the rich man and rang the doorbell.

The maid peered out at the window and saw that there was no milk wagon in sight, that a well dressed man was standing at the entrance and then hastened to the door. "Is Mrs. So-and-So in?" the milkman asked. "She is," the maid replied. "Won't you come in?" The milkman thought that he would. "Oh, it's a surprise," said the milkman. "Tell her that an old friend whom she has not seen for a long time wishes to speak to her."

The maid departed. In a few minutes the lady of the house brought an expectant smile into the reception room. She looked at the milkman in a puzzled manner. "Yes?" she said finally in a haughty manner. "Yes," the dapper caller repeated. "Yes, ma'am, I'm the milkman and I have here a bill that was due two months ago. I do not intend to depart until it has been paid." And he didn't, either.

PEOPLE OF NOTE
The Philadelphia School for Nurses is said to be the largest of the kind in the world. In the past year nearly 11,000 patients were supplied with nurses. Fully four-fifths of this service is said to have been gratuitous.

At present a large number of two-year scholarships are said to be available to young women throughout the country, the preference being given to applicants from small towns and rural districts. These scholarships include room, board, laundry work, uniforms, all necessary instruction and railroad fare paid to the students' home town on the completion of the course.

One of the new buildings at the Chautauque for Negroes which has been established at Durham, N. C., is to be called the Mrs. S. P. Avery building, in honor of Mrs. Avery of Hartford, Conn., who has taken great interest in the work. The first Chautauque is to begin in July of next year. Mrs. Avery's last gift was a check for $1000 to be devoted to the school for training young Negro men.

Mrs. Eleanor Rathbone has just been elected a member of the city council of Columbia university, which is to go

Liverpool, Eng. Miss Rathbone belongs to one of Liverpool's "first families." has been engaged for years in useful public service, and is secretary of the Liverpool Women's Suffrage association.

Mrs. P. S. Peterson of Chicago has given Mount Holyoke college a building to be used as a home for retired members of the faculty.

Mrs. Otto Killani, a daughter of Bayard Taylor and a member of the executive committee of the New York State Association Opposed to Woman Suffrage, declares that there is no probability in England that women will obtain the right to vote for members of parliament. Mrs. Killani recently returned from England where she was assured by Mrs. Frederick Harrison, who took an active part in circulating the petition of the anti-suffragists, that the women of all classes showed a decided reluctance to the mention of the word suffrage, but on being assured that it was an anti-petition they signed it eagerly. According to Mrs. Harrison a quarter of a million signatures were secured very quickly.

The accepted plan for the new city hall in Portland, Me., provides for the placing of two statues in front of the building. It is conceded that William Pitt Fessenden, the distinguished United States senator, will be honored in one of these places, and there is a movement to devote the second niche to a statue of General Neal Dow, Maine's lifelong advocate of prohibition.

W. D. Sloane has given $150,000 to Columbia university, which is to go to the erection of a seven-story addition to the hospital of the College of Physicians and Surgeons in Tenth avenue at 59th street. Mr. Sloane and his wife have been constant givers to the college, which is now the medical department of Columbia, and their great gift is the Sloane maternity hospital, whose administration they have followed. Says President Butler of Columbia, "with the closest personal attention and supervision in a way that has been exceptionally helpful." The new building is complementary to the other; it is for obstetrics and gynecology.

The new dormitory for the Lucknow College for Girls is to be erected as a memorial to Lilavati Singh, who at the time of her death was president of the college. Miss Singh was the only native teacher in the Lucknow college. As a student early in her career she refused a missionary scholarship because she preferred to earn her own education, though at the time she was supporting several younger relatives. In 1895 she took an A. M. degree with honors at the University of Allahabad. Four years later she came to America with Miss Thorburn, whose school in Lucknow she had entered when less than 10. Here she helped to raise upward of $20,000 for educational work among women of India. In 1907 she was sent to Japan as the Indian delegate of the Y. W. C. A. to the Students' Christian Federation conference at Tokio. The new dormitory is erected by money contributed by her friends, the bulk coming from America.

BIG INSURANCEWas Carried by Kansas City Man

KANSAS CITY, Nov. 12.—Insurance of $1,500,000 has been applied for on the life of George E. Nicholson, 49 years old, a cement manufacturer of Kansas City, for two of the companies of which he is the head.

Insurance men say this is the largest amount of insurance ever successfully bought at one time upon the life of one person.

From 9 o'clock Tuesday morning until 9 o'clock Tuesday night twenty-five physicians, were examining Mr. Nicholson. After it was all over the physicians declared that he was in perfect health and the agents of the insurance companies said the policies would be issued.

Mr. Nicholson is president and general manager of the Iowa Portland Cement company, the United Kansas Portland Cement company, the Dile Portland Cement company and the Iowa Portland Cement company. He is worth $4,000,000 and is a widower with two grown sons. He already has four $325,000 insurance policies on his life, so that when the policies for $1,500,000 are issued he will have nearly $3,000,000 insurance.

The insurance is distributed through several companies, the largest amounts being taken by the Mutual and the Equitable of New York.

CHICAGO POLICEThink Kreigh Collins Was Murdered

CHICAGO, Nov. 12.—Was Kreigh Collins, former western tennis champion, murdered and his body placed on the street car tracks? Police investigation of the case developed several strange circumstances, and at their request the inquest, began yesterday, was continued until this morning to allow further work by the detectives.

Mr. Collins' body was found Tuesday night on the street car tracks in Erie street, west of Franklin. It had been run over by a car and the police thought that death had been accidental.

Residents of the neighborhood reported, however, that they had heard two revolver shots about the time Collins was killed. This gave rise to a theory that Collins may have been dead before the street car passed over his body.

The body was so mangled that the police were unable to determine whether Collins had received bullet wounds. One theory of the police is that Collins may have shot himself, but the general belief is that if he died from pistol wounds they were inflicted by holdup men.

CHARGE OF ARSON

articles were in the hallway and front room.

"What was the character of the furniture?" asked Mr. Rice.

Mr. O'Connor objected and after an argument Mr. Rice qualified his question.

Witness said that in consequence of what he observed at the fire he notified the office of the marshal's aid.

On cross-examination Chief Hosmer reiterated that the front door of the house was barricaded. He said that the firemen were unable to get into the house that way; it was necessary for them to go through the rear door. The body, according to witness, was up against the door.

Witness said he made his investigation after the fire had been extinguished. The main fire was in the bedroom which leads off the kitchen.

At this point Lawyer O'Connor produced a diagram of the house and Chief Hosmer marked out on this plan the points where the fire started. He stated that the fire was about five or six feet apart.

He denied that he saw a clothesline leading from one room to another, but said that he saw some clothes hanging on a rail on the side of a door.

Lawyer O'Connor laid considerable stress on the clothesline which he intimated was strung from the kitchen to the bedroom. Chief Hosmer said that if a line had been strung up between the two rooms that there would have been some debris on the floor.

Hard pressed by the examining attorney, Chief Hosmer said that it would have been almost impossible in the case in question to have the fire communicated from one room to the other by the clothesline.

Relative to her mental and physical condition, Chief Hosmer said that he did not think that she was "all right" and that she was shaking.

Capt. Joseph Baxter of the Lincoln street house gave a graphic description of the fire. He said that when he arrived at the house the driver of the hose wagon shouldered to him to "look out for people in the house."

He corroborated the testimony of Chief Hosmer relative to the two fires, the blockade against the front door and added that he found the side door was locked. The smoke was very thick when he entered the house and while making his way through the kitchen he stumbled over something, and both found that it was a kerosene oil can.

Capt. Baxter also testified that he had a conversation with Mrs. Adams and that she complained of a loss of money which she had sewed up in a velvet sacque.

Witness said that he heard Mrs. Adams state that she was taking a bath when she heard some one scratching on a window and later saw a man. She left the bath tub and entered the cellar and later she was found just outside the cellar door.

Capt. Baxter said that Mrs. Adams was very nervous and complained of the loss of $900. He said that she stated that she was ready to move away and that the furniture had been packed for five weeks.

In answer to questions put by Lawyer O'Connor witness said that he did not know the defendant personally, neither did he ever see her picking up coal on the railroad tracks.

Questioned by Mr. O'Connor, witness answered that if the fire was set it was set on the first floor and not in the cellar.

George H. Chapman, a member of house 9 in Lincoln street, testified that he was the first man to enter the house. He gained an entrance by breaking the glass in the side door. It was necessary for him to crawl on his hands and knees with the hose in order to reach the fire in the bedroom.

Witness saw a dog in the cellar. He was of the opinion that the dog was a St. Bernard.

Mr. Chapman, on cross examination, said that he could vouch for two fires, one in the bedroom and the second in the kitchen.

Lieut. James W. Halstead of the Protective company testified that he went to the fire, but that there were at least three pieces of apparatus on the scene before he arrived.

He saw Mrs. Adams in the yard in the rear of the house. She was about ten feet from a cellar door. He was attracted to the rear of the house by the woman's cries. She was moaning and hollering, and said she had lost $900. Owing to her condition witness deemed it advisable to send her to the house of a neighbor. Witness said that she did not want to go away from the fire, but that he took hold of her and led her away.

Mary C. Dolan who resides in French street, was arrested last night by Patrolman Edward Patrick. When she was asked to plead to being drunk she denied the allegation and said that she would not have been arrested but for the fact that her landlord got sore on her because she would not send her company home at an early hour. A fine of $5 was imposed.

Fred Redfern entered a plea of not guilty to being drunk, but when it was learned that he was a parole man from the state farm he was bound over under $200 until tomorrow. In the meantime he will be returned to that institution.

John J. Brady, John Archambault and Michael J. Casey, charged with being drunk were each fined $5.

FINNISH DIETWas Dissolved for Refusing to Pass Bill

HELSINGFORS, Nov. 12.—The Finnish diet was dissolved today because of its refusal to sanction the bill introduced by the government asking for an appropriation of $4,000,000 for the defense of the empire. An election will be held Feb. 1 and the new diet will assemble March 1.

The dissolution of the Finnish diet was anticipated when the government bill was rejected yesterday. The conflict in the diet was the same as that which took place in the senate and resulted in the resignation of many Finnish senators and the substitution of Russian military officers. The senate had expressed a willingness to contribute $2,000,000 as an annual appropriation for the internal defense, but double that amount was assessed by the Russian cabinet as Finland's contribution for the defense of the empire.

RESCUED WOMAN REMAINS OF FORTWho Had Fallen Into Swimming Pool

NEW YORK, Nov. 12.—Henry Lang, a chief janitor at Columbia University, plunged into the pool in the basement of the university gymnasium yesterday afternoon and rescued Mrs. Mamie O'Mara, a scrubwoman, who had fallen in. She had gone down for the second time when Lang, attracted by cries of another woman, dragged her out unconscious.

With two other scrubwomen Mrs. O'Mara went to the swimming room in the lunch hour yesterday to clean the floor near the shower baths. As the pool is closed at noon there were no students about. Mrs. O'Mara, was scrubbing the pavement when she slipped on the soapy stone and fell into the water.

Lang was on the top floor of the building when he heard the cries of Mrs. O'Mara's companion. He ran down the stairs with about a dozen students who had been in the gymnasium and locker rooms.

The students stood off, as they could see no signs of the woman in the water, but Lang mounted to the top of an eight foot tower used for diving to get a clearer view of the bottom of the tank. In the deepest part he saw Mrs. O'Mara. He threw off his coat and dove in.

He got hold of the woman, lifted her to the surface and swam to the shallow part of the pool, where she was lifted out of his hands by the students. After being resuscitated Mrs. O'Mara went home to 127th street unharmed by the shock.

JAMES STORROWFavored for Mayor of Boston

BOSTON, Nov. 12.—James J. Storrow, former chairman of the school board and member of the banking firm of Lee, Higginson & Co. was last night nominated by the committee of 150 as the mayoralty candidate against John F. Fitzgerald, and he accepted the nomination.

The committee met in Wesleyan hall, Bromfield street, and in addition to nominating Mr. Storrow, created a new party, the Citizens' Municipal League.

The selection of the candidate and the creation of the party constituted the entire business of the session. It also marked the opening of one of the most strenuous and long drawn out political contests ever waged for municipal office in this city, which will end on the afternoon of Jan. 11, when the polls close for the first city election under the new charter.

Harmony prevailed throughout the evening. The program was so carefully carried out that only 15 minutes were required to transact the entire business. There was not a hitch, and the smoothness which characterized the convention was accomplished through the efforts of former Mayor Nathan Matthews, whose advice was sought immediately after the committee of 150 met for the first time on Tuesday of last week.

Mr. Storrow's name was the only one presented for the mayoralty nomination as was predicted after interviews with prominent members of the committee of 150. He was recommended for nomination by the committee of nine on mayoralty, of which Charles S. Hamilton was chairman, and there was no second choice. The committee was united on his nomination, and the full body, which had constituted itself as the Citizens' Municipal League of the early part of the session, accepted the recommendation of the committee of nine with but one dissenting vote.

Enthusiasm for Storrow
The announcement of Mr. Storrow's name brought forth unbounded enthusiasm, and gave the promoters of the new league such encouragement that they are confident that their candidate will be able to go out and defeat Fitzgerald, Hibbard, Brand and every other candidate who remains in the fight.

The action of the convention was no surprise, as every member of the committee of 150, which afterward formed the committee of 150, believed from the outset that Mr. Storrow was the logical candidate for mayor of Boston, and the one man able to enter the fight, win the election, and give the municipality a sound, business-like administration.

Although it was generally expected that the convention would also nominate a slate of candidates for the new city council and the school board, the committee of nine on the balance of the ticket was not fully prepared to report. Chairman Nathan Matthews explained that more time was required, and the convention allowed until next Tuesday evening for the report. On that evening another meeting will be held, when Mr. Storrow will appear and formally accept the nomination.

No attempt was made to have Mr. Storrow attend last night's meeting, but Sec. David F. Tilley was authorized to inform Mr. Storrow that he was the choice of the convention.

"OLD BEN" Illustrated
In one of his philosophical moods, Ben Franklin let drop from his pen this bit of American logic—"Never put off until tomorrow what can be done today." He must have realized the uncertainty of what tomorrow might develop. Old Ben knew what he was talking about. Were he in an upright position today he would immediately order

FIRED FIVE SHOTS

Men Were Refused
Drink by Bartender

NASHUA, N. H., Nov. 15.—Entering the City hotel at the junction shortly before 11 o'clock last evening, James Leahy and Hiram Black demanded a drink, and upon being refused fired five shots at Eugene Goker, the former New England league baseball pitcher, who is now bartender. All of the shots went wild and the mirrors behind the bar and several bottles of liquor were demolished.

A small number of men were at the bar, and among these was Charles DeLory, who knocked down Black. In the meantime, it is alleged, Leahy was drawing his revolver and attention was turned to him. Black recovered and made his way out of the door without his hat and pistol while Leahy was turned over to the police.

Black, badly dazed by the blow he had received, was found near the automobile house at the Keene railroad crossing at Temple street. The last legislative act of a law making the carrying of weapons without an excuse a very serious offense.

FRED MAGUIRE

LOCAL BOXER TO APPEAR AT ARMORY CLUB

A large number of Lowell boxing fans will attend the meeting of the Armory A. A. in Boston next Tuesday evening when Freddie Maguire of this city will appear in an eight round bout against Angus MacDonnell, the clever South Eastern bantam. Maguire is in great shape and as he is one of the cleverest men in the country at his weight he should win over his husky little antagonist. Freddie has not been in the ring for some time owing to the fact that there was no one in this vicinity at his weight who would meet him. Of late several clever bantams have sprung up and Freddie is out to try them all. Al. Limerick of Haverhill, who has been seen here on several occasions, will box eight rounds, Lieby Myers of Charlestown at 118 pounds, and the main bout will be of 12 rounds between Ralph Galloway of California and the new Western heavyweight, who has been surprising the talent, and Jim Barry of Chicago, who is too well known to need any introduction. Maguire is at weight and is doing light training during the week.

LOWELL OPERA HOUSE

"When Knighthood Was in Flower" was the offering at the Opera House last evening. It was indeed a most remarkable production when the low prices of admission are taken into consideration. In the hands of Miss Grayce and her capable company this famous romantic drama, first made popular by Julia Marlowe, was given in a way equal in every respect to the representation given here some time ago at high prices. Every detail was complete and perfect. Miss Grayce proved equally at home in comedy as she has done in heavier characters and as Mary Tudor the most headstrong of heroines she was all that could be desired. Rogers Barker scored heavily as Charles Brandon, Gavin Harris made a good Henry VIII while Edmund Abbey was decidedly convincing as the Dauphin. The stage settings and costumes were all that could be desired. It would seem that the first four productions given by the organization receive the very high standards promised and speaks volumes for the many famous and pleasing bills that are to follow.

For this evening Molna's much discussed play "The Devil" will be the remarkable offering. This drama has aroused world wide discussion as it is without doubt one of the strangest offerings ever given on the stage. "The Devil" tomorrow afternoon will be found one of the very best of the Cornell stories as it overflows with the Norwegian atmosphere that is so novel and pleasing. "The Pit" at night will be staged with no less than 50 people in its mob scenes that occur on the floor of the Chicago stock exchange.

"DR. JEKYLL AND MR. HYDE."

Next Monday evening, Nov. 22, "Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde" will be the bill at the Opera House. The dual roles of Jekyll and Hyde, which have been selected by many prominent stars as a fitting vehicle for the display of their ability will be played by Frederick Pierce, a clever young actor who is credited with giving an excellent interpretation of the difficult parts. The supporting company, which is said to be a good one, includes Marie Ross, a handsome and intelligent looking woman. The engagement will be played at popular prices and seats are now on sale.

"THE CONVICT'S DAUGHTER"

Tuesday night, Nov. 23, at the Opera House, Ralph Galloway of California, in a melodrama, "The Convict's Daughter," will be seen. The play tells a story of strong heart interest, is replete with strong scenes and melodramatic situations and plenty of good clean comedy. Popular prices will prevail for this engagement and seats will be on sale Friday morning.

"THE OLD HOMESTEAD"

Denman Thompson's "Old Homestead" is to be seen here Wednesday, Nov. 24, matinee and night. What would be the affair without it? What a train of thought the name "The Old Homestead" seems to set a-going. For to many of us of the present generation our first experience at the theatre was in witnessing "The Old Homestead." We were taken to see this charming play in our childhood and for many of us it was a school of the very best of the very few dramas that could be witnessed with perfect safety to the morals of the young. And as the years multiply the old play seems to lose none of the brightness and freshness of the early days. On the contrary, age seems to have mellowed it. Uncle Josh is heartily welcome here, and so are all the other friends whom we seem to number among our personal acquaintances. Aunt Matilda, Cy Prime, Seth Perkins, Aunt Mary, and the ever popular, popular, popular, the country addlers, and Ann Maria Murdock, the prim one. They will all be on hand with all their quaint characteristics, not overlooking also the famous double quartet of farm hands, which will be heard in some new numbers and some of the old favorites.

"EAST LYNNE"

Joseph King's company in "East Lynne" will appear at the Opera House Thursday, Nov. 25, matinee and night. Mr. King produced "The Ninety and Nine," the great rural play that had a six months' run at the Academy of Music, New York, and has given his personal attention to "East Lynne," what is said to be one of the most complete and effective representations of "East Lynne," which has ever been sent on tour will be given. The company, scenic equipment and accessories, are all up to the standard required for an artistic presentation of the favorite old drama.

ELSIE JANIS.

Elsie Janis, the youthful and versatile star whom Charles Dillingham is presenting in "The Fair Co-Ed," by George Ade and Gustave Laders, has enthroned herself in the hearts of all good performers at the Colonial theatre in Boston. The undergraduate body of M. I. T. occupied practically the entire house and Miss Janis made exceptionally successful efforts to entertain the boys. Miss Janis comes to Lowell soon.

HATHAWAY THEATRE

Luigi Marabini, the sculptor in ice, who is appearing at Hathaway's theatre, this week, has had an eventful life. One day in Vienna, when he was out of employment, he conceived the idea of modelling images from dough. He was given a chance to display his idea and was at once engaged. Later he modelled exquisite statues out of candy and finally, in London he was engaged at the Carlton hotel to model figures from ice, to be used during banquets. There a vaudeville agent saw him and offered him an opportunity to appear in America. He has been in this country two years and has been a tremendous success.

James R. McCann and company appear in the happy little skit called "Uncle Charles of Charleston." Acts of the vaudeville, Mabelle Adams, Gypsy violinists, Sam Doty, singing comedian; Morgan & Chester in a one-act sketch; Farrell-Taylor trio in a brace of funnyisms; McDeyitt & Kelley, eccentric dancers, and the Dittlescope with new pictures.

STAR THEATRE

The smallest and funniest acrobats in the world, and Miss Gertrude Lamont, soubrette, were on today's new vaudeville bill at the Star theatre, and delighted two large audiences. New illustrations of the world's most popular program. There will be a complete change of motion pictures tomorrow. Some star vaudeville attractions will be presented next week. The admission of five cents allows a seat.

ACADEMY OF MUSIC

Commencing with matinee today, another splendid vaudeville and moving picture show will be given. An exceptionally strong bill will be the offering, headed by Clark and Luncheon in singing, talking and impersonations of a well known characters, while "Juggling De-Liaise" will present some new tricks. The pictures at the Academy are all new.

THEATRE VOYONS

One of the operas to be given in Boston within a short time by the Grand Opera company, "Rigoletto," will be shown in motion pictures today at the Theatre Voyons. This picture, a new release of Pathé, is a film d'art and is acted by a special cast of actors from the best theatres of Paris. A second headliner will be "Dora," dramatized from the famous poem by Lord Alfred Tennyson.

SEC'Y WILSON

Takes Drastic Action Against Millers

WASHINGTON, Nov. 18.—Open defiance by millers of the government's warning to cease to manufacture bleached flour, on pain of seizure, has led Secretary of Agriculture Wilson to take drastic action. An order has been issued to inspectors of the department of agriculture to seize all of the bleached flour in the country and information has been received here that as a result of that action fourteen consignments of bleached flour comprising several hundred car loads were taken in the west yesterday. Further seizures are expected today. It is supposed here that about $1,000,000 worth of bleached flour was manufactured during the past year and that most of what remains of it is in the east, especially in and about New York.

About a year ago the department of agriculture following an investigation and experiments decided that bleached flour is injurious to health. Then the secretary issued an order to prevent the manufacture of such flour, but for various reasons the mills were allowed six months to dispose of their stock. Some of them obeyed the order, but others, it is said, continued their operations.

NIGHT EDITION
AGAINST CHRISTIANITYPope Pius Characterizes Struggle in France

In Address to French Pilgrims, His Holiness Declares That the Aim of France, in Present Struggle, is to Undermine the Basis of Christianity

ROME, Nov. 18.—Pope Pius in an address to the French pilgrims whom he received today declared that France was making war against the church with an aim of undermining the basis of Christianity. Catholicism, he said, was suffering persecution by the French government under the pretext of the separation of state and church. This was proved, he added, by the expulsion of the orders, the trials and condemnations inflicted upon Cardinal Andrieu and other bishops and the threatened laws which would extend official protection to irreligious teachers and bring about a state monopoly of the schools. France which would make the state the arbiter of religious matters was at the same time fighting the French bishops who were faithful to the pontiff. These bishops were not allowed, the pope said, to enjoy the liberty granted by French laws to all free citizens but on the contrary were insulted, tried and condemned for the sole reason that they were courageous in fulfilling their apostolic duty. "All this," the pope said, "instead of depressing must animate Catholics to defend their religious rights and he concluded his address by urging the faithful to cling to the episcopacy.

The papal words are accepted here as confirmation of the opinion that the Vatican believes the struggle organized by the French government on the school question is intended to be a decisive battle for the complete effacement of Christianity as a factor in the rearing of children, or in other words, the suppression of Christianity in the France of tomorrow. It is asserted that the Vatican is ready to fight on two questions, namely, the denial of legal acknowledgment of the Catholic hierarchy and scholastic instruction.

INCENDIARY BLAZE

Caused a Loss of $100,000
Early This Morning

General Alarm From Box 42 Called Entire Department to Stubborn Fire in Davis &
Sargent's Lumber Mill in Middlesex Street —Department Still at Work at Scene This Afternoon—Thief in Search of Pay Envelopes
Supposed to Have Set Fire

The most stubborn fire that has visited Lowell in a long time broke out about midnight in the big three story brick building in Middlesex street opposite Howard, known as the Davis and Sargent building and occupied by that concern and several others, in the lumber, box and machinery business.

The fire is believed to be the work of a thieving incendiary who either disappointed in an unsuccessful attempt to steal pay envelopes fired the building, or else in making a hurried exit dropped a match among a pile of shavings causing an instantaneous blaze. The fire marshal's office was notified this morning and a rigid investigation will be made at once.

While the fire was destructive and estimated of their losses at the time of going to press, for the fire was still in progress with several hours' work before the firemen, it is believed that the aggregate loss will reach about $100,000, as a large amount of lumber and machinery was destroyed.

Started in Basement

The fire originated in a shaving pile in the basement of the upper part of the building occupied by Davis & Sargent. It was discovered by Herb Livingston, who noticed black smoke curling through the windows as he was passing. About the same time Officer Frank Donovan happened along, and the latter immediately sent in an alarm from box 42.

Upon the arrival of the fire apparatus dense and stifling volumes of black smoke poured from every aperture in the building, filling the street and hiding the blaze so that it was impossible to learn at once just where the fire was raging within. A second alarm was sounded and as the smoke poured out more furiously a third or general alarm, seldom heard in Lowell, was rung in. The general alarm drawing an immense crowd of people to the scene along with all the policemen not controlling routes on the outskirts. The smoke hung low in Middlesex street on the lower side of the street, particularly keeping the spectators at a safe distance.

Lieut. Connors took charge of the police detail and roped off the street 100 feet away from the burning building on both sides of the street.

Several employees of the different firms in the building were early on the scene and gave directions to the firemen as to how to get to the fire within the building, but the firemen used their own judgment in the matter for which one insurance man this forenoon was heard to criticize them.

OILED WASTE CITY HALL NEWS

Found by Firemen in Adams House

The case of Mrs. Margaret Adams, charged with arson, was resumed in police court this afternoon. During the course of the testimony waste, alleged to have been saturated with kerosene oil, was produced. The insurance policies which were originally made out in the name of Henry Adams and later transferred to Mrs. Margaret Adams were also presented.

Lieut. Hilsand was recalled and testified under cross-examination that he and Inspector Maher were detailed on the case and found pieces of cotton waste which were saturated with kerosene oil. He testified that Mrs. Adams claimed that she had lost $938.

On cross-examination, Inspector Walsh stated that he picked the piece of waste out of a pile of debris outside of one of the windows.

Other pieces of waste, which witness said were found in back of a door in the house, were produced.

Inspector Martin Maher of the local police, said that he assisted in the investigation of the fire. He said he met Mrs. Adams and followed with a general description of the interior of the house.

Continuing he said: "Mrs. Adams said that she retired at 2:30 on the night of the fire. She said her feet got cold and she got up and put her feet in the oven. She went to bed again at 11:30 o'clock but a little later was awakened by a sound. Arising, she claimed that she saw a man in the house and went into the cellar. After leaving the house she claimed that she fainted and did not remember anything else until she was awakened by somebody.

Thomas C. Lee, insurance agent, was the next witness called. Witness Lee was on the stand a policy of $1500 in the Albany Insurance Co., covering the household furniture, was admitted as evidence. It was shown that originally the policy was made payable to Henry Adams but that on Aug. 30, 1908, the policy was transferred to Mrs. Adams.

MOLLY VARNUM CASE

IS NOW BEFORE THE SUPREME COURT

The arguments in the case of the Molly Varnum chapter, D. A. R., have been made and will be considered by the supreme judicial court. The chapter asked for an abatement of taxes paid in favor of the chapter on the ground that it was exempt from the payment of taxes, charitable, etc., institution and that it was exempt from taxation. The amount involved is a small matter but the settlement of the question as to the exemption clause is somewhat important.

The exceptions to Judge Dana's findings in the recent police board matter will, it is expected, be taken up in a few days. City Solicitor Duncan said today that he had talked with counsel for the other side and he expects that a hearing will be held perhaps a week from next Saturday morning.

PORTUGAL'S CLAIM

REFUSED RECOGNITION BY CHINESE DELEGATES

LISBON, Nov. 18.—The Seculo today says that the Chinese delegates to the Hong Kong conference having refused to recognize Portugal's claim in Macao to submit the question of arbitration, Portugal has opened four parlors direct with China for the maintenance of the status quo.

Macao in China, situated on an island of the same name, the mouth of Canton river, forms with the two small adjacent islands of Taipa and Coloane a province, the city being divided into two wards, one inhabited by Chinese and the other by non-Chinese, each having its own administration. China holds that all the dependencies of the city of Macao have been some years illegally by Portugal for territory made to Portugal is that of Macao and she insists that the territory and islands be evacuated by Portugal. Some time ago the Portuguese government sent Joaquim Jose Machado to China in the hope of reaching an amicable settlement of the dispute but little progress has been made.

Awarded to Different Bidders

The street department, which includes the sewer department, is busy preparing for the winter. There is a good deal of work to be done for which no money was appropriated until very late in the year and now it's a case of haste to get it done before the frost comes.

One street gang is macadamizing Fremont street and putting in new gutters in that and other streets in the same locality. The gutters in these streets are what are known as "dish gutters" and they are being taken out and replaced by the regular straight gutter.

Another gang is doing patch work in Rogers street beginning at the slate road. Nichols street is being treated to a coat of macadam and new gutters are being put in.

Tom Morrison has charge of a sidewalk gang that has been busy for several weeks. Mr. Morrison finished with the sidewalk in Dutton street a few days ago and today he is engaged in renewing the brick sidewalk in front of the Waverly hotel in Market street.

The sidewalk on Central street have the next call and Mr. Morrison and his men will attend to them just as soon as he has finished in Market street.

Sewer work is going on in Hildreth and Bennett streets and work on the sewers in Marsh and Moore streets will be begun as soon as the money for the work has been appropriated. Ledge has been encountered in Bennett street and Mr. Putnam said today that he expected to encounter more ledge in Marsh and Moore streets.

Sewer jobs in the Highlands have been closed for the winter, the work having been carefully postponed, and the sewer job in E street, for which money was recently appropriated, has also been completed.

AFTER WILDCAT MEAT

Chinese Think It Will Make Them Fight Better

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 18.—Wildcat meat is at a premium in the Chinese quarter in this city as a result of the strike between the Yee family and the On Yick tong which has brought six murders in or near San Francisco since the first of November. There is a superstition among the Chinese that if their warriors are fed on the flesh of the wildcats they will assimilate the ferocity of the beasts and their fighting efficiency will be made greater. The butchers of the quarter are driving a thriving trade in wildcat meat among the two clans now at war. There has been no relaxation of the vigilance of the police Chinatown squads. The detectives who are mingling with the Chinese every day say that more killings are certain before the feud dies out. Every prominent Chinese connected even remotely with the On Yicks or the Yee family is surrounded by a bodyguard of white men whenever he appears on the streets as it is known that prices have been set on the heads of many by the warring factions. The hair of one doomed man is said to be turning white daily. To the casual observer the Chinese quarter looks as peaceful as though long wars were unknown. The inhabitants shuffle about without any sign of nervous strain or fear on their impassive faces. The only unusual sights are displays made by hardware dealers, who have given revolvers a conspicuous place in their windows, and the wildcats gathered from all over the state which are exhibited at every butcher shop.

A. O. H. Divs. Discussed Building Project

NEW YORK, Nov. 18.—While it was stated at St. Vincent's hospital today that ex-Secy of the Treasury Carlisle who has been seriously ill there for several days, spent a comfortable night and though no change for the worse has occurred, it is generally believed that Mr. Carlisle's condition is such that he may not recover. Friends of the former member were informed today that Mr. Carlisle while he is in no immediate danger is afflicted with a malady which it is feared will prove fatal. Dr. Joseph Bryant, regarding the report that Mr. Carlisle was dying, said that there was no present foundation for that statement. It was intimated, however, that some official declaration as to Mr. Carlisle's condition might be expected shortly.

"There are scores of rules that might stand overhauling and I am heartily in favor of a longer season for National league owners. Instead of assembling at New York next month for a three days' meeting why not extend the season, giving six or seven days to the consideration of all these appeals from enthusiasts? I request containing real merit will be taken to the league meeting. Now it's up to the fans to send on their suggestions."

CHARGE OF ARSON LIVELY RALLIES

Brought Against Mrs. Adams of Lincoln Street

As Result of Recent Fire in Her House—Chief Hosmer and Firemen Testified to What They Found—Two Different Fires in Progress

Mrs. Margaret Adams was arraigned before Judge Hadley in police court this morning on a complaint in which there were three counts, one alleging that she committed arson by maliciously burning a building, the second that she attempted to defraud the Michigan Fire and Marine Insurance company of $600, and the third complaint that she attempted to defraud the Albany Insurance company of $1500.

Lawyer J. Joseph O'Connor appeared for the defendant and entered a plea of not guilty. The prosecution was conducted by Charles F. Rice, chief fire inspector of the state police.

The case grew out of the fire which occurred in a house in Lincoln street belonging to Robert G. Bartlett on the morning of November 7th and occupied by Mrs. Adams. According to the testimony offered, fires started or were started in two different places and that Mrs. Adams complained of a loss of $900, but subsequently stated that her loss was only $300.

An investigation followed and the fire marshal brought the matter before the court.

The policies which covered the insurance were made payable to Mr. Henry Adams, the husband of the accused.

Robert G. Bartlett was the first witness called. He testified that Mr. Adams had been a tenant-at-will at his house at 219 Lincoln street for about a year and a half. Witness said that there was considerable firework about the place. He said that Mrs. Adams had notified him that she was about to move away.

There was no cross examination.

Recalled by Judge Hadley, Mr. Bartlett testified that there was a fire in the house on the morning of Nov. 7. With A. Coburn, a musician, was the next witness called. While delivering milk on the morning of Nov. 7 he saw smoke coming from the house. He kicked the door of the house and rang the bell, but was unable to get any response. He then went through the rear yard and failed to arouse any occupant of the building.

Witness then went to the firehouse in Lincoln street and notified the firemen. He accompanied the firemen to the scene, and at the request of one of the firemen sent in an alarm.

Chief Engineer E. S. Hosmer of the fire department was called and after answering the preliminary questions said: "An alarm was rung in at 12:10 o'clock on the morning of Nov. 7. When I arrived there was a fire in the bedroom which had made its way through the roof.

"There was another fire in the kitchen. There were two distinct fires. In the kitchen there were rags on the back of a chair. The chair was badly charred.

"Did you detect any peculiar odor as you entered the house?" asked Mr. Rice.

"Yes, sir."

"What was it?"

"Kerosene oil."

"Did you notice any vessel there?"

"Yes, sir."

"What was it?"

"A kerosene oil can."

"Where did you find that?"

"Under the table in the kitchen."

"Was there any stopper on the can?"

"No, sir."

Lawyer O'Connor objected to what Mr. Rice questioned witness as to what he thought was the cause of the fire and the objection was sustained.

Chief Hosmer told his conversation with Mrs. Adams after the fire had been extinguished. He said that she informed him that she had lost $900 which was sewed up in a velvet sac.

Witness said that Mrs. Adams told him that on the night of the fire she saw a man peeping out of a room which led off the kitchen. At the time that she saw the man she said she was in a bed in the entry.

Chief Hosmer said that the front door was blocked by a bed and that the fire department was unable to get in that way. He testified that the entry was packed with goods. There was no furniture upstairs. All of the several big meetings held last night without any personalities—The candidates conducting a clean and gentlemanly campaign predicting United Action and Victory

James E. O'Donnell held a largely attended and enthusiastic rally in the Lyon street schoolhouse last evening, addressing the gathering for 40 minutes on his record in the legislature. Mr. O'Donnell enumerated the many labor measures on which he not only voted favorably, but also advocated on the floor of the house and worked for in committee. On the one labor measure which he opposed, the picketing bill, Mr. O'Donnell stated that he looked into the matter carefully, considered its constitutionality and decided that it was not a good measure and for that reason voted against it. He was told, before he voted that the measure would not go through the senate, and was asked to get on the wagon and favor it anyway. "With this information, if I desired to play politics," he said, "I might have voted for the bill, knowing that it would have been killed in the senate and there would have been no criticism; but I didn't believe in it and was honest about it. On this as on all other measures I voted, talked and acted as I believed to be right."

In relation to his vote to raise the salary of the judges, which was criticized in some quarters, Mr. O'Donnell called attention to the fact that the Lowell session of the superior court is at present suspended with a large docket because there is no judge to try it. It is impossible to get the right kind of men in the judiciary unless they are allowed an adequate salary. The welfare of the commonwealth depends in a large measure on the high standard of its judiciary. In concluding his remarks, Mr. O'Donnell referred to the charity board and stated that it was the one issue upon which all democratic candidates appear to be agreed. The charity board is in need of reorganization and the form of a new organization, said Mr. O'Donnell, the speaker was cheered at the conclusion of his remarks.

Mr. Moohan in Centralville

John P. Moohan addressed a big gathering of mill operatives at the local mill yesterday noon and in the evening made three speeches in Centralville, at West Third and Bridge streets and at the corner of Lake and Columbia streets. He reviewed his career in the legislature and asked his hearers to inquire about his stand on more than 3500 bills, and if there was one not consistent with the best interests of the wage earners and the vital concerns of the city and commonwealth, to vote against him. He said that from the beginning of the campaign to the present moment he had hit no opponent below the belt, in hall, on the street or in printed advertisement and would not under any circumstances, no matter what may be the result.

Maj. Crowley in Pawtucketville

Walter S. Flynn presided over a ward seven Crowley rally at the rooms of the Pawtucketville social club last evening, and the speakers were Edward J. Tierney and Major Crowley. The latter spoke for nearly an hour and was frequently interrupted by applause. He took up the local issues and dealt upon the condition of affairs in the charity department and repeated his statement made the evening previous to the effect that if elected he would bring about the reorganization of that board. He pointed out other abuses that should be corrected and that he would attend to if elected mayor. Major Crowley also assured the voters that however the campaign might result he would take off his coat for the democratic nominee and work for the success of the party until the close of the polls on election day. If nominated he would give Mr. Brown all the fight he wanted.

Mr. Daly in Ward Five

John W. Daly appeared at the corner of Lawrence and Abbott streets last evening before a large and friendly gathering. He talked on the present charter, the charity department, and other local issues and made a most favorable impression. Mr. Daly referred in most courteous language to his opponents and stated that he would be with the winner, whoever he may be and would work as hard for another year as he would for himself, such hearty praise.

Mr. Maloney at Liberty Square

Mr. William L. Maloney addressed a large and very enthusiastic crowd at Liberty square early last evening and discussed the issues of the campaign with a few remarks as to himself. He then took up the matter of harmony in the democratic party as being the principle essential for party success on election day. He stated that he believed he could win if nominated, but in the event of another routing, the honor he would bow gracefully to the will of the majority and would work for the success of the party nominee. Mr. Maloney addressed a second meeting in Willie street and this noon spoke before a large gathering at the Beach, receiving a very cordial reception.

A CHILD'S LIMB OFF TO NORFOLK

Pres. Taft Will Review Military Parade

TROY, N. Y., Nov. 18.—The police of the city after an investigation into the finding of a leg of a child apparently about eight years old in an ash heap in the Hill section of the city yesterday, made the announcement that the limb was probably placed in the ashes two or three years ago by a modest student. There is no record of a disappearance in this section that permits of the entertainment of a suspicion of foul play in connection with the incident.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 18.—President Taft, accompanied by Mrs. Taft, the latter's sister, Mrs. Thomas L. Laughlin, Jr., of Pittsburgh, Captain Butt, his military aide, and Asst. Sec. Mischner, will leave Washington at 4 o'clock this afternoon on board the naval yacht Mayflower for Norfolk, Va., where Mr. Taft tomorrow will review a military and naval parade and make an address before the second annual convention of the Atlantic deep waterways conference.

The president tomorrow afternoon will attend an old fashioned Virginia oyster roast on the beach at Cape Henry and will spend the night with his party on board the Mayflower. The president has invited Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Carnegie to join him at Norfolk and they have accepted. After the president goes aboard the Mayflower tomorrow night at Norfolk the yacht will probably go down into Hampton Roads and anchor until Saturday morning when the president will go ashore at Hampton, Va., to attend a meeting of the Board of Trustees of the Hampton Normal Institute of which he is a member. The president will be entertained at luncheon at Hampton and at 3 o'clock in the afternoon will deliver an address to the colored students. Returning aboard the Mayflower at Hampton that evening the president will at once set sail for Washington, arriving here Sunday morning.

A. F. L. SESSION

Matter of Harboring Seceding Bodies Heard

TORONTO, Nov. 18.—A question of state and central bodies affiliated with the American Federation who, it is charged, are still harboring seceding organizations of electrical workers was raised in the convention of the federation today by Delegate Hayes of Cleveland. The convention yesterday approved a plan submitted by the committee on laws whereby it is expected an amalgamation of the two factions of the electrical workers will be brought about. Mr. Hayes said that state legislatures in West Virginia, Utah, Montana, Oklahoma, Washington, New Jersey and Nebraska were harboring seceding factions of the electrical workers and wanted to know if their charters would be revoked. President Gompers replied that when formal complaint or official knowledge of such conduct was received the organizing organizations would be advised that their course must be changed. He declined to say what action would be taken by the executive council, declaring that it might be construed as a threat.

It was the purpose of the federation he said to be impartial and just.

The convention devoted the greater part of today's session to a discussion of various jurisdictional disputes reported by the committee on adjustment. In the controversy between the International Association of Car Workers and the Brotherhood of Railroad Carmen the committee recommended that a conference between the executive officers of the two organizations and in the executive council of the American Federation of Labor be held in Washington at an early date to endeavor to form a plan for the amalgamation of the two bodies. The recommendation was adopted.

HAND BAG FOUND TO AID ESTRADA

New Evidence in Troy Attempt to Take Supplies to Bluefields

TROY, N. Y., Nov. 18.—While working on the case of Caroline Gorgon of Glen Island, whose body was found near her home yesterday bearing evidence of murder, the police of Albany county today found the hand-bag of the dead girl in the window of a salarway several blocks from her parents' residence. It was empty, although it had contained not longer ago than Tuesday about $25. The authorities state that they cannot determine the cause of death until the stomach of the victim has been examined at the Bender laboratory in Albany, where it will be taken by the coroner's physician. The owner of an automobile residing in Colosse was questioned this morning by the police but nothing was learned during the interview that afforded a clue to the whereabouts of Miss Gorgon from Tuesday afternoon until her body was found yesterday.

NEW ORLEANS, Nov. 18.—What is alleged to have been an attempt to take a shipment of supplies to Bluefields to aid the force of Gen. Estrada was protested in a formal manner at the custom house lately by Consul General Alcazar representing the Zelaya government in Nicaragua.

The Nicaraguan officials asked that the steamer Ustich be refused clearance papers on the allegation that it had been chartered by ex-President Bonilla of Honduras for the purpose of taking several revolutionists to Bluefields from this city.

The collector of the port here wired to the state department at Washington for instructions, but none arriving late last evening he allowed the vessel to proceed to her destination.

The Ustich is owned by Holt and Isaacson of Norway who also own the Ustich which was reported as captured by the revolutionary forces in Nicaragua.

UNDER THE RIVER STAY GRANTED

New York's Great Tunnel Opened Today

To the Convicted Labor Leaders

WASHINGTON, Nov. 18.—The court of appeals upon request of counsel for the labor leaders granted a stay to Nov. 29 of the issuance of the mandate sentencing President Gompers, Vice President Mitchell and Secretary Morrison of the American Federation for contempt of the supreme court of the District of Columbia in the Ellis stove and range case.

Chief Justice Shepard stated that if the labor leaders had by Nov. 29, the day the supreme court of the United States reconvenes, filed in that court a petition for certiorari on application for a further stay of the mandate would be granted pending the determination by the higher tribunal of the application.

As a result of this action Gompers, Mitchell and Morrison need not hasten to Washington as it will not be necessary to surrender under their hands or have recourse to other proceedings.

DEATH OF INFANTS THE BUDGET FIGHT

Caused by Milk, Doctor Says, and Government Will Not Compromise With the Peers

PROVIDENCE, R. I., Nov. 18.—Dr. Gardiner T. Swarts, state superintendent of health, is making an investigation into the causes of the deaths of 23 infants at the Myrtle baby home, Pawtucket avenue, East Providence, since June last.

According to Dr. William T. Knoop of Providence, a graduate of Brown university and the Harvard medical school, the visiting physician, the deaths can be traced to a single case of condensed milk. Samples of this milk in the hands of the state board are said to have shown the presence of highly deleterious bacteria.

The home has been supported from various sources, money contributed by persons leaving their offspring there, through collections from members of the Lighthouse mission at Winter and Cranston streets, this city, the passing of the hat at open air religious meetings at Hoyte Tavern square and from house to house visitations, made by women connected with the management.

From aristocratic women of College hill, this city, quite a sum, it is reported, was secured during the past 12 months. Some of the well-to-do and charitably inclined went from their homes here to East Providence to look into the Myrtle home management for themselves and found things satisfactory, so lent their aid.

Most active in the affairs of the Myrtle home is Miss Doughty, sister of Frank Doughty, once a prosperous East Providence business man, who was one of the leaders of world-wide believers at Duxbury, Mass. last summer.

Miss Doughty says the deaths of the babies, in her opinion, came about through the use of the condensed milk. She declared the home is managed in painstaking and thoroughly hygienic style, and that babies placed there have always flourished heretofore.

Names of Babies Who Died

The names of the babies who have died, together with the date of their deaths, and the causes ascribed, follow:

June 23—Frederick Hayes Burns, 2 months 23 days, convulsions and malnutrition.

Aug. 8—Wm. William Hickey, 1 month 4 days, convulsions, malnutrition and general weakness.

Aug. 24—John Henry Collins, 1 month 2 days, infant prostration.

Aug. 25—John Roberts, 1 month 5 days, intestinal indigestion, heat prostration and heart weakness.

Aug. 31—Louis Palmer, 2 months, tuberculosis and acute intestinal indigestion.

Aug. 31—George Scully, 1 month, 29 days, dropsy, cardiac failure.

Sept. 7—Charles Carter, 1 month 11 days, anaemia or cardiac weakness.

Sept. 17—William Smith, 5 months 13 days, acute intestinal indigestion.

Oct. 3—Muriel Hope Wilson, 2 months 3 days, abscess of ear penetrating brain and causing abscess at base of brain.

Oct. 6—William Arnold Earl, 4 months 17 days, weak heart and convulsions.

Oct. 8—Norman Alden Strange, 6 months 9 days, tuberculosis due to diarrhoea.

Oct. 11—Antonio Villari, 9 months 4 days, acute meningitis.

Oct. 15—Albert Lewis Freeman, 5 months 5 days, abscess (tuberculosis).

Oct. 16—Ruth Ethel Murry, 3 months 2 days, heart weakness, anaemia.

Oct. 22—Neva Marguerite Silva, 1 year 8 months 17 days, convulsions due to irritation from adenoids, causing disturbance at base of skull.

Oct. 23—Vincent Paul Gurnley, 4 months 5 days, heart failure.

Oct. 31—Leslie Northcutt, 7 months, acute meningitis.

Nov. 4—Dorothy Hazel Haverman, 5 months 9 days, bronchial pneumonia.

Nov. 6—Doris Midgley, 8 months 10 days, acute meningitis and intestinal indigestion.

Nov. 10—Otis Pendleton, 3 years old, whooping cough.

The information given concerning the situation of Dr. Knoop is interesting, as throwing light upon the matter. He was seen at his office and talked freely.

He said that he had been the visiting physician since the inception of the home in East Providence and had directed the treatment of the infants since then and had given his attention to seeing that everything was sanitary around the place. He said the home was conducted in the best manner possible and the character of Rev. Mr. Tourtellotte was unimpeachable.

The health of the babies had been very good during the summer; in fact, unusually so when the frequency of children's complaints at that season is considered. Fearing that the milk supply in the summer might not be just right, owing to conditions which might arise before the milk reached the babies, he ordered the use of condensed milk.

All went well until the early fall, when Dr. Knoop was called to New York. During his absence most of the babies developed a high fever and diarrhea. He had ordered in case of any trouble that an outside physician should be called, and Rev. Mr. Tourtellotte called in Dr. Seymour of Riverside. He examined the babies and thought that the illness might have been due to a change in weather. He recommended treatment, and when Dr. Knoop returned in a day or two the latter made an examination. He came to the conclusion that there must be something the matter with the milk. He took a can of the brand used to Dr. Swarts three or four weeks ago to be tested. Tuesday was the first time that he had received information concerning the test, but in the meantime the milk was not used.

It is stated by Dr. Knoop that Health Officer Williams, who has looked after the burial of all the babies, has been in almost constant touch with the home, and if the conditions had been in any way unsanitary or the treatment imperfect he would have noted it. The home has always been wide open to everyone who wanted to visit it. A woman coming to the house with a babe in her arms was told how much it would cost to put the babe in the home, but if she said she had no money it was taken for nothing. The plan is for payment according to means and the mission is supported purely by charity. The president himself is responsible for almost half of the funds at the disposal of the mission.

LONDON, Nov. 18.—Walter Runciman, president of the board of education, speaking at Hull last night, made the important announcement in behalf of the government that it would refuse to entertain any negotiations or compromise with the peers over the budget.

Beyond this announcement all is conjecture regarding the development of the political situation. Some prominent liberals are still of the opinion that Premier Asquith will resign on the rejection of the budget.

Others believe that he will ask the king to create a large body of liberal peers, recalling that the Irish church disestablishment bill was allowed to pass the lords on Gladstone's threat to create new peers.

COCAINE CASES GOT NO REWARD

Woman Sentenced for Delivering the Drug

BOSTON, Nov. 18.—Three persons were before Chief Justice Rolister in the municipal court yesterday charged by the Watch and Ward society with dealing in cocaine. Francis Grealis of Cobb street was sent to the Charles street jail for two months for delivering the drug; Annie Lester of 12 Fay street, south end, was sent to the house of correction for four months for a similar offence.

James Devine, who is charged with selling cocaine, was sick and nervous and asked that his case be continued. The judge continued it until Nov. 22, and Devine was sent to the Charles street jail in default of $300 bail.

The prosecutor told the court that many more arrests will be made soon, and that storekeepers will be prosecuted for selling the drug. He said the society will continue the crusade strenuously.

GET DIVORCES

Several Cases Before Judge Sanderson

Toward the close of the session of court yesterday afternoon Judge Sanderson heard several uncontested divorce cases. In the case of Bertha Linstad vs. Ilemar H. Linstad, the libellant testified that her husband came home drunk frequently and made things interesting by kicking her and on one occasion rapping her over the eye with a half pint bottle. The libellee was defaulted.

May C. Ricker asked for a divorce from Fred L. Ricker and she informed the court that Freddie often stayed away for 15 months during which time he was in jail for larceny. He stayed around the house long enough to connect with her pocketbook while she was at work in the mill. The pocketbook contained all her hard earned savings and she has seen neither Freddie nor the savings since. He was called and defaulted.

Georgiana Moreau asked a divorce from her husband, Michael, on the ground of drunkenness and cruelty. The libellee was called in the case of Alice Bulmer vs. William H. Bulmer.

PAPERS MISSING

Trial of $15,000 Suit May be Delayed

BROCKTON, Nov. 18.—Papers filed in connection with the $15,000 suit brought in the superior court here by Richard Brophy of North Cambridge against Otis E. Herring of Boston for alleged alienation of his wife's affections, have disappeared and Clerk Edward E. Hobart has sounded a general alarm among lawyers.

There is no suspicion of larceny, however, as it is supposed that some lawyer carried off the wrong bundle of papers.

The suit is listed for trial today, but without the papers it probably will not be heard.

John Mitchell Says He Will Insist on His Rights

TORONTO, Ont., Nov. 18.—Endorsing a report by the committee on boycott, John Mitchell, one of the three editors of the American Federation of Labor, under sentence for contempt of court, said in a dramatic speech to the convention of that organization at the close of its session yesterday, that so far as he was concerned, regardless of consequences, he intended while at liberty to declare for the rights guaranteed him by the organic laws of his country.

"Whether the boycott be a benefit or a detriment, each man must decide where he will bestow his patronage. I maintain that my patronage is my own and no merchant has a property right in it. It is mine to give or bestow as suits my own pleasure and any attempt through the subtleties of the law to take from men the absolute right to do what they please with their own money must be opposed to the very limit."

"I understand that cognizance is being taken at Washington of the utterances of men on the floor of this convention and I want clearly to state my position. I purpose in the future as I have in the past to exercise the rights secured to me by the fathers of my country and I purpose, if I am sent to jail to declare again when I come out that I shall not for myself purchase any product of the Dicks, Stove and Range Co. I make this declaration not to tickle the ear of any man but that I may publicly declare the conviction that is within me."

"It seems to me that the whole proceedings should prove a lasting lesson to the workmen of the United States and Canada. If all the workmen had been true to themselves there would not have been a non-union product on the market."

Mr. Mitchell said he realized that every statement made by those on the convention floor, and especially by those who on next Monday will have to deliver themselves to the courts, is being closely scrutinized.

"I want the people of the United States to know my position," he said. "I shall not speak defiantly but be the consequences what they will I shall not surrender any right guaranteed to me by the constitution of our country. I am not sure how much mental and physical suffering will be necessary to make me submit but if I know myself, not any amount of suffering will persuade me that I have not the right to spend my money where I please or that I have not the right to write and speak as I please being responsible under the law for my acts."

BODY OF WOMAN

Was Found By Two Little Girls at Troy, N. Y.

TROY, N. Y., Nov. 18.—What the police believe to be a case of murder by means of a powerful drug came to light yesterday when two little girls at play found the body of Caroline D. Gorgan, aged 27 years, who lived at Green Island, Albany county, across the river from Troy. The body was in a clump of bushes in a lonely part of the village near the shore of the Hudson river.

Miss Gorgan was employed in a collar and shirt factory in this city.

The autopsy performed on the body late last night, revealed that the girl had been criminally assaulted. The stomach was removed and will be sent Thursday morning to Bender's laboratory, Albany, for analysis. Miss Gorgan was last seen alive as far as known at four o'clock Tuesday afternoon when she parted from a girl friend, Miss Annie O'Brien, at Ferry and Fourth streets, this city. She had her wages, $15, at the time.

TARIFF REFORM SOLD FOR $10,000

Striking Point in Balfour's Speech

LONDON, Nov. 18.—A striking point in Mr. Balfour's speech at a great meeting at Manchester last night was the admission that tariff reform is the only practical alternative to Chancellor Lloyd-George's budget, an important admission, which seems to indicate that the leader of the opposition in the house of commons has at last been won over to acceptance of tariff reform as a plank in the unionist platform.

As for the rest of the speech, it was mainly a repetition of Mr. Balfour's denunciation of the budget which has figured on previous occasions.

STARS OF THE WISCONSIN AND CHICAGO ELEVENS THAT WILL CLASH IN CHICAGO

CHICAGO, Nov. 18.—Although no championship honor hinges on the result of the Chicago-Wisconsin gridiron struggle at Marshall field, Chicago, Nov. 20, still considerable interest is being taken in the outcome of this struggle. When Minnesota defeated Wisconsin in Madison recently it left the Gophers in undisputed possession of the western conference championship. Chicago and Wisconsin have only the second honors left to fight for. Nov. 20, and the game which might have resulted in a triple tie for the western conference title is therefore robbed of what interest accrued to it as the conference. The game at Marshall field, however, will probably draw as big a crowd as it would if the conference championship were still in dispute, the ancient rivalry between the Badgers and the Maroons serving as a drawing card. On comparative scores and other "dope" Chicago is the favorite in its last game of the season. It made a better showing against Minnesota than did Wisconsin, and it also did far better than the Badgers against Northwestern and Indiana. Chicago is probably stronger now than it was when it met Minnesota, and Wisconsin is likely to be weaker than it was at Madison when it plays on Marshall field. The Badgers were on edge for the Minnesota game and are likely to go backward. The Wisconsin seems to have lost their fighting spirit after

PLAYED TIE GAME

Lowell High Eleven Was Penalized by Officials of Game

The Lowell High school football eleven went to Haverhill yesterday afternoon and defeated the team representing the high school of that city, but the defeat did not count for the local team was playing the referee and the umpire, besides the entire Haverhill team. That the score should have been 20 to 24 to 0 is what the spectators believe, but owing to rather rank penalization the game ended with the score of 8 to 0.

Four times during the game Lowell crossed Haverhill's goal line, only to be called back in each case for an illegal offense. Once it was claimed that the ball was stolen, twice Lowell lost through the decision of the umpire that her men "held," and on the fourth touchdown Haverhill claimed offense. Soon after the start of the game, Gargan picked the ball out of a scrimmage, and ran 30 yards nearly for a touchdown. He was called back, and the ball went into play again nearly in the center of the field, with Haverhill on the offense. Lowell straightway took the ball again on a punt, and rushed the ball nearly the length of the field. Here Redman secured the ball and ran 60 yards for a touchdown. The umpire, who was a Haverhill man, by the way, claimed holding, and the score was disallowed. A similar play soon followed, and the half ended with no score.

In the second half both sides resorted to a kicking game, Bartlett covering himself with glory. On one kick he gained a distance of 55 yards including the bounce, and easily outplayed his opponent. Two forward passes were tried and worked successfully, netting about 20 yards apiece.

With three minutes to play, Lowell rushed the ball nearly the length of the field, and placed it on Haverhill's one yard line. Gargan was sent through for a touchdown, but the umpire said that Lowell was offside, and a penalty of five yards was administered. On the next play Lowell failed to gain, the ball went to Haverhill and she punted out of danger, the half ending soon afterwards.

A. C. WHEELOCK SUED

Man Says He Met With Accident and Wants Damages

The case of William Alexander against Andrew C. Wheelock, an action of tort, in which the ad damnum is $800, was heard before Judge Hadley in the civil session of the police court yesterday afternoon. Lawyer Charbonneau, representing Lawyer A. O. Hamel, presented the case, while the defense was conducted by Lawyer John J. Harvey.

Mr. Alexander, in his declaration, alleged that on the 24th of June, 1907, while walking through Middlesex street and in the exercise of due care that at a point opposite Robert's restaurant, he was struck on the head by a board about 12 feet long, six inches wide and one inch thick, said board having fallen from the roof of the building which was being repaired by employees of the defendant. As a result of the accident the plaintiff claims that he suffered injuries which made him ill for three weeks and still has frequent pains as a result of the injury received.

KILLED HER CHILD

Because Man She Loved Threatened to Leave Her

WASHINGTON, Nov. 18.—A remarkable murder story was revealed here yesterday following the confession of Mary Batson Howard, a negro woman, that she had killed her eight-year-old daughter because Raymond Carver, the man she loved, threatened to leave her unless the child was sent away.

Taking her offspring into Palmer woods near Seat Pleasant, Md., last week Tuesday, the woman said she slashed her child's throat with Carver's razor. Then covering the body with leaves she returned to Washington. The body was found last Friday and the police put the woman through the "third degree." She at first insisted that she had left the child with relatives but finally broke down and confessed.

The woman will be turned over to the Maryland authorities. She said Carver had nothing to do with the murder.

ARSENIC FOUND HILL SENTENCED

In Kelliher Case, According to Report

He Pleaded Guilty of Manslaughter

Prof. Whitney of Harvard medical school, it was said on good authority in Somerville yesterday, has reported finding large quantities of arsenic in the bodies of Stephen Kelliher and Bridget Knowles, the husband and sister of Mrs. Mary Kelliher, who is in the East Cambridge jail awaiting trial on an indictment charging her with murder.

These two bodies were exhumed in September and given to Prof. Whitney for investigation. There were life insurance policies amounting to $3500 upon the husband's and $1000 upon Mrs. Knowles, the sister's life, and these amounts were collected after their deaths by Mrs. Mary Kelliher.

Prof. Whitney found traces of arsenic in the bodies of Annie T. Kelliher, a sister-in-law, and Mary, aged 2, Kathryn M., aged 12, and William, aged 9, all children of Mrs. Mary Kelliher. Mrs. Kelliher is awaiting trial on the charge of murdering these four. These last two bodies were exhumed and examined by order of Dist. Atty. Higgins of Middlesex county for the purpose of strengthening his case and to ascertain, if possible, whether a desire for money might be a motive in the case.

TAUNTON, Nov. 18.—"Prof." Frank Hill of Fall River, who pleaded guilty of manslaughter in being concerned in the death of Miss Amella St. Jean of Woonsocket in Fall River last month was sentenced to not less than seven or more than ten years in state prison in the superior court yesterday. The body of the girl was cut up by Hill after her death in his office in Fall River and distributed in the woods at Tiverton, R. I.

The concluding chapter of the gruesome story which began on Oct. 31th with the discovery of an arm and both legs of a woman in the woods at Tiverton was quickly ended in the superior courtroom today. The Fall River head doctor, whose confession that after the girl died in his office without his assistance he cut up the body and disposed of it while in a frenzy was made by his attorney in the same courtroom ten days ago, stood up to accept the penalty for the crime. His attorney, Thomas V. Higgins, made a slight attempt to save his client from too severe a sentence. District Attorney Swift had nothing to say, and sentence followed at once. In ten minutes Hill was on his way to Charlestown.

POSTAL CHANGES

Two New Routes Have Been Established

Two new postal routes have been made in this city. Heretofore the carriers in the South Lowell and Middlesex Village districts have been using horses, but recently the horses were taken off, and two new carriers were added.

Postmaster Thompson believes that the addition of the two new carriers and the dropping of the two horses is for the betterment of the service in the districts.

Peter Monahan and Joseph Burns are the two men appointed, and following the regular custom they were assigned to night collection duty, the men who formerly did that work being assigned to day routes.

CHARITY BOARD

VOTED REQUISITION FOR 200 COPIES OF REPORT

The board of charities met last night at its headquarters in city hall and voted to authorize a requisition for 200 copies of the report for 1908. This is a case of better late than never. The report should have been printed months ago. Four hundred copies of the report for 1907 were printed last year.

The report of Stephen Garrity of the health department, on the plumbing system in the hospital, pauper and administration buildings was read. It indicated the need of improvements in these departments. The report was placed on file.

Action was taken on several minor matters and the board adjourned.

NON-UNION MEN

DEADWOOD, S. D., Nov. 18.—The Homestake Mining Co. yesterday issued a statement to its 2500 employees that after January 1, 1910, the company will employ only non-union men but that the present eight-hour shift and the present scale of wages will be maintained. The miners have called a mass meeting to be held in Lead to night.

"OPEN THE SHAFT"

Cry of the Widows and Orphans Will be Heeded

CHERRY, Ill., Nov. 18.—The cry of the desperate widows and orphans of Cherry—"Open the shaft—open the shaft!"—will be heeded today if human lives have to be sacrificed to reclaim the entombed dead.

Morning saw over the shaft of the St. Paul mine a heavy structure of wooden piles which will support the burden of grapping tackle to be lowered into the depths. Women, many of them almost insane from the grief that they consumed them, for five days reached the desolate scene before sunrise.

"They are going down to get the poor fellows today," they were told. "Oh, why don't they hurry?" was the unanimous appeal. "Why don't they hurry before it is too late?"

Under the direction of the mining inspectors of Illinois the most hazardous efforts will be made to satisfy the demand of the bereaved to remove the bodies. After the preliminary exploration in the shaft last night the inspectors and mining experts reported an encouraging condition and it was determined to take advantage of the low temperature at the bottom of the emergency shaft.

Early today it was reported that E. Y. Williams who went into the shaft last night had seen bodies in the second gallery not far from the shaft. After a midnight conference of officials, however, carpenters, masons and laborers were sent for and before morning work of preparing for the uncertain task of today had begun. It was proposed to lower two men armored with oxygen helmets. They will enter the galleries and penetrate as far toward the main shaft as they can. If bodies are encountered they will be fastened to the grapping tackle and raised.

The exploration last night, made while soldiers guarded the workers, revealed that at the bottom of the shaft there was less smoke and gas than at any time since the fire started last Saturday. The temperature had also fallen to an unusual degree.

In the opinion of mining inspectors who came here from many states the mine still is burning with a consuming fire and human life cannot endure it. It is their conviction that the St. Paul mine must be sealed for a definite period before any successful exploration can be conducted. This was the recommendation to the officials of the company yesterday but the Illinois inspectors realizing the fact that such action would arouse among the afflicted citizens of this community insisted that a last effort be made to reach the dead.

No outbreak of any kind occurred in Cherry last night. The troops guarded the mine and the special train of cars against which threats were made, but all was quiet save for the tapping of hammers as workmen prepared for the task of the day.

JUMPED RAILS

Trolley Car Accident at Kittery, Me.

KITTERY, Me., Nov. 18.—That there was not a serious loss of life when a trolley car of the Atlantic coast line railroad jumped the rails and plunged beneath the surface of a deep creek near here, early today, was due to the fact that there was no one on board at the time except three employees of the company. The car, consisting of the conductor, motorman and one of the officials of the road, saved themselves by jumping. All sustained painful bruises and one of them was picked out of the water by a fisherman.

The car left the rails at the entrance of the bridge which crosses the creek. The bridge was around a sharp turn at the foot of a steep hill. The car sank in thirty feet of water, only the top of the trolley pole showing above the tide.

James E. O'Donnell, Esq., will address the voters of wards 1 and 6 at Odd Fellows hall, Bridge street, tonight, at 8 o'clock.

JUDGE FICKETT

Says Cook Climb Was Never Made

BOSTON, Nov. 18.—Judge Frederick W. Fickett of Galveston, Tex., who is visiting a relative, F. A. Fickett of 105 Oliver street, Malden, said Tuesday it was impossible for Dr. Cook to climb Mt. McKinley. The judge says he was with the government exploring party to survey Alaska, and that he was one of those who named the mountain.

In speaking about Dr. Cook's claim, Judge Fickett said:

"There is absolutely no foundation for the statement of Dr. Cook, who declares that he climbed Mt. McKinley. I know the conditions in that region, and have read the doctor's statements of his claim. Mt. McKinley is a solid mass of ice and rocks. There are no signs of any vegetation, with the exception of a few small shrubs. The doctor explains how he ascended, but it seems to be that no living man could have followed the route he points out. Before the mountain can be reached a person runs great danger of losing his life. The soil resembles cranberry bogs, only it is a great deal worse."

"From viewing the sides of the mountain there are many cracks and crevices. It would be almost impossible to attempt the climb. The government has no records showing that the McKinley was ever climbed."

Continuing, Judge Fickett stated that as the mountain is over 27,000 feet in height it would take at least six months to make the ascent.

WORTH $100,000

Gift to Museum of Fine Arts

BOSTON, Nov. 18.—The Museum of Fine Arts is now in possession of a Greek head of a young woman, valued at more than $100,000, which is considered by men prominent in the world of art as the finest specimen of marble head sculpture in existence.

The head is clearly a Greek original of the fourth century, from the hand of a master.

Part of the hair on either side is gone and shows signs of having been repaired in antiquity, but the beautiful face of the subject is unmarred. Whether it is a queen or a goddess, no one can say, but critics seem satisfied that it is the best example of the work of Praxiteles.

The French sculptor, Rodin, has studied the head and said it is the most remarkable marble head in existence. This piece of marble has attracted the thousands who have already viewed the new museum. The owner of this work of art has refused an offer of $100,000.

Visitors to the National Museum in Rome remember as perhaps the finest Greek marble there a three-sided relief representing the birth of Venus from the sea. A companion piece is now exhibited for the first time in the Boston Museum of Fine Arts. It is more complete than the one in Rome and equally beautiful, perhaps, from the hand of the same sculptor.

ST. PATRICK'S HOLY NAME

On next Tuesday evening the Holy Name society of St. Patrick's will hold the regular monthly business meeting and much business of importance will be transacted. This meeting will end the membership contest that has created so much interest and has so largely increased the society's membership. The smoke talk committee will report on the smoke talk and lecture to be held Tuesday evening, Nov. 30. It has secured Thomas A. Mullin, Esq., of Boston to deliver the lecture and the committee feels flattered at securing such an able and scholarly man as Mr. Mullin. The smoke talk will be for members and friends, and members can secure their tickets from the secretary.

Committees will be appointed to bring in a list of officers for the coming year to be balloted for at the December meeting.

At the spiritual meeting held last Sunday evening Rev. Fr. Curtin announced that on Thanksgiving morning, Nov. 25, a high mass would be sung for Holy Name members and urged every member's attendance. The members will attend in a body and will meet in the church basement.

The reception to the newly enrolled members will be held on Sunday evening, Dec. 5, at the vesper service, and it is expected there will be about 200 members received.

COAL LAND INQUIRY LAWRENCE MAN

Was Begun Before Commissioner

W. J. McGee Today

Held on a Charge of Larceny

SEATTLE, Wash., Nov. 18.—The inquiry instituted by the department of the interior into the validity of the 33 coal land entries in Alaska that are included in the Cunningham group around which the Ballinger-Pinchot controversy centers began this morning before Commissioner W. J. McGee, J. M. Sheridan, of Denver, chief counsel for the government and W. B. Pugh, of Washington, D. C., counsel and member of the board of land review in the general land office have been engaged for several weeks, preparing the case of the government. At least four days will be required to take the testimony here. At the conclusion of the sitting in Seattle, Special Commissioner McGee will resume the inquiry at Spokane.

The aggregate acreage involved is 5350. An estimate of the value of the coal in these claims is $50,000.

The land department claims that entrymen did not make locations for their own exclusive benefit but that prior to making the locations they entered into an agreement to consolidate and hold the lands. It is also contended that the lands have not been improved as required by law.

The claimants insist they have made the entries in good faith and maintained them as required by law.

The claimants insist they have made the entries in good faith and maintained them as required by law.

The patents were held up originally at the instance of I. R. Glavis, former chief of the field division of the general land office at Seattle. It was the disagreement between Secretary Ballinger and Mr. Glavis over the disposition of these claims that caused Glavis' removal.

CHICAGO, Nov. 18.—Robert H. Fleury, 24 years old, employed in the office of the freight auditing department of the Illinois Central railroad, is locked up at central station on a charge of larceny preferred by the Mercantile cooperative express company of Lawrence, Mass.

Fleury was arrested early yesterday on a fugitive warrant at a boarding house near East 83d street and Jackson Park avenue. According to the police, he has confessed that while he was employed by the Lawrence express firm he appropriated $300 of their money to his own use and spent it for a "good time."

Sworn to by John H. Harrington, proprietor, Martin H. Reidy, business manager, and Alfred Pilote, pressman, of The Sun, before me, January 1, 1909. J. JOSEPH HENNESSY, Notary Public.

This is by far the largest average circulation of any newspaper in Lowell.

SANFORD COMES BACK TO SHILOH.

Elijah Sanford is returning to the United States to resume his fanatical onslaughts and establish a colony of people who are silly enough to be led by him. He has tried to establish a colony of his followers in Palestine but he found the people there far less gullible than his victims at Shiloh. He is to send out missionaries to secure new recruits. His cult is as bad as Mormonism although its worst tendencies do not run in the direction of polygamy.

THE APPORTIONMENT OF THE CORPORATION TAX.

The city of Lowell paid a state tax of $93,685 this year but received in return as a share of the corporation tax the sum of $105,228. That will help considerably in lessening the tax rate for the coming year. This money is returned to the city under a law passed last year which returns half the tax to the city or town in which the corporation carries on its business rather than where the stock is assessed as formerly.

Such residential centres as Brookline, Milton and Newton lose heavily as they have been receiving a considerable portion of the corporation taxes on stock held by their residents. The change in the law is just and right.

CONGRATULATIONS TO PRESIDENT TUTTLE.

The business people who have been acquainted with President Tuttle of the Boston and Maine railroad for many years will rejoice to find that he has been re-elected to his position at a time when rumor had it that owing to the influence of the New Haven company and the merger, another official would be chosen in his place.

President Tuttle has always proved himself to be a man of great ability and foresight and always progressive in his ideas. He has, furthermore, done what he could to improve the service and to meet as far as possible the needs of the various cities through which the Boston and Maine lines run. Even if new policies are to be applied in the management of the road, President Tuttle will be as good as any other man who can be chosen, to put them into operation.

SERUM FOR PNEUMONIA DISCOVERED.

A very important announcement comes from the medical schools of Tufts and Harvard to the effect that a serum has been found that will greatly reduce the mortality in cases of pneumonia. This is a matter of very great importance to this country, and in fact to the world at large.

Pneumonia has defied the doctors, the main treatment being something to stimulate the heart action during the progress of the disease.

If the reports from Tufts and Harvard that a serum has been discovered that cures a large percentage of cases are true, the discovery is one of the most important made by medical science during the current century.

The medical experts of Tufts claim that as a result of the serum but two out of forty-nine ordinary cases were lost and but six out of thirty-four very serious cases. The Harvard men claim that the serum there provided saved thirty-six out of forty-nine cases.

The deaths from pneumonia in the United States constitute 11 per cent. of the whole, while the deaths from tuberculosis, of which we hear so much, amount to but 9 per cent. Furthermore, the medical experts at Harvard and Tufts claim that through the use of the serum just discovered 45 per cent. of the deaths can be prevented.

Such a saving of the people who are usually cut off by pneumonia in the prime of life would mean a great deal to this country and to the world at large.

It is to be hoped that the serum just announced will accomplish all that is claimed for it in reducing the death rate from a disease that has hitherto baffled all the efforts of medical science.

SANITATION IN FACTORIES.

Professor Winslow of the Institute of Technology in addressing the Women's Trade Union league in Boston dealt with the subject of factory sanitation, claiming that there is still much to be desired in that direction.

"I know from personal experience," he said, "that many of our largest factories are in pretty poor sanitary condition. The most dangerous thing of all is dust in factories, such as flax, cotton, emery, and glass dust. It mechanically lacerates the lungs and renders the individual powerless to resist tuberculosis germs. The State Board of Health has done splendidly, but it still has to make analysis of factory air."

It is impossible to eliminate all dust and flogage in the air in cotton and other factories; but so far as sanitation by ventilation, plumbing and pure water are concerned there is undoubtedly a vast improvement over former conditions.

Formerly it was not uncommon for mill operatives in Lowell to drink either canal or pump water which in some cases was fully as bad as that from the canals.

There are various other improvements in the line of sanitation, spittoons and wash rooms. There are, besides, printed rules in each room cautioning the operatives against spitting on the floors and insisting upon strict cleanliness. The management of the corporations as a rule cooperates with the Board of Health in its efforts to check the spread of tuberculosis by adopting preventive measures.

There may be some factories in which, as Dr. Winslow observes, conditions are not as they should be; but in the principal factories of Lowell it seems that a great deal has been done for the protection of the health of the operatives.

If there is any such condition as Dr. Winslow mentions the operatives can have it speedily remedied by notifying Dr. Simpson, the sanitary inspector of factories, or even the local factory inspector, Mr. Roche, successor to the late Inspector Wasley.

This is an actual happening, and the girl in the story holds a clerical position in Lowell, never mind where—suffice it to say in Lowell:
He—"Will you marry me?"
She—"How much do you get a week?"
He—"Fifteen dollars."
She—"Get around and see me when you grow up, I get $15 a week myself." The poor fellow vanished.

No man fills his crystal vase with sympathy until he has first been pricked by the world's disappointments and bowed by its tasks.

AFTER ALL
After you and I have ceased to care
The April winds will blow across the hill,
The rose will spread its fragrance on the air,
The swallows twitter round the chimney sill,
The brook will wind its leisure way along,
And right will still be right and wrong be wrong.

After you and I have ceased to fret
Because our planning sometimes comes to naught
The foolish still will foolishly regret
When home the spite they vented has been brought;
They will be needed most who give delight,
And wrong will still be wrong and right be right.

After you and I have ceased to toil
It may be that we shall with joy arrive
Where none shall be undone and none despoil,
Where no one for another's gain shall strive;
But here the wise men still shall be the strong,
And right will still be right and wrong be wrong.

"They had the first performance last night."
"What did they act?"
"Antony and Cleopatra."
"That's a comic opera, isn't it?"
"I don't think so (looking through newspaper). No, it's a play."
"Who wrote it?"
"I'm trying to find out. (After a pause.) 'Why, it's by that old dub, Shakespeare.'"

Liverpool, Eng. Miss Rathbone belongs to one of Liverpool's "first families," has been "engaged" for years in useful public service, and is secretary of the Liverpool Women's Suffrage Association.

Mrs. P. S. Peterson of Chicago has given Mount Holyoke college a building to be used as a home for retired members of the faculty.

Mrs. Otto Killian, a daughter of Bayard Taylor and a member of the executive committee of the New York State Association Opposed to Woman Suffrage, declares that there is no probability in England that women will obtain the right to vote for members of parliament. Mrs. Killian recently returned from England where she was assured by Mrs. Frederick Harrison, who took an active part in circulating the petition of the anti-suffragists, that the women of all classes showed a decided coldness at the mention of the word suffrage, but on being assured that it was an anti-petition they signed it eagerly. According to Mrs. Harrison a quarter of a million signatures were secured very quickly.

The accepted plan for the new city hall in Portland, Me., provides for the placing of two statues in front of the building. It is conceded that William Pitt Fessenden, the distinguished United States senator, will be honored in one of these places, and there is a movement to devote the second niche to a statue of General Neal Dow, Maine's lifelong advocate of prohibition.

W. D. Stowe has given $150,000 to Columbia university, which is to go to the erection of a seven-story addition to the hospital of the College of Physicians and Surgeons in Tenth avenue at 53rd street. Mr. Stowe and his wife have been constant givers to the college, which is now the medical department of Columbia, and their great gift is the Stowe maternity hospital, whose administration they have followed, says President Butler of Columbia, "with the closest personal attention and supervision in a way that has been exceptionally helpful." The new building is complementary to the other; it is for obstetrics and gynecology.

The new dormitory for the Lucknow College for Girls is to be erected as a memorial of Liliavati Singh, who at the time of her death was president of the college. Miss Singh was the only native teacher in the Lucknow college. As a student early in her career she refused a missionary scholarship because she preferred to earn her own education, though at the time she was supporting several younger relatives. In 1896 she took an A. M. degree with honors at the University of Allahabad. Four years later she came to America with Miss Thorburn, whose school in Lucknow she had entered when less than 16. Here she helped to raise upward of $20,000 for educational work among women of India. In 1907 she was sent to Japan as the Indian delegate of the Y. W. C. A. to the Students' Christian Federation conference at Tokyo. The new dormitory is erected by money contributed by her friends, the bulk coming from America.

DIV. 1, SOCIAL AND DANCE, TOMORROW NIGHT, HIBERNIAN HALL.

BIG INSURANCE CHICAGO POLICE CHARGE OF ARSON

Was Carried by Kansas City Man

Think Kreigh Collins Was Murdered

KANSAS CITY, Nov. 15.—Insurance of $1,500,000 has been applied for on the life of George E. Nicholson, 49 years old, a cement manufacturer of Kansas City, for two of the companies of which he is the head.

Insurance men say this is the largest amount of insurance ever successfully sought at one time upon the life of one person.

From 9 o'clock Tuesday morning until 9 o'clock Tuesday night twenty-five physicians, were examining Mr. Nicholson. After it was all over the physicians declared that he was in perfect health and the agents of the insurance companies said the policies would be issued.

Mr. Nicholson is president and general manager of the Iowa Portland Cement company, the United Kansas Portland Cement company, the Dixie Portland Cement company and the Iowa Portland Cement company. He is worth $4,000,000 and is a widower with two grown sons. He already has four $25,000 insurance policies on his life, so that when the policies for $1,500,000 are issued he will have nearly $2,000,000 insurance.

The insurance is distributed through several companies, the largest amounts being taken by the Mutual and the Equitable of New York.

CHICAGO, Nov. 15.—Was Kreigh Collins, former western tennis champion, murdered and his body placed on the street car tracks? Police investigation of the case developed several strange circumstances, and at their request the inquest began yesterday, was continued until this morning to allow further work by the detectives.

Mr. Collins' body was found Tuesday night on the street car tracks in Erie street, west of Franklin. It had been run over by a car and the police thought that death had been accidental.

Residents of the neighborhood reported, however, that they had heard two revolver shots about the time Collins was killed. This gave rise to a theory that Collins may have been dead before the street car passed over his body.

The body was so mangled that the police were unable to determine whether Collins had received bullet wounds. One theory of the police is that Collins may have shot himself, but the general belief is that if he died from pistol wounds they were inflicted by holdup men.

articles were in the hallway and front room.

"What was the character of the furniture?" asked Mr. Rice.

Mr. O'Connor objected and after an argument Mr. Rice qualified his question.

Witness said that in consequence of what he observed at the fire he notified the office of the marshal's aid.

On cross-examination Chief Hosmer reiterated that the front door of the house was barricaded. He said that the firemen were unable to get into the house that way.

At this point lawyer O'Connor produced a diagram of the house and Chief Hosmer marked out on this plan the points where the fire started. He stated that the fire was about five or six feet apart.

He denied that he saw a clothesline leading from one room to another, but said that he saw some clothes hanging on a rail on the side of a door.

Lawyer O'Connor laid considerable stress on the clothesline which he intimated was strung from the kitchen to the bedroom. Chief Hosmer said that if a line had been strung up between the two rooms that there would have been some debris on the floor.

Chief Hosmer pressed by the examining attorney, Chief Hosmer said that it would have been almost impossible in the case in question to have the fire communicated from one room to the other by the clothesline.

Relative to her mental and physical condition, Chief Hosmer said that he did not think that she was "all right," and that she was shaking.

Capt. Joseph Baxter of the Lincoln street house gave a graphic description of the fire. He said that when he arrived at the house the driver of the hose wagon shouted to him to "look out for people in the house."

He corroborated the testimony of Chief Hosmer relative to the two fires, and added that he found the side door was locked. The smoke was very thick when he entered the house and while making his way through the kitchen he stumbled over something and both found that it was a kerosene oil can.

Capt. Baxter also testified that he had a conversation with Mrs. Adams and that she complained of a loss of money which she had sewed up in a velvet sacque.

Witness said that he heard Mrs. Adams state that she was taking a bath when she heard some one scratching on a window over later saw a man. She left the bath tub and entered the cellar and later she was found just outside the cellar window.

Capt. Baxter said that Mrs. Adams was very nervous and complained of the loss of $300. He said that she stated that she was ready to move away and that the furniture had been packed for five weeks.

In answer to questions put by lawyer O'Connor witness said that he did not know the defendant personally, neither did he ever see her picking up coal on the railroad tracks.

Questioned by Mr. O'Connor, witness answered that if the fire was set it was set on the first floor and not in the cellar.

George H. Chapman, a member of hose 9 in Lincoln street, testified that he was the first man to enter the house. He gained an entrance by breaking the glass in the side door. It was necessary for him to crawl on his hands and knees with the hose in order to reach the fire in the bedroom.

Witness saw a dog in the cellar. It was of the opinion that the dog was a St. Bernard.

Mr. Chapman, on cross examination, said that he could vouch for two fires, one in the bedroom and the second in the kitchen.

Lieut. James W. Halstead of the Protective company testified that he went to the fire, but that there were at least three pieces of apparatus on the scene before he arrived.

He saw Mrs. Adams in the yard in the rear of the house. She was about four feet from a cellar door. He was attracted to the rear of the house by the woman's cries. She was moaning and hollering, and said she had lost $300. Owing to her condition witness deemed it advisable to send her to the house of a neighbor. Witness said that she did not want to go away from the fire, but that he took hold of her and led her away.

Mary C. Dolan who resides in French street, was arrested last night by Patrolman David Petrie. When she was asked to plead to being drunk she denied the allegation and said that she could not have been arrested but for the fact that her land was got it sore on her because she would not send her company home at an early hour. A fine of $6 was imposed.

Fred Redfern entered a plea of not guilty to being drunk, but when it was learned that he was a parole man from the state farm he was bound over under $500 until tomorrow. In the meantime he will be returned to that institution.

John H. Brady, John Archambault and Michael J. Casey, charged with being drunk were each fined $6.

RESCUED WOMAN REMAINS OF FORT JAMES STORROW

Who Had Fallen Into Swimming Pool

That Was Built in Pre-Historic Time

Favored for Mayor of Boston

NEW YORK, Nov. 15.—Henry Lang, a chief janitor at Columbia University, plunged into the pool in the basement of the university gymnasium yesterday afternoon and rescued Mrs. Mamie O'Mara, a scrubwoman, who had fallen in.

She had gone down for the second time when Lang, attracted by cries of another woman, dragged her out unconscious.

With two other scrubwomen Mrs. O'Mara went to the swimming room in the lunch hour yesterday to clean the pool near the shower baths.

The pool is closed at noon there were no students about. Mrs. O'Mara was scrubbing the pavement when she slipped on the soapy stone and fell into the water.

Lang was on the top floor of the building when he heard the cries of Mrs. O'Mara's companion. He ran down the stairs with about a dozen students who had been in the gymnasium and locker rooms.

The students stood off, as they could see no signs of the woman in the water, but Lang mounted to the top of an eight foot tower used for diving to get a clearer view of the bottom of the tank.

In the deepest part he saw Mrs. O'Mara. He threw off his coat and dived in.

He got hold of the woman, lifted her to the surface and swam to the shallow part of the pool, where she was lifted out of his hands by the students. After being resuscitated Mrs. O'Mara went home to 127th street unmoved by the shock.

Counsel for Mrs. Stoddart objected to the suit against her going on yesterday on the ground that the court has no jurisdiction because Mrs. Stoddart doesn't live here any more. Stoddart's lawyer contended that a wife cannot desert her husband's legal rights by moving out of the jurisdiction. The court reserved decision.

CADILLAC, Mich., Nov. 15.—A C. Fessenden, while out hunting yesterday discovered near Boone village on the crest of the hill the well defined remains of a fort built in pre-historic times by Indians or some tribe that inhabited this region before the white man. This is the third find of this sort Mr. Fessenden has made in the vicinity of Boone during the past eight years, all within the radius of a few miles. In some parts of what was once an enclosure the embankment is three to four feet high with a trench on either side. Some of these primitive earth works consist of two trenches close together, showing plainly that a stockade had been erected. A number of glass vessels were dug up.

WANTS TO SUE HIS WIFE IN NEW YORK

NEW YORK, Nov. 15.—Mary Elizabeth Powell Stoddart, who went to Nevada some time ago to sue her husband, William Lee Stoddart, an architect, of 31 Union square, for a divorce was defendant in a suit on Justice Bischoff's calendar in Part III. of the supreme court yesterday brought by her husband for a separation on the ground of abandonment.

Counsel for Mrs. Stoddart objected to the suit against her going on yesterday on the ground that the court has no jurisdiction because Mrs. Stoddart doesn't live here any more. Stoddart's lawyer contended that a wife cannot desert her husband's legal rights by moving out of the jurisdiction. The court reserved decision.

BOSTON, Nov. 15.—James J. Storrow, former chairman of the school board and member of the banking firm of Lee, Higginson & Co. was last night nominated by the committee of 150 as the mayoralty candidate against John F. Fitzgerald, and he accepted the nomination.

The committee met in Westman hall, Bromfield street and in addition to that evening another meeting will be held, when Mr. Storrow will appear and formally accept the nomination.

No attempt was made to have Mr. Storrow attend last night's meeting, but Sec. David P. Tilly was authorized to inform Mr. Storrow that he was the choice of the convention.

they are confident that their candidate will be able to go out and defeat Fitzgerald, Hibbard, Brand and every other candidate who remains in the fight.

The action of the convention was no surprise, as every member of the committee of 25, which afterward formed the committee of 150, believed from the outset that Mr. Storrow was the logical candidate for mayor of Boston, and the one man able to enter the fight, win the election, and give the municipality a sound, business-like administration.

Although it was generally expected that the convention would also nominate a slate of candidates for the new city council and the school board, the committee of nine on the balance of the ticket was not fully prepared to report. Chairman Nathan Matthews explained that more time was required, and the convention adjourned until next Tuesday evening for the report. On that evening another meeting will be held, when Mr. Storrow will appear and formally accept the nomination.

No attempt was made to have Mr. Storrow attend last night's meeting, but Sec. David P. Tilly was authorized to inform Mr. Storrow that he was the choice of the convention.

FINNISH DIET

Was Dissolved for Refusing to Pass Bill

HELSINGFORS, Nov. 15.—The Finnish diet was dissolved today because of its refusal to sanction the bill introduced by the government asking for an appropriation of $4,000,000 for the defense of the empire. An election will be held Feb. 1 and the new diet will assemble March 1.

The dissolution of the Finnish diet was anticipated when the government bill was rejected yesterday. The conflict in the diet was the same as that which took place in the senate and resulted in the resignation of many Finnish senators and the substitution of Russian military officers. The senate had expressed a willingness to contribute $2,000,000 as an annual appropriation for the internal defense, but double that amount was assessed by the Russian cabinet as Finland's contribution for the defense of the empire.

nominating Mr. Storrow, created a new party, the Citizens' Municipal League.

The selection of the candidate and the creation of the party constituted the entire business of the session. It also marked the opening of one of the most strenuous and long drawn out political contests ever waged for municipal office in this city, which will end on the afternoon of Jan. 11, when the polls close for the first city election under the new charter.

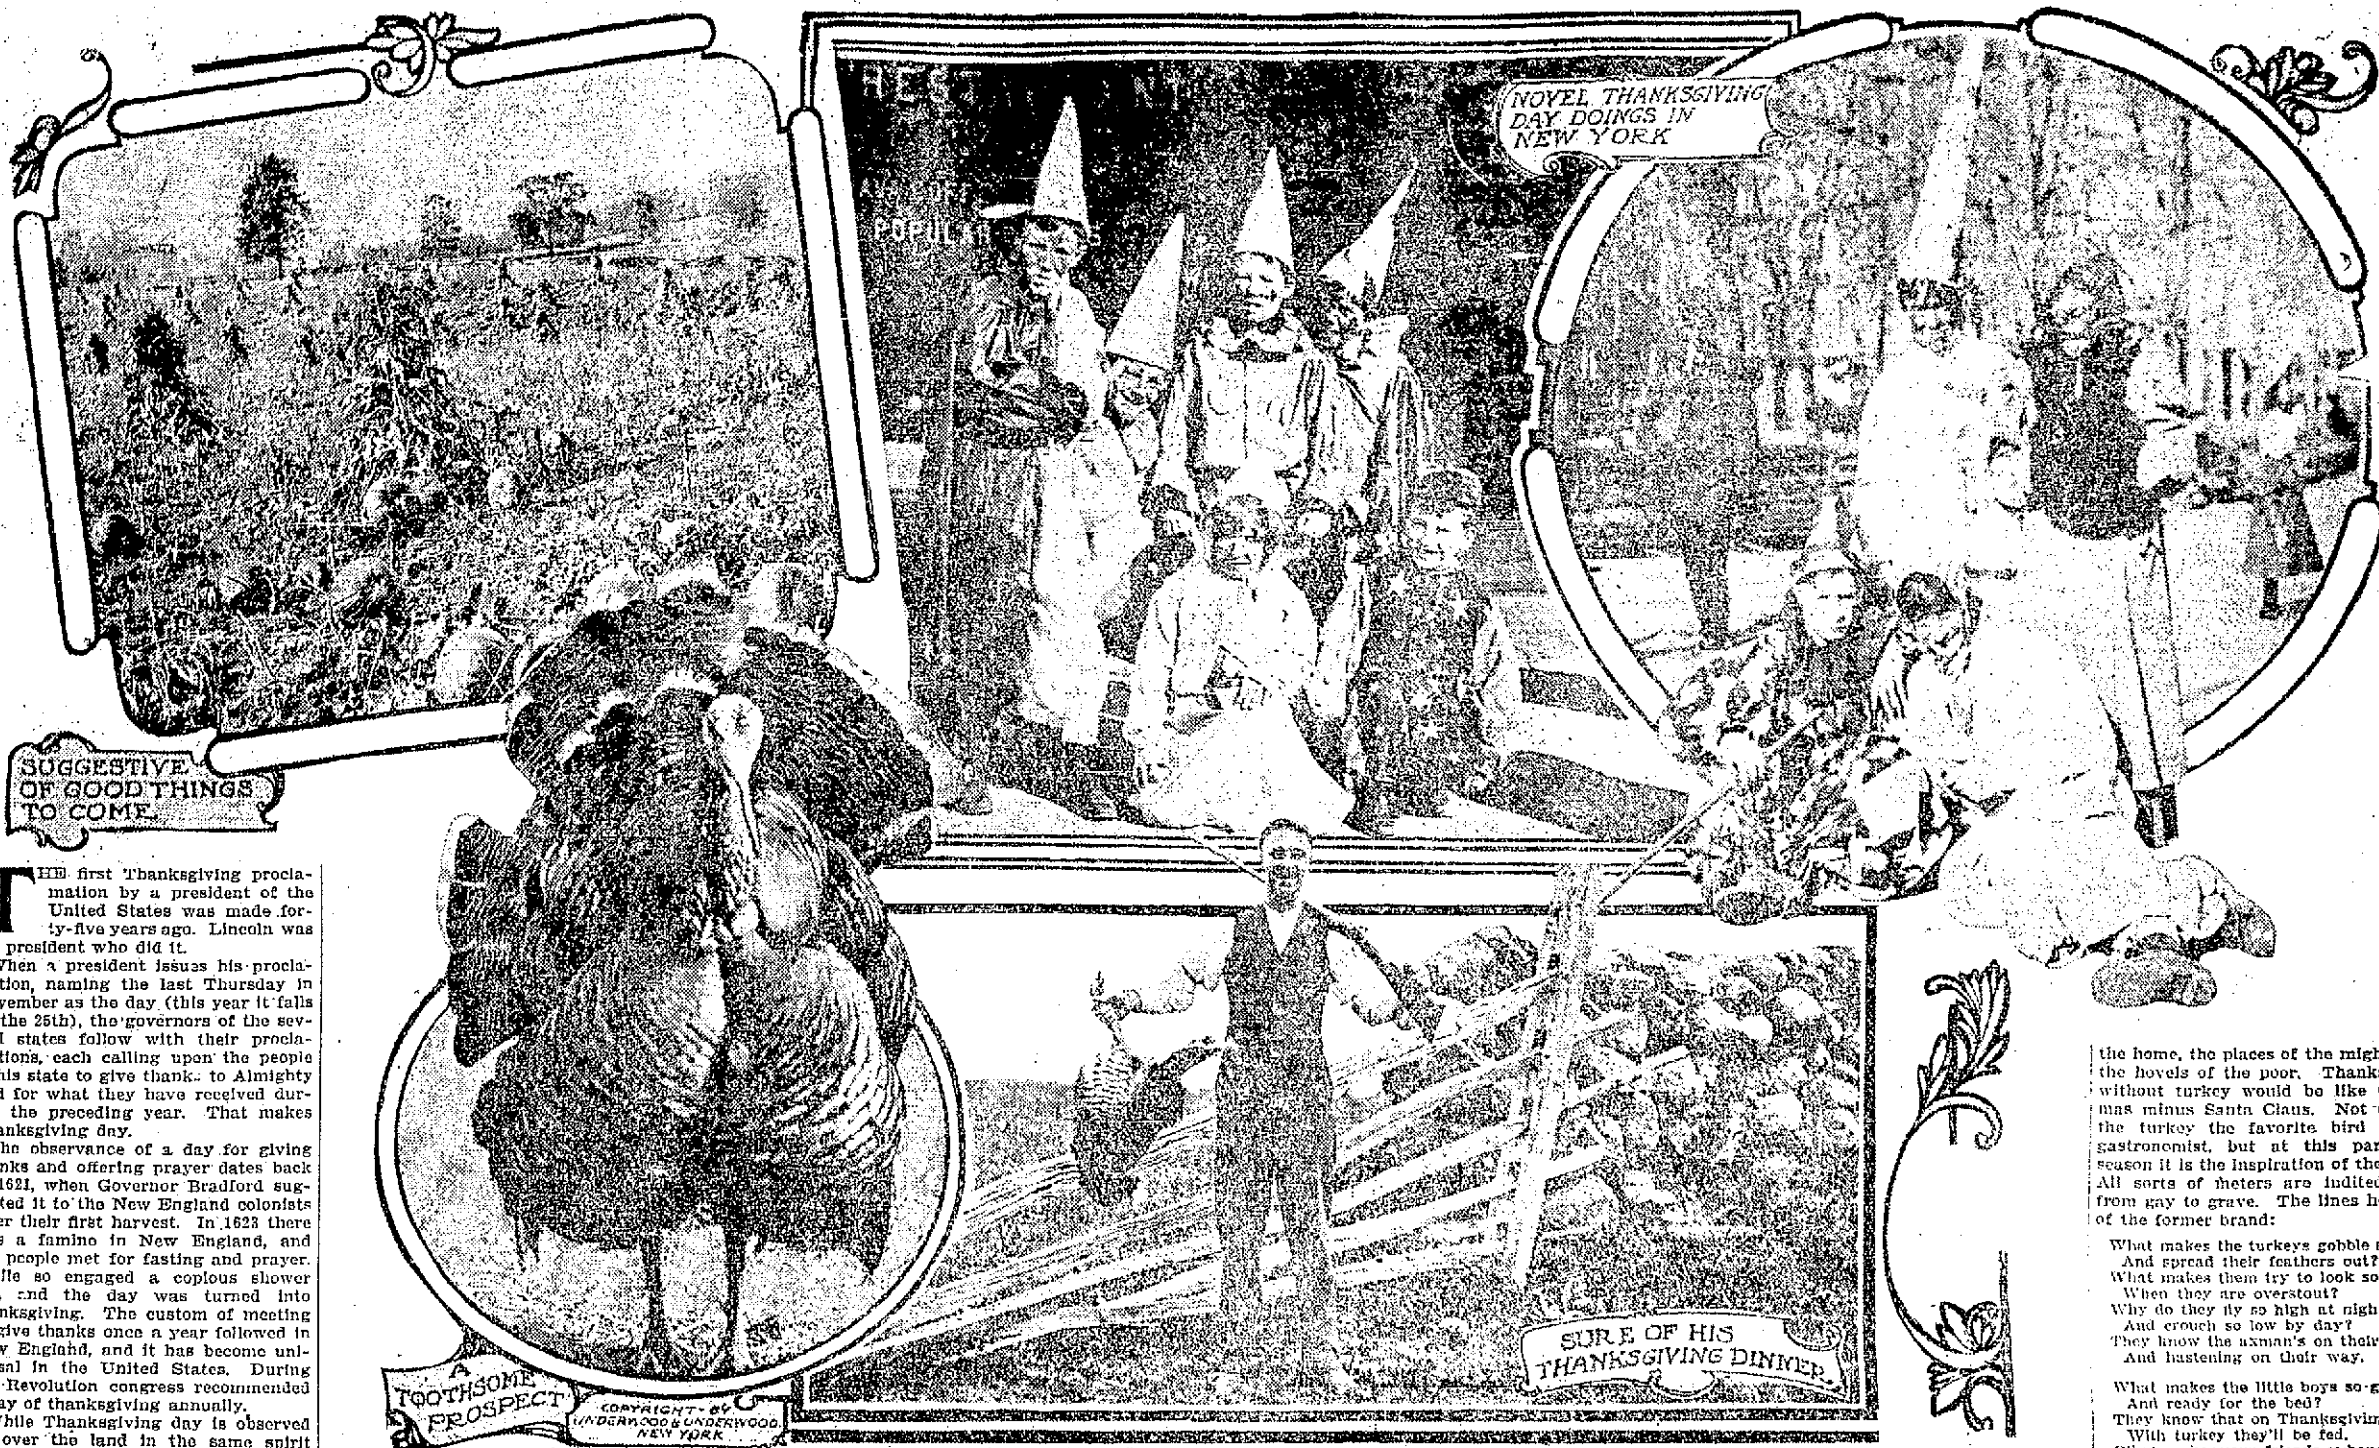

Harmony prevailed throughout the evening. The program was so carefully carried out that only 15 minutes were required to transact the entire business. There was not a hitch, and the smoothness which characterized the convention was accomplished through the efforts of former Mayor Nathan Matthews, whose advice was sought immediately after the committee of 150 met for the first time on Tuesday of last week.

Mr. Storrow's name was the only one presented for the mayoralty nomination as was predicted after interviews with prominent members of the committee of 150. He was recommended for nomination by the committee of nine on the mayoralty, of which Charles S. Hamilton was chairman, and there was no second choice. The committee was united on his nomination, and the full body, which had constituted itself as the Citizens' Municipal League of the early part of the session, accepted the recommendation of the committee of nine with but one dissenting vote.

Enthusiasm for Storrow

The announcement of Mr. Storrow's name brought forth unbounded enthusiasm, and gave the promoters of the new league such encouragement

Thanksgiving Day In Town and Country

THE first Thanksgiving proclamation by a president of the United States was made forty-five years ago. Lincoln was the president who did it.

When a president issues his proclamation, naming the last Thursday in November as the day (this year it falls on the 26th), the governors of the several states follow with their proclamations, each calling upon the people of his state to give thanks to Almighty God for what they have received during the preceding year. That makes Thanksgiving day.

The observance of a day for giving thanks and offering prayer dates back to 1621, when Governor Bradford suggested it to the New England colonists after their first harvest. In 1623 there was a famine in New England, and the people met for fasting and prayer. While so engaged a copious shower fell, and the day was turned into thanksgiving. The custom of meeting to give thanks once a year followed in New England, and it has become universal in the United States. During the Revolution congress recommended a day of thanksgiving annually.

While Thanksgiving day is observed all over the land in the same spirit generally, different sections have certain customs that make the day distinctive. Every city, town, hamlet and out of town locality has its religious observance of the day in one way or another, for it follows that a man may give thanks without kneeling in a pew; but, aside from such obligations, the day is given over to visitation and reunions, and in some cities festivities give the occasion an aspect of hilarity.

Unique Masqueraders in Gotham. In New York city the children for many years have indulged in a custom that has no connection whatever with the spirit of the day. The custom partakes of the nature of Mardi Gras in New Orleans in some respects. The pageantry and tinsel of the southern city's festival are cut out of the custom in the metropolis, but what it lacks in glitter is more than made up in grotesqueness. The custom is unique in that it has no counterpart in any other city of the land. It originated among the foreign born children in whose countries there is no such day. To these the day is a holiday suggesting the carnival, and where there is a carnival there is a masquerade. It is rather singular that, while the custom originated on the east side of the city, which has a population peculiar to itself, the odd and picturesque features have become well nigh universal, and the merry masqueraders are now seen on the avenues of the upper west side and on Broadway quite as much as in the section where the custom had its christening.

So far as appearances indicate, every child who is permitted to run the streets of New York city is, for one day at least, a gamin. Early in the day they block the sidewalks, revel in the thoroughfares, chase vehicles and openly and persistently beg pennies or any sum from all classes. Bishop, priest, old men and women returning from church or on their way to make a visit, beans and holes out for a promenade—every adult is intercepted and asked for some contribution. If the intercepted dodges one set of masqueraders he comes in contact with another just ahead or around the corner, and this continues, unless a storm breaks in, until after dark.

The masqueraders impersonate well known characters, Uncle Sam and Washington being the favorites. Many of the makeups are striking, and some are even costly, especially among the better class of children. The American Indian is a favorite to imitate, inasmuch as the garb of his race admits of a variety of color schemes. Gypsies lurk in the path of the citizen, and clowns prance in front of pedestrians in the parks of the baroque. Others appear in the uniform of the police and solicit in a threatening manner. In some of the open squares of the city there are cakewalks, a haker in the vicinity offering the prize. Many urchins attire themselves in the garb of the family domestic. Sometimes a demure widow will be impersonated. Again the young woman of flirtatious manner will be represented.

In some instances the makeup is artistic. All these gamins are of the male persuasion. They blow horns in the ears of passersby, straddle broomsticks after the supposed manner of old time witches and scamper and scot whenever the victim appears. In all this revelry of paint, tatters, tinsel and fancy the police never interfere with the buffoonery that holds possession of the streets. So long as the masqueraders do not commit a misdemeanor the puppet show goes on unmolested.

The Eater's Observance. But all is not merriment. The day has its better side in family reunions and dinners. In this respect the dinners are not confined to the rich and well to do, for the poor are always remembered, and even the prisoners are not forgotten. While all who have been favored of the gods are beneficiaries and have much for which to be thankful, the hand of charity is open and extended to such manner as causes the oppressed to be thankful for one day at least.

the home, the places of the mighty and the hovels of the poor. Thanksgiving without turkey would be like Christmas minus Santa Claus. Not only is the turkey the favorite bird of the gastronomist, but at this particular season it is the inspiration of the muse. All sorts of meters are indited to it from gay to grave. The lines here are of the former brand:

What makes the turkeys gobble so
And spread their feathers out?
What makes them try to look so lean
When they are overstout?
Why do they fly so high at night
And crouch so low by day?
They know the axman's on their trail
And hastening on their way.

What makes the little boys so good
And ready for the bed?
They know that on Thanksgiving day
With turkey they'll be fed.
What makes your friends so happy when
They see you in the street?
Because they think you'll ask them to
To get some turkey meat.
Why does the preacher "cut it down"
From "tenibly" to "in brief"?
He fears you'll leave him off the list,
And that would cause him grief.

No wonder Dr. Cook is back
And Peary's here to stay.
They left the pole upon the ice
To be here turkey day.
And that is why "fast hurried home"
He's hungry, too, I woen.
He wants a bird like Teddy had,
With good things stuffed between.

No wonder, then, the turkeys' call
In plaintive tone is heard.
They hear the shout: "Off with their heads!
Bring on the bird! More bird!"

THE GREATEST RAILWAY TERMINAL IN THE WORLD

Completion of the Pennsylvania Company's Station That Is to Open in December

NO aggregation of superlatives can give an adequate conception of the extent and beauty of the Pennsylvania Railroad company's terminal in New York city, which will be practically ready Dec. 1, 1909. It will require time and personal inspection to bring out the magnitude of the marvelous work and the perfect system connected therewith.

The first stone in the masonry was laid June 15, 1906, and the last was put down July 31 of the present year.

By reason of the ramifying system of the Pennsylvania company the terminal becomes the artery of travel from the great west and from New England, connecting with the travel and traffic of the south. It also includes a great postoffice building. It brings to a realization the dream of the late A. J. Cassatt, who in terminal trackage is sixteen miles in extent. There are eleven passenger platforms, a total of four miles, and twenty-five elevators. The artificial light of the building will consist of 30,000 electric bulbs and electrolights. The daily service of this enormous structure will consist of 400 Pennsylvania trains and 600 Long Island trains. The capacity of the terminal will be about 100,000 passengers a day. The maximum capacity of all the tunnels is 144 trains an hour. The number of columns supporting the whole building is 650, the greatest weight on any one column being 1,653 tons. The entire structure is 774 feet long and 423 feet wide, with an average height above the street of 60 feet and a maximum height of 123 feet. THE THANKSGIVING BILLY POSSUM.

BACK as far as I remember
The last Thursday in November
Has been given up to turkey in the good old fashioned way
Till I think there is occasion
For a little variation
In our culinary gratitude on each Thanksgiving day.

WE'VE had turkey boiled and roasted,
Turkey browned and turkey toasted,
Turkey truffles, turkey giblets, turkey hash and turkey stew,
Turkey stuffed and turkey basted,
Turkey cold and stale and wasted,
Till the turkey is as ancient as a new joke by Denew.

WE'VE had turkey to satiety
We are praying for variety.
Is there not some other bird or beast on which to chew our praise?
I submit as a solution
That we make a substitution
For our antiquated, antedated friend of other days.

LET our tables burst in blossom
With a fragrant Billy possum—
North and south we will unite in a Thanksgiving worth the while.
By this token of affection
We will end the blight of season;
We'll be optimistic "possumists" and smile, smile, smile.

ROBERT BURMAN IN HIS BUICK

ROBERT BURMAN

Had Narrow Escape From Death

SAN ANTONIO, Tex., Nov. 18.—Driving his Buick racer at a terrific pace into the stretch turn yesterday in the six hour race, the closing event of the four days automobile meet, Robert Burman narrowly escaped death when his machine was overturned and he was hurled to the ground. Burman was badly shaken up and severely bruised, but not seriously injured. The car turned a complete somersault, just missing Burman when it fell to the ground.

Of the five cars which started in the race, four were wrecked or withdrawn. The Chalmers-Detroit car, driven by Ben Johnson, was awarded first prize after covering 216 miles in 4:52. The second and third prizes were pooled and divided between Clark and De Hymel.

The race started at 11 o'clock this morning, the entrants being Barney Oldfield in a Knox car, De Hymel in a Stoddard-Dayton, George Clark in a Jackson, Ben Johnson in a Chalmers-Detroit and Burman in a Buick.

MAY BE MURDER

Portion of Girl's Body Found in Ash Pile

TROY, N. Y., Nov. 18.—The leg and part of the thigh of a girl about 16 years, apparently very recently severed from the body were found by the police in an ash pile in a lot in the center of the city last night. It is known that the ashes were not dumped in the lot until Tuesday. The police are working on the theory of murder.

W. J. MOXLEY, WHO CONDUCTS ODD CAMPAIGN IN CHICAGO

CHICAGO, Nov. 18.—Chicago people in general and William J. Moxley in particular are having a world of fun out of Mr. Moxley's campaign for representative to fill the vacancy caused by the election of Mr. Lorimer to the senate. Moxley is the regular republican candidate. The independent republican candidate is Charles L. Barnes and their democratic opponent is Frank S. Ryan. Newspaper paragraphs and other ways characterize Mr. Moxley's fight as a "whispering campaign" because of his departure from the beaten paths of political methods. Smokers, vaudeville entertainments and hand to hand greetings, with heart to heart talks, are the features of the Moxley campaign, and the candidate is having as much fun out of it as his constituents. He declares himself that he is getting more real amusement out of the race than both of his opponents put together. The election takes place on Nov. 23.

SECRETARY MEYER

INTENDS TO ASK FOR A REPAIR SHIP

WASHINGTON, Nov. 18.—In recommending a naval program for next year, Secretary Meyer will ask congress to provide for a repair ship equipped with a complete machine shop for all emergency work, or failing to get the repair ship, the equivalent in cost of such craft in torpedo boat destroyers. This will be in addition to the 26,000 tons "Dreadnoughts" which it has long been understood the secretary would recommend.

The repair boat desired would have a small engine to the fastest battleship afloat so that in all cases it could keep with the fleet.

Auto Accident Victims in Serious Condition

SPRINGFIELD, Nov. 18.—So critical was the condition at 9 a. m. today of the four survivors of the auto accident in West Springfield last night in which five business men were hurled from a car, that the list of fatalities was expected to reach three before the close of the day.

Max O. Drecorn was instantly killed, while W. Heid, a prominent architect, and A. L. Leher, a builder, were so badly injured about the head that their chances of recovery were considered early today to be very slight.

J. Lewis Perkins, the owner and driver of the auto, suffered only a few bruises, while John Chadwick was painfully but not seriously injured.

Mr. Perkins said that in turning out suddenly for another car his machine struck a tree.

CHICAGO, Nov. 18.—All cattle trails now lead to Chicago, and the reason thereof is the great international live stock exposition, which begins on Nov. 27 and lasts to Dec. 10. During the second week of the live stock exposition the Chicago horse show will be held, and the event combined will bring to the city by the lake the champions of all the other horse and cattle shows of the year. Chicago expects the biggest crowd since the World's fair of 1893 and has provided a series of surprising entertainments for the visitors. Every race and horse show in the country that boasts a world-class stock will be represented at one of the other of the big events, and it is estimated that the sales of blooded horses and cattle will reach for into the millions of dollars. The prize list of cups, medals and cash is the biggest ever offered to the cattle and horse breeders in this country. Both shows are open to the world. A feature of the horse show will be the draft horse class, which will bring together a host of heavy horses than did either the London or New York show.

19 WERE INJURED NEW OFFICERS

Trolley Did a Somersault in Providence, R. I.

PROVIDENCE, R. I., Nov. 18.—One passenger was seriously injured while 19 others were more or less hurt at Cranston early last evening, when one of the cross-town cars which runs from Pawtucket to the Print Works village, left the rails opposite the Narragansett trolley park.

The body of the car went in one direction, turning a complete somersault, while the trucks flew to the opposite side of the street.

The car was well filled with passengers, there being about 45 in all, mostly women. As it neared the gateway of the park, running at high speed, there is a sharp curve and a switch to cross over the double track. At this point the forward trucks of the car left the rails, separating from the body, which turned a complete somersault, throwing the passengers in all directions.

The most seriously injured was Miss Annie Dodd. She was seriously cut and bruised and suffered from nervous shock. Her condition is serious. The other passengers who are injured are: Patrolman Edward Legacy of the Cranston street; Miss Fannie Earl, 986 Cranston street; Mrs. John, Miss Lena Cheney, Martha McDonald, Pawtucket; Mrs. Oliver Brewster, Mrs. G. W. Angell, 27 A street; James McDonald, Madison street; Jas. Milligan, Cedar street; Anthony Perry and Alice Roberts, 40 Oak street. The remainder of the passengers are all foreigners, and it was impossible for the police to learn their names without the aid of an interpreter.

The car was in charge of Motorman Terrance Sherry and Conductor James W. Willard.

After the accident the injured were removed from the wreckage by means of the winches, and taken to the Ocean-land inn, where medical aid was summoned, after which many were sent home.

The cause of the accident is not exactly known, but it was either caused by a stone on the track or the motorman running into the switch at high speed. The motorman said last night that the brakes would not work when he attempted to stop the car.

NO REPORT YET

Has Been Received From Astor's Yacht

NEW YORK, Nov. 18.—The fear that Col. John Jacob Astor's yacht Nourmahal with the owner and his son Vincent aboard may have been disabled in the West Indian hurricane of last week was further increased today by the failure of the various vessels known to be seeking the whereabouts of the missing yacht to report her.

Neither at the New York maritime exchange nor at the headquarters here of the yacht club which had sent out a general inquiry for the yacht yesterday had any word calculated to allay the anxiety of the friends of Col. Astor been received.

The Nourmahal is believed to have left Kingston, Jamaica, in the interval between Nov. 5 and Nov. 10. Among the vessels asked to report her are the

NEW OFFICERS

Of Industry Council Nominated Last Night

The regular meeting of Industry Council was held last night in Old Faneuil hall in Middlesex street. There was a large attendance of members, and Regent Richard T. Mower occupied the chair.

The committee in charge of the tournament reported that the first game in the series between the different councils of the city would take place this evening after the meeting of Lowell council, No. 8.

After the meeting a very interesting debate took place and proved a considerable success and the council intends to have similar debates in the near future. Under the head of good and welfare, interesting remarks were offered by Past Grand Regent John J. Hogan, Thomas Garvey, James Gorman, Joseph Meahan, M. D. Wm. H. Stafford, Michael Sullivan, Henry Fox, and others.

Nominations for the different officers to be elected at the next regular meeting were presented by the different committees appointed by the regent at the last meeting.

John W. Sharkey, who has filled with credit the offices of orator, vice regent and several minor positions, was nominated for regent, and the selection is generally felt to be a just recognition of efficient work. Not only has Mr. Sharkey been an earnest worker, but on the floor of the council meetings he has proven himself a skillful debater, one possessed of fine judgment. His election as well as the elections of the other officers will take place at the next meeting.

The other officers nominated and the positions are as follows: Vice regent, James Gorman; orator, David Hogan; collector, Thomas P. Boulger; treasurer, Charles H. O'Donnell; chaplain, Michael Sullivan; secretary, Frank Fox.

THE YERKES ESTATE
CHICAGO, Nov. 18.—A petition was filed in the probate court yesterday by L. S. Owsley, executor of the estate of Charles T. Yerkes, asking for the confirmation of an unrecorded will which was entered into some time ago in New York, between Mrs. Mary Adelaide Yerkes, widow of the late Charles T. Yerkes, the executor of the estate of Charles T. Yerkes, and the heirs of the Yerkes estate. This agreement, if confirmed, will dispose of many of the difficulties which have confronted the estate and delayed its settlement.

EXTRA AMERICANS EXECUTED

Nicaraguan Government Takes Speedy Action

WASHINGTON, Nov. 18.—Two Americans, Leonard Grace and Leroy Cannon, captured while serving with the revolutionist army in Nicaragua, have been sentenced to death by President Zelaya's orders and it is believed that sentence has already been carried out.

The cruiser Vicksburg has been ordered to proceed in all haste to Corinto and the gunboat Des Moines will proceed at once to Port Limon to observe events there and report the situation at that point by wireless.

The interview between President Taft and Isidore Huzar, the new Nicaraguan minister, has been indefinitely postponed.

The news as to the two Americans reached the state department last night from the United States consul at Managua and stated that their capture had been followed almost immediately by a death sentence. The consul immediately appealed to President Zelaya to commute their sentence and his answer was, "I will see. Later on further appeal, Zelaya said. The sentence was final."

A despatch received this morning at the state department is to the effect that the men have undoubtedly been executed. Upon this information orders were issued for the despatch of the Vicksburg and the Des Moines.

The Des Moines is now at Colon about 150 miles from Port Limon, which she can reach within ten hours steaming under forced draught. The Vicksburg is on the Pacific coast at San Jose Guatemala nearly 200 miles from the Nicaraguan coast and will be able to reach Corinto at about the same time the Des Moines arrives at Port Limon.

The execution of the Americans is believed to have taken place at or near El Costillo which is in the immediate vicinity of Greytown. The brutality of the Nicaraguan government in ordering the execution of these two Americans who happened to be with the revolutionist army, without trial of any sort, is likely to result in this government's taking drastic measures to prevent a repetition of it and President Zelaya will be held to strict accountability for his action. President Taft upon the receipt of this news was so incensed at the action of President Zelaya that he immediately announced that he would have no communication whatever with the new Nicaraguan minister and that official was promptly so informed.

At the Nicaraguan legation it was stated that no news of the execution of the two Americans had been received from the Zelaya government.

Much Attention Is Still Attracted by the big display of made-by Hood pharmaceuticals in Dows' window and were sure that it had been looked at with pride by Lowell people and been the subject of much favorable comment. Among the many different preparations are the tablets called Antiseptics. At this time of year, when there is so much germ-laden street dust, these tablets are especially useful in preventing infectious diseases, consumption, spotted fever, etc. They are put up in two sizes, 50c and $1.

INCENDIARY BLAZE

Caused a Loss of $100,000 Early This Morning

General Alarm From Box 42 Called Entire Department to Stubborn Fire in Davis & Sargent's Lumber Mill in Middlesex Street—Department Still at Work at Scene This Afternoon—Thief in Search of Pay Envelopes Supposed to Have Set Fire

The most stubborn and most destructive fire that has visited Lowell in a long time broke out about midnight in the big three story brick building in Middlesex street opposite Howard, known as the Davis and Sargent building and occupied by that concern and several others, in the lumber, box and machinery business.

The fire is believed to be the work of a thief incendiary who either disapproved in an unsuccessful attempt to steal pay envelopes fired the building, or else in making a hurried exit dropped a match among a pile of shavings causing an instantaneous blaze. The fire marshal's office was notified this morning and a rigid investigation will be made at once.

While the different concerns affected by the fire could not make an estimate of their losses at the time of going to press, for the fire was still in progress with several hours' work before the firemen, it is believed that the aggregate loss will reach about $100,000, as a large amount of lumber and machinery was destroyed.

While the fire was destructive and entailed the loss above mentioned, the presence of massive fire walls of brick and stone separating the big brick exterior into several individual interiors undoubtedly prevented one of the greatest conflagrations in many years. The direction of the wind was such that under ordinary circumstances the many frame buildings on both sides of Middlesex street between the scene of the fire and the Middlesex street depot would have been destroyed with a possible loss of life. In this morning's fire two of the firemen, Charles Bugbee of Hose 2 and William S. Alcott of the Branch street company were overcome. Mr. Bugbee recovered on the scene and gained refused to leave his work, while Mr. Alcott, whose condition was more serious, was removed to his home in the ambulance, where he recovered this forenoon and will be all right.

The heaviest losers will be the Davis & Sargent Lumber company and Marshall & Crosby, manufacturers of furniture. These were also the original tenants of the building, and have had several fires, having been almost completely wiped out by back in 1876.

By the time the firemen had got fairly within the building the terrible smoke baffling their best efforts the flames had spread even through the belt holes in the fire walls and was proceeding directly from one compartment to another. The Davis and Sargent part of the building was filled with highly inflammable material, lumber, shavings and manufactured boxes and here the fire was most severe and was burning at noon today despite the fact that several times of hose had been playing on it all night. The roof in the rear part of the Davis and Sargent building collapsed at an early hour in the morning taking machinery, belting and floors for three stories with it to the bottom. In this particular section the flames were still raging this noon as is the case in a fire in a cotton or woolen mill making the task of extinguishing the flames completely a long and arduous one. The scene within this portion of the building this morning was one of complete chaos. Thousands of dollars' worth of lumber with a like amount of machinery, great power wheels and belting were entangled together in a hopeless mass, the iron almost red from the heat and the timber smoldering and emitting volumes of smoke, occasionally bursting forth into a fresh blaze necessitating the immediate attention of the hosemen. Until the fall of the roof the effect of the last fire in Middlesex street was absent. All the time, however, a dense fog of smoke hung over the vicinity while the brisk November winds took it as far as Belvidere where was heard to criticize them.

Several employees of the different firms in the building were early on the scene and gave directions to the firemen as to how to get to the fire within the building, but the firemen used their own judgment in the matter for which one insurance man this forenoon was heard to criticize them.

MRS. STETSON DROPPED

Christian Science Directors Find Charges True

BOSTON, Nov. 18.—The name of Mrs. August Stetson was today dropped from the rolls of the Christian Science church by order of the directors. It was announced that the directors had found the charges that Mrs. Stetson was working against the interests of the church and contrary to the teachings and practices of the Christian Science to be proved and true.

The decision of the board of directors was issued about 24 hours after the conclusion of a three days' conference with Mrs. Stetson at the mother church in this city. The decision was as follows:

"A complaint against Mrs. August Stetson of New York was filed with the board of directors of the First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston on November 8th. She was immediately furnished with a copy of it and a copy of the following orders. It was ordered by said board that the evidence in support or defense of the complaint should be presented in the form of affidavits or documents except that any evidence given or statement made by the complainant or the accused should be given or made orally and in the presence of the directors; that the assistance of counsel and that the case should be heard commencing on Nov. 15th, 1909, at 10 o'clock a. m.

"The hearing commenced at that time and was concluded on Nov. 17 at 4 p. m. Mrs. Stetson was present during the trial with her counsel, Mr. Hayne Davis. The evidence in support of the complaint consisted of the affidavits of 21 persons, five letters written by Mrs. Stetson to her students and a composite letter written by some of her students and approved by her. The evidence in defense of the complaint consisted of one affidavit, two letters and Mrs. Stetson's personal testimony and statements.

"After considering the evidence and Mrs. Stetson's statements made to the directors it was their unanimous conclusion that the charges against her had been proved and were true. Mrs. Stetson's name was then dropped from the roll of membership of said church.

"The offenses proved against Mrs. Stetson were of two kinds.

"1.—Working against the interests of members of the church who are not her followers and against the interest of this church.

"2.—Persisting in teachings and practices which are contrary to Christian Science."

The action of the directors of the mother church is the most drastic in the history of Christian Science. Mrs. Stetson is pastor emerita of the first church of Christ, Scientist, of New York where she has a large following. Two months ago Mrs. Stetson's record as a healer together with those of her students who are also healers was removed from one of the official journals of the faith.

Mrs. Stetson's followers rallied to her support and an investigation was held by a special committee of the First Church of Christ, Scientist, of New York where she had formerly held the position of first reader. This investigation resulted in her excommunication and was followed by a meeting of the members of the church at which a majority of those present upheld the decision. A movement was begun to displace the present first reader, Virgil F. Strickler. A letter from Mrs. Mary Baker Eddy, the originator and leader of Christian Science, was read at a meeting called for last Monday at which action was expected against Mr. Strickler and without a vote on the question the meeting adjourned. This action was regarded as upholding the first reader and as adverse to Mrs. Stetson. In the meantime Mrs. Stetson obeyed the summons of the board of directors of the mother church and appeared before them in this city.

Mrs. Stetson returned to New York last night and today the decision of the directors was announced.

RESCUERS WORK LAWRENCE MAN

One Body Discovered Arrested in Lowell for Alleged Larceny

CHERRY, Ill., Nov. 18.—At 1 a. m. Paul, one of the rescuing party, entered the shaft and was lowered to the bottom. He was armed with hatchet and axe and carried ropes and hooks.

He quickly completed his mission and came to the surface, where he was joined by Rice and Williams for the second descent. All left letters to be mailed to their families in case of death. They will make a desperate effort to ascertain conditions in the fatal second gallery.

One body was discovered and the odor of burnt flesh was noticeable when the men were taken off the shaft.

The most important discovery made was that an attempt to enter the main shaft while hazardous, is still feasible.

Paul R. Fiedler of Lawrence was arrested in Merrimack square about 7:30 o'clock last night by Inspector John Walsh on a warrant charging him with larceny on complaint of J. A. Egan Gauvin.

When the case was called in court this morning it was continued for one week.

It is alleged that the defendant sold a cough syrup which he claimed, was made by the complainant but which was a substitute. Mr. Gauvin prepares an article called "Syrup of Aniseed" and it is alleged that the defendant has been offering a substitute syrup, bottle and label, similar to the genuine which he claimed was prepared by Mr. Gauvin.

WALSH CASE
GOVERNMENT ATTORNEYS WANT HIS BAIL INCREASED
CHICAGO, Nov. 18.—Government attorneys appealed to the circuit court of appeals to increase the $50,000 bail of John R. Walsh, former president of the Chicago National bank, pending a decision of the petition for rehearing of his appeal. The motion was taken under advisement by the court. The district attorney suggested and the bail be increased to $250,000.

The formal motion presented to the judges of the court of appeals set up that the status of the case in which Walsh was found guilty of misappropriating the funds of the bank has changed so since the petition for rehearing and the government's answer to it that there is greater incentive for flight of the defendant beyond the jurisdiction of the court.

Asst. Dist. Atty. Wilkerson presented the motion orally to Judges Grosscup, Seaman and Kolsatt before the district attorney filed the document. In behalf of Walsh, John S. McLeod filed a motion that the court permit oral argument to be made on the petition for rehearing. His motion was also taken under advisement.

COURT TRIALS
PROCEDURE IN FRANCE MAY BE CHANGED
PARIS, Nov. 18.—Minister of Justice Barthou in an interview today confirmed the announcement made here during the trial of Madame Steinhil that he would propose certain changes in procedure in the trial courts of France. Minister Barthou said that he would this week appoint an extra parliamentary committee with the recommendation that the committee institute a reform in court practice with the two-fold object of doing away with the judge's duty and privilege of interrogating and of expelling the preliminary investigations now conducted by examining magistrates.

6 O'CLOCK AFTER WILDCAT MEAT

Chinese Think It Will Make Them Fight Better

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 10.—Wildcat meat is at a premium in the Chinese quarter in this city as a result of the strike between the Yee family and the On Yick tong which has brought six murders in or near San Francisco since the first of November. There is a superstition among the Chinese that if their warriors are fed on the flesh of the wildcats they will assimilate the ferocity of the beasts and their fighting efficiency will be made greater. The butchers of the quarter are driving a thriving trade in wildcat meat among the two clans now at war. There has been no relaxation of the vigilance of the police Chinatown squads. The detectives who are mingling with the Chinese every day say that more killings are certain before the feud dies out. Every prominent Chinese connected even remotely with the On Yicks or the Yee family is surrounded by a bodyguard of white men whenever he appears on the streets as it is known that prices have been set on the heads of many by the warring factions. The hair of one doomed man is said to be turning white daily. To the casual observer the Chinese quarter looks as peaceful as though long wars were unknown. The inhabitants shuffle about without any sign of nervous strain or fear on their impassive faces. The only unusual sights are displays made by hardware dealers, who have given revolvers a conspicuous place in their windows, and the wildcats gathered from all over the state which are exhibited at every butcher shop.

EX-SEC. CARLISLE HELD SMOKE TALK

In Critical Condition in Hospital A. O. H. Divs. Discussed Building Project

NEW YORK, Nov. 10.—While it was stated at St. Vincent's hospital today that ex-Sec'y of the Treasury Carlisle who has been seriously ill there for several days, spent a comfortable night and though no change for the worse has occurred, it is generally believed that Mr. Carlisle's condition is such that he may not recover. Friends of the former member were informed today that Mr. Carlisle while he is in no immediate danger is afflicted with a malady which it is feared will prove fatal. Dr. Joseph Bryant, regarding the report that Mr. Carlisle was dying, said that there was no present foundation for that statement. It was intimated, however, that some official declaration as to Mr. Carlisle's condition might be expected shortly.

BASEBALL FANS

To Suggest Changes in Rules

CHICAGO, Nov. 10.—Desiring to improve the game of baseball President Murphy of the Chicago Nationals yesterday invited correspondence with enthusiasts who see some phase in the sport that can undergo improvement. According to President Murphy there may be a number of departments where improvement can be accomplished and he is eager to give the folks not officially identified with rule-making opportunities to remodel regulations that now may appear outgrown. "That's the reason I am going to advocate a school in correspondence for the uplift of baseball," said Mr. Murphy. "There are scores of rules that might stand overhauling and I am heartily in favor of a longer season for National league owners. Instead of assembling at New York next month for a three days meeting why not extend the session, giving six or seven days to the consideration of all these appeals from enthusiasts; requests containing real merit will be taken to the league meeting. Now it's up to the fans to send on their suggestions."

CHARGE OF ARSON LIVELY RALLIES

Brought Against Mrs. Adams of Lincoln Street

As Result of Recent Fire in Her House—Chief Hosmer and Firemen Testified to What They Found—Two Different Fires in Progress

Mrs. Margaret Adams was arraigned before Judge Hadley in police court this morning on a complaint in which there were three counts, one alleging that she committed arson by maliciously burning a building, the second that she attempted to defraud the Michigan Fire and Marine Insurance company of $600, and the third complaint that she attempted to defraud the Albany Insurance company of $1500.

Lawyer J. Joseph O'Connor appeared for the defendant and entered a plea of not guilty. The prosecution was conducted by Charles P. Rice, chief fire inspector of the state police.

The case grew out of the fire which occurred in a house in Lincoln street belonging to Robert G. Bartlett on the morning of November 7th and occupied by Mrs. Adams. According to the testimony offered, fires started or were started in two different places and that Mrs. Adams complained of a loss of $900, but subsequently stated that her loss was only $600.

An investigation followed and the fire marshal brought the matter before the court.

The policies which covered the insurance were made payable to Mr. Henry Adams, the husband of the accused.

Robert G. Bartlett was the first witness called. He testified that Mrs. Adams had been a tenant-at-will at his house at 210 Lincoln street for about a year and a half. Witness said that there was considerable livestock kept at the place. He said that Mrs. Adams had notified him that she was about to move away.

There was no cross examination. Recalled by Judge Hadley, Mr. Bartlett testified that there was a fire in the house on the morning of Nov. 7. Wm. A. Coburn, a milkman, was the next witness called. While delivering milk on the morning of Nov. 7 he saw

Matter of Harboring Seceding Bodies Heard

TORONTO, Nov. 10.—A question of state and central bodies affiliated with the American Federation who it is charged, are still harboring seceding organizations of electrical workers was raised in the convention of the federation today by Delegate Hayes of Cleveland. The convention yesterday approved a plan submitted by the committee on laws whereby it is expected an amalgamation of the two factions of the electrical workers will be brought about. Mr. Hayes said that state federations in West Virginia, Utah, Montana, Oklahoma, Washington, New Jersey and Nebraska were harboring seceding factions of the electrical workers and wanted to know if their charters would be revoked. President Gompers replied that when formal complaint or official knowledge of such condition was received the seceding organizations would be advised that their course must be changed. He declined to say what action would be taken by the executive council, declaring that it might be construed as a threat.

It was the purpose of the federation he said to be impartial and just. The convention devoted the greater part of today's session to a discussion of various jurisdictional disputes reported by the committee on adjustment. In the controversy between the International Association of Car Workers and the Brotherhood of Railroad Carmen the committee recommended that a conference between the executive officers of the two organizations and in the executive council of the American Federation of Labor be held in Washington at an early date to endeavor to form a plan for the amalgamation of the two bodies. The recommendation was adopted.

DIVISION 1 WILL HOLD THEIR ANNUAL SOCIAL AND DANCE FRIDAY EVENING, NOV. 12TH, AT HILBERNIA HALL.

NEW YORK, Nov. 10.—Burrowing the breadth of the Hudson river, under Manhattan skyscrapers and on below the East river's bed, a Pennsylvania railroad train today traversed the new tunnel route of that transportation line from New Jersey to Long Island. The trip marked the practical completion of a railroading feat paralleling in many ways in interest the opening of a transcontinental railroad route. It was run by President McGee of the Pennsylvania railroad and members of the railroad's board of directors. No ceremonies attended the journey, the trip being taken solely for the purpose of giving the road's high officials an opportunity to inspect the work which has been progressing for years past, and which is expected to cost more than $1,000,000. More work must be done before the entire subterranean route is opened for regular traffic, but it is expected that the tunnels from New Jersey to Long Island will be ready for use by June.

Candidates Plead for Support at the Primaries

Several Big Meetings Held Last Night Without any Personalities—The Candidates Conducting a Clean and Gentlemanly Campaign Predicting United Action and Victory

James E. O'Donnell held a largely attended and enthusiastic rally in the Lyon street schoolhouse last evening, addressing the gathering for 40 minutes on his record in the legislature. Mr. O'Donnell enumerated the many labor measures on which he not only voted favorably, but also advocated on the floor of the house and worked for in committee. On the one labor measure which he opposed, the picketing bill, Mr. O'Donnell stated that he looked into the matter carefully, considered its constitutionality and decided that it was not a good measure and for that reason voted against it. He was told before he voted that the measure would not go through the senate, and was asked to get on the wagon and favor it anyway. "When this information, if I desired to play politics," he said, "I might have voted for the bill, knowing that it would have been killed in the senate and there would have been no criticism; but I didn't believe in it and was honest about it. On this as on all other measures I voted, talked and acted as I believed to be right." In relation to his vote to raise the salary of the judges, which was criticized in some quarters, Mr. O'Donnell called attention to the fact that the Lowell session of the superior court is at present suspended with a large docket because there is no judge to try it. It is impossible to get the right kind of men in the judiciary unless they are allowed an adequate salary. The welfare of the commonwealth depends in a large measure on the high standard of its judiciary. In concluding his remarks, Mr. O'Donnell referred to the charity board and stated that it was the one issue upon which all democratic candidates appear to be agreed. The charity board is in need of reorganization and the form of a new administration, said Mr. O'Donnell. The speaker was cheered at the conclusion of his remarks.

Mr. Meahan in Centralville

John F. Meahan addressed a big gathering of mill operatives at the Boot mills yesterday noon and in the evening made three speeches in Centralville, at West Third and Bridge, Jewett and Coburn streets and Lakeview avenue and Allen street. He reviewed his career in the legislature and asked his hearers to inquire about his stand on more than 5000 bills, and if there was one not consistent with the best interests of the wage earners and the vital concerns of the city and commonwealth, to vote against him. He said that from the beginning of the campaign to the present moment he had no opponent below the belt, in hall, on the street or in printed advertisement and would not under any circumstances, no matter what may be the result.

Mr. Daly in Ward Five

John W. Daly appeared at the corner of Lawrence and Abbott streets last evening before a large and friendly gathering. He talked on the present charter, the charity department, and other local issues and made a most favorable impression. Mr. Daly referred in most courteous language to his opponents and stated that he would be with the winner, whoever he may be, and would work as hard for another as he would for himself.

Mr. Maloney at Liberty Square

Mr. William E. Maloney addressed a large and very enthusiastic crowd at Liberty square early last evening and discussed the issues of the campaign with a few remarks as to himself. He then took up the matter of harmony in the democratic party as being the principle essential for party success on election day. He stated that he believed he could win if nominated but in the event of another receiving the honor he would bow gracefully to the will of the majority and would work for the success of the party nominee.

Hand Bag Found to Aid Estrada

New Evidence in Troy Attempt to Take Supplies to Bluefields

TROY, N. Y., Nov. 10.—While working on the case of Caroline Gorgen of Glen island, whose body was found near her home yesterday bearing evidence of murder, the police of Albany county today found the hand-bag of the dead girl in the window of a cellarway several blocks from her parents' residence. It was empty, although it had contained not longer ago than Tuesday about $25. The authorities state that they cannot determine the cause of death until the stomach of the victim has been examined at the Bender laboratory in Albany, where it will be taken by the coroner's physician. The owner of an automobile residing in Cohasset was questioned this morning by the police but nothing was learned during the interview that afforded a clue to the whereabouts of Miss Gorgen from Tuesday afternoon until her body was found yesterday.

STAY GRANTED

To the Convicted Labor Leaders

WASHINGTON, Nov. 10.—The court of appeals upon request of counsel for the labor leaders granted a stay to Nov. 29 of the issuance of the mandate sentencing President Gompers, Vice President Mitchell and Secretary Zorin of the American Federation for contempt of the supreme court of the District of Columbia in the Bucks stove and range case. Chief Justice Shepard stated that if the labor leaders had by Nov. 29, the day the supreme court of the United States reconvenes, filed in that court a petition for certiorari on application a further stay of the mandate would be granted pending the determination by the higher tribunal of the application. As a result of this action Gompers, Mitchell and Morrison need not hasten to Washington as it will not be necessary to surrender under their hands or have recourse to other proceedings.

FRICK IS DYING

LIMA, O., Nov. 10.—William Frick of Bellefontaine, son of Jacob Frick, late millionaire banker of Wooster, O., and nephew of H. C. Frick, the steel magnate, is dying at a hospital here today as the result of injuries received when he and a woman who gave her name as Florence Adams of Toledo fell from a window of a room over the Exchange saloon here last night. Miss Adams last night said that they were scuffling over a glass of beer and pressed against the window, which gave way. She will recover.

DEATH OF INFANTS

Caused by Milk, Doctor Says, and Will be Investigated

PROVIDENCE, R. I., Nov. 18.—Dr. Gardiner T. Swaris, state superintendent of health, is making an investigation into the causes of the deaths of 23 infants at the Myrtle baby home, Pawtucket avenue East Providence, since June last.

According to Dr. William T. Knoop of Providence, a graduate of Brown university and the Harvard medical school, the visiting physician, the deaths can be traced to a single case of condensed milk. Samples of this milk in the hands of the state board are said to have shown the presence of highly deleterious bacteria.

The home has been supported from various sources, money contributed by persons leaving their offspring there, through collections from members of the Lighthouse mission at Winter and Cranston streets; this city, the passing of the hat at open air religious meetings at Hoyle Tavern square and from house to house visitations, made by women connected with the management.

From aristocratic women of College hill, this city, quite a snug sum, it is reported, was secured during the past 12 months. Some of the well-to-do and charitably inclined went from their homes here to East Providence to look into the Myrtle home management for themselves and found things satisfactory, so lent their aid.

Most active in the affairs of the Myrtle home is Miss Doughty, sister of Frank Doughty, once a prosperous East Providence business man, who was one of the vanguard of world-end believers at Duxbury, Mass. last summer.

Miss Doughty says the deaths of the babies, in her opinion, came about through the use of the condensed milk. She declared the home is managed in painstaking and thoroughly hygienic style, and that babies play there have always flourished heretofore.

Nov. 4—Dorothy Hazel Haverman, 5 months 9 days, bronchial pneumonia.

Nov. 5—Doris Midgley, 9 months 18 days, acute meningitis and intestinal indigestion.

Nov. 10—Otis Pendleton, 3 years old, whooping cough.

The information given concerning the situation of Dr. Knoop is interesting, as throwing light upon the matter. He was seen at his office and talked freely.

He said that he had been the visiting physician since the inception of the home in East Providence and had directed the treatment of the infants since, then and had given his attention to seeing that everything was sanitary around the place. He said the home was conducted in the best manner possible and the character of Rev. Mr. Tourtellotte was unimpeachable.

The health of the babies had been very good during the summer; in fact, unusually so when the frequency of children's complaints at that season is considered. Fearing that the milk supply in the summer might not be just right, owing to conditions which might arise before the milk reached the babies, he ordered the use of condensed milk.

All went well until the early fall, when Dr. Knoop was called to New York. During his absence most of the babies developed a high fever and diarrhoea. He had ordered in case of any trouble that an outside physician should be called, and Rev. Mr. Tourtellotte called in Dr. Seymour of Riverside. He examined the babies and thought that the illness might have been due to a change in weather. He recommended treatment, and when Dr. Knoop returned in a day or two the latter made an examination. He came to the conclusion that there must be something the matter with the milk. He took a can of the brand used to Dr. Swartz three or four weeks ago to be tested. Tuesday was the first time that he had received information concerning the test, but in the meantime the milk was not used.

It is stated by Dr. Knoop that Health Officer Williams, who has looked after the burial of all the babies, has been in almost constant touch with the home, and if she said she had no money in any way unsanitary or the treatment imperfect he would have noted it. The home has always been wide open to everyone who wanted to visit it. A woman coming to the house with a babe in her arms was told how much it would cost to put the babe in the home, but if she said she had no money it was taken for nothing. The plan is for payment according to means and the mission is supported purely by charity. The president himself is responsible for almost half of the funds at the disposal of the mission.

THE BUDGET FIGHT

Government Will Not Compromise With the Peers

LONDON, Nov. 18.—Walter Runciman, president of the board of education, speaking at Hull last night, made the important announcement in behalf of the government that it would refuse to entertain any negotiations or compromise with the peers over the budget.

Beyond this announcement all is conjecture regarding the development of the political situation. Some prominent liberals are still of the opinion that Premier Asquith will resign on the rejection of the budget.

Others believe that he will ask the king to create a large body of liberal peers, recalling that the Irish church disestablishment bill was allowed to pass the lords on Gladstone's threat to create new peers.

Mr. Balfour's speech at Manchester satisfies his followers, inasmuch as it adopts tariff reform as the party cry, but it cannot be regarded as an election manifesto, since it fails to define what he understands by tariff reform.

As to his exact views on tariff reform, Mr. Balfour was silent, except to say that he would not touch tariff reform "if it were to increase the ordinary cost of living of the working classes."

The liberals in the election campaign will evidently concentrate their whole attack on the house of lords, in which they will have the energetic assistance of the Irish party. John E. Redmond, leader of the Irish party, speaking in Dublin last night, declared that they refused to throw themselves into the arms of the tariff reformers or to back up the house of lords, Ireland's deadly enemies. The nationalists had long prayed, he said, to be able to strike a blow at the lords.

COCAINE CASES GOT NO REWARD

Woman Sentenced for Delivering the Drug

BOSTON, Nov. 18.—Three persons were before Chief Justice Bolster in the municipal court yesterday charged by the Watch and Ward society with dealing in cocaine. Francis Grealis of Cobb street was sent to the Charles street jail for two months for delivering the drug; Annie Lester of 12 Fay street, south end, was sent to the house of correction for four months for a similar offense.

James Devine, who is charged with selling cocaine, was sick and nervous and asked that his case be continued. The judge continued it until Nov. 22, and Devine was sent to the Charles street jail in default of $300 bail.

The prosecutor told the court that many more arrests will be made soon, and that storekeepers will be prosecuted for selling the drug. He said the society will continue the crusade strenuously.

GET DIVORCES

Several Cases Before Judge Sanderson

Toward the close of the session of court yesterday afternoon Judge Sanderson heard several uncontested divorce cases. In the case of Bertha Linstad vs. Helmar H. Linstad, the libellant testified that her husband came home drunk frequently and made things interesting by kicking her and on one occasion tapping her over the eye with a half pint bottle. The libellee was defaulted.

May C. Ricker asked for a divorce from Fred L. Ricker and she informed the court that Freddie often stayed away for 18 months during which time he was in jail for larceny. He stayed around the house long enough to connect with her pocketbook while she was at work in the mill. The pocketbook contained all her hard earned savings and she has seen neither Freddie nor the savings since. He was called and defaulted.

Georgiana Moreau asked a divorce from her husband, Michael, on the ground of drunkenness and cruelty. The libellee was called in the case of Alice Bulmer vs. William H. Bulmer.

PAPERS MISSING

Trial of $15,000 Suit May be Delayed

BROCKTON, Nov. 18.—Papers filed in connection with the $15,000 suit brought in the superior court here by Richard Brophy of North Cambridge against Otis E. Herring of Boston for alleged alienation of his wife's affections, have disappeared and Clerk Edward E. Hobart has sounded a general alarm among lawyers.

There is no suspicion of larceny, however, as it is supposed that some lawyer carried off the wrong bundle of papers.

The suit is listed for trial today, but without the papers it probably will not be heard.

AGAINST CHRISTIANITY

Pope Pius Characterizes Struggle in France

ROME, Nov. 18.—Pope Pius in an address to the French pilgrims whom he received today declared that France was making war against the church with an aim of undermining the basis of Christianity. Catholicism, he said, was suffering persecution by the French government under the pretext of the separation of state and church. This was proved, he added, by the persecution of the priests, the trials and condemnations inflicted upon Cardinal Andrieu and other bishops and the threatened laws which would extend official protection to irreligious teachers and bring about a state monopoly of the schools. France which was making the state the arbiter of religious matters was at the same time fighting the French bishops who were faithful to the pontiff. These bishops were not allowed, the pope said, to enjoy the liberty granted by French laws to all

Odd Street Jobs Being Cleared Up

SPECIAL MEETING OF THE CITY COUNCIL CALLED

Several Contracts For Hay and Grain Awarded to Different Bidders

The street department, which includes the sewer department, is busy preparing for the winter. There is a good deal of work to be done for which no money was appropriated until very late in the year and now it is a case of haste to get it done before the frost comes.

One street gang is macadamizing Fremont street and putting in new gutters in that and other streets in the same locality. The gutters in these streets are what are known as "dish gutters" and they are being taken out and replaced by the regular straight gutter.

Another gang is doing patch work in Rogers street beginning at the statue road. Nichols street is being treated to a coat of macadam and new gutters are being put in.

Tom Morrison has charge of a sidewalk gang that has been busy for several weeks. Mr. Morrison finished with the sidewalk in Burton street a few days ago and today he is engaged in renewing the brick sidewalk in front of the Waverly hotel in Market street.

The sidewalks on Central street have the next call and Mr. Morrison and his men will attend to them just as soon as he has finished in Market street.

COPPER HIGHER

UNITED METALS SELLING COMPANY ANNOUNCES AN ADVANCE

Interest Centers in Copper Consolidation—Amalgamated Still a Pronounced Seller

With the consolidating of the copper companies into one large corporation, Amalgamated, the stock which has surprised the traders for the past three weeks on account of its activity, will it is thought go to par and a new 6 per cent. rate will be declared on the preferred stock while a bonus will be given the holders of the common stock. Seldom, if ever in the annals of the market has any stock of the reputed standing of Amalgamated, which has since the middle of October. Nothing that the officials have done during the past month tending to the standing of the stock would bring the advance and the continuous buying of it, and as the dividends it will only amount to $2 a year, the why of the situation can not be thought out.

As the new corporation of the copper companies will include about 60 per cent. of the companies of this country, no trouble which might arise from trust law is expected. The anxiety of the traders growing each day and what will be the announcement of the officials is the conjecture of the market.

The United Metals Selling company which has been increasing the price on the copper metal in its holding, since last Monday announced today that the stock would assume the high price mark, 15 cents, before Saturday. Advance after advance has been made in this metal and the first of this week the stock was selling as low as 13 cents, but today as high as 13 1/2 cents was being asked for. Speculation in the copper stock of the sheet did not present a wide today and while there was no presence of new rallies being centered, still the traders seemed to cherish holding the stock, and buying of the stock was general.

NOTHING STRIKING

IN OPENING OF THE MARKET

Buying of Copper Stock Was Resumed in Confidential Manner—Railroad List Was Neglected

NEW YORK, Nov. 18.—Opening prices of stocks showed no very striking changes. Gains were the rule and the extended to large fractions and only the case of Union Pacific, Reading, Great Northern pf, Kansas City Southern, Amal Copper and Anacosta. The dealings were in moderate volume. Fractional additions were made to the opening advances, bringing numerous leading stocks within the scope of one point gains. Of these Reading, U. P. St. Paul, Great Northern pf, Amal Copper and Amal Smelting were the most prominent and most active. Advances of from 1 to 1 1/2 were also made by Wabash pf, St. Louis Southern pf, Reading Second pf, Colorado Fuel & Iron pf, and Hocking Coal.

Only a few specialties moved as much as a point and the general market showed a tendency to be quiet. Central railroad of S. J. rose 1/2 and American Ice 1/4 and Cleveland C. C. and St. Paul & Northern Pacific 1/4. Butterick Publishing fell 1/4 and Northern Pacific W. U. and American Cotton Oil 1/4. Bonds were firm.

Reading Second pf, which was resumed in a confidential manner and there was a large accumulation of Amal Copper and others at advancing prices. While the advance was many points of strength in the specialties the railroad list was neglected and seemed indifferent to the advance in the specialties. The advance in the specialties improved 2 1/2, N. Y. Chicago and St. Louis 1 1/2, Amal Copper 1 1/2, Anacosta 1 1/2, and Utah Copper, the American Can, stocks, U. S. R. U. S. Steel pf and Republic Steel 1. National Biscuit declined 1/2.

Upon the announcement of the plan for the distribution of the Wells Fargo Express company's surplus assets investment stocks began to move upward and the advance was reflected in the general market. Wells Fargo itself jumped 50 points to 560. Central railroad of S. J. bounded up 17 points to 104 1/2. Wells Fargo Express 6, Delaware & Hudson 4, Lackawanna and U. S. Rubber 3, Reading 2 and Ont & Western and Pacific Telephone.

The market closed strong and active. There was some increase in the activity of trading but prices were affected slightly by realizing. Afterward Amal Copper rose to 95 1/2 and held the rest of the market.

MERRILL CASE

Against L. & O. League

Striking Point in Ballfour's Speech

On Trial

The case of Charles M. Merrill vs. Putnam et al. was called before Judge Sanderson in the jury room session of the superior court in Gotham street this afternoon. Mr. Merrill is a former secretary of the Law and Order League. John C. Leggat of the firm of Burke & Corbett appeared for the plaintiff, and James F. Owens for the respondent.

This is a suit to recover for articles alleged by the plaintiff to have been removed from his office in Middlesex street by the respondent.

The articles removed included desks, chairs, papers, etc., and Mr. Merrill laid considerable stress on the value of certain papers, including some that contained stenographic notes. He said that some of these papers were invaluable.

Asked by Mr. Owens what were his duties as secretary of the Law and Order League, Mr. Merrill said:

"To inspect the conduct of the League business, to work in the interest of a no-license vote and to see to the enforcement of the law."

Witnesses said that the furniture in his office came from the old Mall office, and that they were purchased by him.

FAVORS CO-EDUCATION

NEW YORK, Nov. 18.—Co-education and more of it is what this country needs, according to Prof. Frances Squire Potter, formerly of the department of English of the University of Minnesota, but now corresponding secretary of the National Woman Suffrage association. Speaking before three thousand suffragettes at a mass meeting at Carnegie hall, last night, she said:

"The segregated colleges of the east illustrate a last enlightenment of the middle ages. These monasteries and nunneries of learning crown the hill tops from Boston to Washington and watch the star of intellectual empire westward take its way."

A message expressing sympathy for the cause from Gov. Vessey of South Dakota was read at the meeting.

Was Found By Two Little Girls at Troy, N. Y.

TROY, N. Y., Nov. 18.—What the police believe to be a case of murder by means of a powerful drug came to light yesterday when two little girls at play found the body of Caroline D. Gorgan, aged 27 years, who lived at Green Island, Albany county, across the river from Troy. The body was in a clump of bushes in a lonely part of the village near the shore of the Hudson river.

Miss Gorgan was employed in a collar and shirt factory in this city.

The autopsy performed on the body late last night, revealed that the girl had been criminally assaulted. The stomach was removed and will be sent Thursday morning to Bender's laboratory, Albany, for analysis. Miss Gorgan was last seen alive as far as known at four o'clock Tuesday afternoon when she parted from a girl friend, Miss Annie O'Brien, at Ferry and Fourth streets, this city. She had her wages, $15, at the time.

ARSENIC FOUND OILED WASTE

In Kelliher Case, According to Report

Found by Firemen in Adams House

Prof. Whitney of Harvard medical school, it was said on good authority in Somerville yesterday, has reported finding large quantities of arsenic in the bodies of Stephen Kelliher and Bridget Knowles, the husband and sister of Mrs. Mary Kelliher, who is in the East Cambridge jail awaiting trial on an indictment charging her with murder.

These two bodies were exhumed in September and given to Prof. Whitney for investigation. There were life insurance policies amounting to $3500 upon their lives. There was $2500 upon the husband's and $1000 upon Mrs. Knowles, the sister's life, and these amounts were collected after their deaths by Mrs. Mary Kelliher.

Prof. Whitney found traces of arsenic in the bodies of Annie T. Kelliher, a sister-in-law, and Mary, aged 2, Kathryn M., aged 12, and William, aged 3, all children of Mrs. Mary Kelliher. Mrs. Kelliher is awaiting trial on the charge of murdering these four. These last two bodies were exhumed and examined by order of Dist. Atty. Higgins of Middlesex county for the purpose of strengthening his case and to ascertain, if possible, whether a desire for money might be a motive in the case.

CHARITY BOARD

VOTED REQUISITION FOR 200 COPIES OF REPORT

The board of charities met last night at its headquarters in City hall and voted to authorize a requisition for 200 copies of the report for 1908. This is a case of better late than never. The report should have been printed months ago. Four hundred copies of the report for 1907 were printed last year.

The report of Stephen Garrity of the health department, on the plumbing system in the hospital, pauper and administration buildings was read. It indicated the need of improvements in these departments. The report was placed on file.

Action was taken on several minor matters and the board adjourned.

GIRL MURDERED

TWO LABORERS ASSAULTED AND KILLED HER

MILWAUKEE, Nov. 16.—That two Russian laborers assaulted and murdered 14 year old Katie Zinda, whose body was found here yesterday afternoon in an old shed, is the theory of the police. It is known that these men on the night of the girl's disappearance left a saloon and boarding house where they lived. This place is in the vicinity of the shed where the girl's body was found. The men have not been seen since.

Four bottles found in the shed bore the same kind of label as that on bottles her hand at the house where the suspected men made their abode.

UNKNOWN VESSEL

A COMPLETE WRECK ON ISLE ROYALE

DULUTH, Minn., Nov. 18.—An unknown vessel is aground on Isle Royale and is said to be a complete wreck. Captain Bell of the steamer Baker of the Pittsburgh line reported from Two Harbors that he had seen an unknown twelve hatch vessel with a black smoke stack and a light hull aground.

PORTUGAL'S CLAIM

REFUSED RECOGNITION BY CHINESE DELEGATES

LISBON, Nov. 18.—The Seculo today says that the Chinese delegates to the Hong Kong conference having refused to recognize Portugal's claim in Macao to submit the question of arbitration, Portugal has opened four parlors direct with China for the maintenance of the status quo.

Macao in China, situated on an island of the same name at the mouth of Canton river, forms with the two small adjacent islands of Taipa and Coloane a province, the city being divided into two wards, one inhabited by Chinese and the other by non-Chinese, such having its own administration. China holds that all the dependencies of the city of Macao have been occupied illegally by Portugal for some years and that the only concession of territory made to Portugal is that of Aleno and she insists that the territory and islands be evacuated by Portugal. Some time ago the Portuguese government sent Joaquim Jose Machado to China in the hope of reaching an amicable settlement of the dispute but little progress has been made.

"OPEN THE SHAFT"

Cry of the Widows and Orphans Will be Heeded

CHERRY, Ill., Nov. 18.—The cry of the desperate widows and orphans of Cherry—"Open the shaft—open the shaft!"—will be heeded today if human lives have to be sacrificed to reclaim the sunken dead.

Morning saw over the shaft of the St. Paul mine a heavy structure of wooden piles which will support the burden of grapping tackle to be lowered into the depths. Women, many of them almost insane from the grief that has consumed them for five days, reached the desolate scene before sunrise.

"They are going down to get the poor fellows today," they were told. "Oh, why don't they hurry?" was the unanimous appeal. "Why don't they hurry before it is too late?"

Under the direction of the mining inspectors of Illinois the most hazardous efforts will be made to satisfy the demand of the bereaved to remove the bodies. After the preliminary exploration in the airshaft last night the inspectors and mining experts reported an encouraging condition, and it was determined to take advantage of the low temperature at the bottom of the emergency shaft.

Early today it was reported that E. Y. Williams who went into the shaft last night had seen bodies in the second gallery not far from the shaft. After a midnight conference of officials, however, carpenters, masons and laborers were sent for and before morning work of preparing for the uncertain task of today had begun. It was proposed to lower two men armored with oxygen helmets. They will enter the galleries and penetrate as far toward the main shaft as they can. If bodies

A 25 Cent Bottle of Oil of Wintergreen Compound Gives Relief.

Just a few drops of oil of wintergreen properly compounded and applied to the skin will take away instantly the worst kind of an itch. We positively know this.

The oil of wintergreen, a mild, soothing agent, is combined with such healing substances as thymol and glycerine. The D. D. D. Prescription, made at the D. D. D. Laboratories of Chicago, seems to be just the right compound, and a good sized trial bottle can now be had at 25 cents a bottle.

D. D. D. Prescription sells regularly at one dollar a bottle, but we have secured a limited number of trial bottles at 25 cents on this special offer, and advise you to take advantage of this special rate now, as we do not know how long the Laboratories in Chicago will continue the 25c offer.

are encountered they will be fastened to the grapping tackle and raised.

The exploration last night, made while soldiers guarded the workers, revealed that at the bottom of the airshaft there was less smoke and gas than at any time since the fire started last Saturday. The temperature had also fallen to an unusual degree.

In the opinion of mining inspectors who came here from many states the mine still is burning with a consuming fire and human life cannot endure it. It is their conviction that the St. Paul mine must be sealed for a definite period before any successful exploration can be conducted. This was the recommendation to the officials of the company yesterday but the Illinois inspectors realizing the fury that such action would arouse among the afflicted citizens of this community insisted that a last effort be made to reach the dead.

No outbreak of any kind occurred in Cherry last night. The troops guarded the mine and the special train of cars against which threats were made, but all was quiet save for the tapping of hammers as workmen prepared for the task of the day.

JUMPED RAILS

Trolley Car Accident at Kittery, Me.

KITTERY, Me., Nov. 18.—That there was not a serious loss of life when a trolley car of the Atlantic coast line railroad jumped the rails and plunged beneath the surface of a deep creek, near here, early today, was due to the fact that there was no one on board at the time except three employees of the company. These, consisting of the conductor, motorman and one of the officials of the road, saved themselves by jumping. All sustained painful injuries, and one of them was picked out of the water by a fisherman.

The car left the rails at the entrance of the bridge which crosses the creek. The bridge was around a sharp turn at the foot of a steep hill. The car sank in thirty feet of water, only the top of the trolley pole showing above the tide.

James F. O'Donnell, Esq., will address the voters of wards 1 and 6 at Odd Fellows hall, Bridge street, to-night, at 8 o'clock.

JUDGE FICKETT

Says Cook Climb Was Never Made

BOSTON, Nov. 18.—Judge Frederick W. Fickett of Galveston, Tex., who is visiting a relative, F. A. Fickett of 105 Oliver street, Malden, said Tuesday it was impossible for Dr. Cook to climb Mt. McKinley. The judge says he was with the government exploring party to survey Alaska, and that he was one of those who named the mountain.

In speaking about Dr. Cook's claim, Judge Fickett said:

"There is absolutely no foundation for the statement of Dr. Cook, who declares that he climbed Mt. McKinley. I know the conditions in that region, and have read the doctor's statements of his claim. Mt. McKinley is a solid mass of ice and rocks. There are no signs of any vegetation, with the exception of a few small shrubs. The doctor explains how he ascended, but it seems to be that no living man could have followed the route he points out. Before the mountain can be reached a person runs great danger of losing his life. The soil resembles cranberry bogs, only it is a great deal worse."

"From viewing the sides of the mountain there are many cracks and crevices. It would be almost impossible to attempt the climb. The government has no records showing that the McKinley was ever climbed."

Continuing, Judge Fickett stated that as the mountain is over 27,000 feet in height it would take at least six months to make the ascent.

WORTH $100,000

Gift to Museum of Fine Arts

BOSTON, Nov. 18.—The Museum of Fine Arts is now in possession of a Greek head of a young woman, valued at more than $100,000, which is considered by men prominent in the world of art as the finest specimen of marble head sculpture in existence.

The head is clearly a Greek original of the fourth century, from the hand of a master.

Part of the hair on either side is gone and shows signs of having been repaired in antiquity, but the beautiful face of the subject is unmarred. Whether it is a queen or a goddess, no one can say, but critics seem satisfied that it is the best example of the work of Praxiteles.

The French sculptor, Rodin, has studied the head and said it is the most remarkable marble head in existence.

This piece of marble has attracted the thousands who have already viewed the new museum. The owner of this work of art has refused an offer of $100,000.

Visitors to the National Museum in Rome remember as perhaps the finest Greek marble there a three-sided relief representing the birth of Venus from the sea. A companion piece is now exhibited for the first time in the Boston Museum of Fine Arts. It is more complete than the one in Rome and equally beautiful, perhaps, from the hand of the same sculptor.

BROWN ELEVEN

PROVIDENCE, R. I., Nov. 18.—The finishing touches for the Carlisle game were put on the Brown football team today and at the close of the practice, the last of the season, the usual formality of burning the dummy was gone through. The squad will be taken to New York tomorrow at 2.10 o'clock and 30 men besides the coaches will make the trip. A large number of students will go down on Saturday and they express the opinion that Brown will win.

ST. PATRICK'S ACADEMY ALUMNI

The banquet committee having in charge the coming banquet and reunion of all the former students of St. Patrick's Boys' school to be held Wednesday evening, Dec. 29, will meet this evening in the school hall and formulate plans for this affair. Reports will be received from the different committees appointed at the last meeting and active preparations will be made to make this year's reunion surpass last year's very successful one. Practically every class, since the first graduating class of '86, is represented on this committee and every member is thoroughly interested and wants to make this a banner night in the social history of St. Patrick's Boys' school.

ST. PATRICK'S HOLY NAME

On next Tuesday evening the Holy Name society of St. Patrick's will hold the regular monthly business meeting and much business of importance will be transacted. This meeting will end the membership contest that has created so much interest and has so largely increased the society's membership. The smoke talk committee will report on the smoke talk and lecture to be held Tuesday evening, Nov. 30. It has secured Thomas A. Mullin, Esq., of Boston to deliver the lecture and the committee feels flattered at securing such an able and scholarly man as Mr. Mullin. The smoke talk will be for members and friends, and members can secure their tickets from the secretary.

Committees will be appointed to bring in a list of officers for the coming year to be balloted for at the December meeting.

At the spiritual meeting held last Sunday evening Rev. Fr. Curtin announced that on Thanksgiving morning, Nov. 25, a high mass would be sung for Holy Name members and urged every member's attendance. The members will attend in a body and will meet in the church basement.

The reception to the newly enrolled members will be held on Sunday evening, Dec. 5, at the vesper service, and it is expected there will be about 200 members received.

COAL LAND INQUIRY LAWRENCE MAN

Was Begun Before Commissioner W. J. McGee Today

SEATTLE, Wash., Nov. 18.—The inquiry instituted by the department of the interior into the validity of the 33 coal land entries in Alaska that are included in the Cunningham group around which the Ballinger-Pinchot controversy centers began this morning before Commissioner W. J. McGee, J. M. Sheridan, of Denver, chief counsel for the government and W. B. Fugh, of Washington, D. C., counsel and member of the board of land review in the general land office have been engaged for several weeks, preparing the case of the government. At least four days will be required to take the testimony here. At the conclusion of the sitting in Seattle, Special Commissioner McGee will resume the inquiry at Spokane.

The aggregate acreage involved is 5230. An estimate of the value of the coal in these claims is $50,000.

The land department claims that entrymen did not make locations for their own exclusive benefit but that prior to making the locations they entered into an agreement to consolidate and held the lands. It is also contended that the lands have not been improved as required by law.

The claimants insist they have made the entries in good faith and maintain that as the government accepted final payment several months ago, it is unfair to withhold the patents.

The patents were held up originally at the instance of L. R. Glavis, former chief of the field division of the general land office at Seattle. It was the disagreement between Secretary Ballinger and Mr. Glavis over the disposition of these claims that caused Glavis' removal.

SANFORD COMES BACK TO SHILOH.

Elijah Sanford is returning to the United States to resume his fanatical onslaughts and establish a colony of people who are silly enough to be led by him. He has tried to establish a colony of his followers in Palestine but he found the people there far less gullible than his victims at Shiloh. He is to send out missionaries to secure new recruits. His cult is as bad as Mormonism although its worst tendencies do not run in the direction of polygamy.

THE APPORTIONMENT OF THE CORPORATION TAX.

The city of Lowell paid a state tax of $98,685 this year but received in return as a share of the corporation tax the sum of $105,228. That will help considerably in lessening the tax rate for the coming year. This money is returned to the city under a law passed last year which returns half the tax to the city or town in which the corporation carries on its business rather than where the stock is assessed as formerly.

Such residential centres as Brookline, Milton and Newton lose heavily as they have been receiving a considerable portion of the corporation taxes on stock held by their residents. The change in the law is just and right.

CONGRATULATIONS TO PRESIDENT TUTTLE.

The business people who have been acquainted with President Tuttle of the Boston and Maine railroad for many years will rejoice to find that he has been reelected to his position at a time when rumor had it that owing to the influence of the New Haven company and the merger, another official would be chosen in his place.

President Tuttle has always proved himself to be a man of great ability and foresight and always progressive in his ideas. He has, furthermore, done what he could to improve the service and to meet as far as possible the needs of the various cities through which the Boston and Maine lines run. Even if new policies are to be applied in the management of the road, President Tuttle will be as good as any other man who can be chosen, to put them into operation.

SERUM FOR PNEUMONIA DISCOVERED.

A very important announcement comes from the medical schools of Tufts and Harvard to the effect that a serum has been found that will greatly reduce the mortality in cases of pneumonia. This is a matter of very great importance to this country, and in fact to the world at large.

Pneumonia has defied the doctors, the main treatment being something to stimulate the heart action during the progress of the disease.

If the reports from Tufts and Harvard that a serum has been discovered that cures a large percentage of cases are true, the discovery is one of the most important made by medical science during the current century.

The medical experts of Tufts claim that as a result of the serum but two out of forty-nine ordinary cases were lost and but six out of thirty-four very serious cases. The Harvard men claim that the serum there provided saved thirty-six out of forty-nine cases.

The deaths from pneumonia in the United States constitute 11 per cent. of the whole, while the deaths from tuberculosis, of which we hear so much, amount to but 3 per cent. Furthermore, the medical experts at Harvard and Tufts claim that through the use of the serum just discovered 45 per cent. of the deaths can be prevented.

Such a saving of the people who are usually cut off by pneumonia in the prime of life would mean a great deal to this country and to the world at large.

It is to be hoped that the serum just announced will accomplish all that is claimed for it in reducing the death rate from a disease that has hitherto baffled all the efforts of medical science.

SANITATION IN FACTORIES.

Professor Winslow of the Institute of Technology in addressing the Women's Trade Union league in Boston dealt with the subject of factory sanitation, claiming that there is still much to be desired in that direction.

"I know from personal experience," he said, "that many of our largest factories are in pretty poor sanitary condition. The most dangerous thing of all is dust in factories, such as flax, cotton, emery and glass dust. It mechanically lacerates the lungs and renders the individual powerless to resist tuberculosis germs. The State Board of Health has done splendidly, but it still has to make analysis of factory air."

It is impossible to eliminate all dust and flogage in the air in cotton and other factories; but so far as sanitation by ventilation, plumbing and pure water are concerned there is undoubtedly a vast improvement over former conditions.

Formerly it was not uncommon for mill operatives in Lowell to drink either canal or pump water which in some cases was fully as bad as that from the canals.

There are various other improvements in the line of sanitaries, spittoons and wash rooms. There are, besides, printed rules in each room cautioning the operatives against spitting on the floors and insisting upon strict cleanliness. The management of the corporations as a rule cooperates with the Board of Health in its efforts to check the spread of tuberculosis by adopting preventive measures.

There may be some factories in which, as Dr. Winslow observes, conditions are not as they should be; but in the principal factories of Lowell it seems that a great deal has been done for the protection of the health of the operatives.

If there is any such condition as Dr. Winslow mentions the operatives can have it speedily remedied by notifying Dr. Simpson, the sanitary inspector of factories, or even the local factory inspector, Mr. Roche, successor to the late Inspector Wasley.

AFTER ALL
After you and I have ceased to care
The April winds will blow across the hill.
The rose will spread its fragrance on the air.
The swallows twitter round the chimney still.
The brook will wind its leisure way along.
And right will still be right and wrong be wrong.

After you and I have ceased to fret
Because our planning sometimes comes to naught
The foolish still will foolishly regret
When home the spite they vented has been brought:
They will be needed most who give daylight.
And wrong will still be wrong and right be right.

After you and I have ceased to toll
It may be that we shall with joy arrive
Where none shall be undone and none despoil,
Where no one for another's gain shall strive;
But here the wise men still shall be the strong,
And right will still be right and wrong be wrong.

"Antony and Cleopatra."

man's wife, so the neighbors said, was given an allowance by her husband and out of this allowance she was expected to pay the household accounts. But the wife sometimes desired more money for personal expenses than she could obtain from her husband and so the household fund was robbed. The woman had been dodging the milkman for so long that it had become a habit with her. He called once or twice every week with his bill, but the lady of the house was never "at home"—to him.

The day finally came when he had to have the money and he determined to get it before bedtime. He called at the back door and poured his story into the unsympathetic ear of a housemaid, and she carried it, or said she did, to the "mistress," but the word came back that the "mistress" was taking her bath and could not then attend to the matter. In an hour the milkman returned, but was informed that her ladyship had "gone out." The collector thereupon boarded a street car, went to the shop of a customer and put himself in temporary possession of the accoutrements of a gentleman of fashion. Those he took to his room and about supper time he donned them, spending perhaps an hour in getting them "on straight." Then he sallied forth. He made straight for the house of the rich man and rang the doorbell.

The maid pecked out of the window, saw that there was no milk wagon in sight, that a well dressed man was standing at the entrance and then hastened to the door. "Is Mrs. So-and-So in?" the milkman asked. "She is," the maid replied. "Won't you come in?" The milkman thought that he would. "Who shall I say is here?" the maid asked. "Oh, it's a surprise," said the milkman. "Tell her that an old friend whom she has not seen for a long time wishes to speak to her."

The maid departed. In a few minutes the lady of the house brought an expectant smile into the reception room. She looked at the milkman in a puzzled manner. "Yes," she said finally in a haughty manner. "Yes," the dapper caller repeated. "Yes, ma'am. I'm the milkman and I have here a bill that was due two months ago. I do not intend to depart until it has been paid." And he didn't, either.

PEOPLE OF NOTE

The Philadelphia School for Nurses is said to be the largest of the kind in the world. In the past year nearly 11,000 patients were supplied with nurses. Fully four-fifths of this service is said to have been gratuitous. At present a large number of two-year scholarships are said to be available to young women throughout the country, the preference being given to applicants from small towns and rural districts. These scholarships include room, board, laundry work, uniforms, all necessary instruction and railroad fare paid to the students' home town on the completion of the course.

One of the new buildings at the Chautauque for Negroes which has been established at Durham, N. C., is to be called the Mrs. S. P. Avery building, in honor of Mrs. Avery of Hartford, Conn., who has taken great interest in the work. The first Chautauque is to begin in July of next year. Mrs. Avery's last gift was a check for $1000 to be devoted to the school for training young Negro men.

Miss Eleanor Rathbone has just been elected a member of the city council of Liverpool, Eng. Miss Rathbone belongs to one of Liverpool's "first families," has been engaged for years in useful public service, and is secretary of the Liverpool Women's Suffrage association.

Mrs. P. S. Peterson of Chicago has given Mount Holyoke college a building to be used as a home for retired members of the faculty.

Mrs. Otto Killant, a daughter of Bayard Taylor and a member of the executive committee of the New York State Association Opposed to Woman Suffrage, declares that there is no probability in England that women will obtain the right to vote for members of parliament. Mrs. Killant recently returned from England where she was assured by Mrs. Frolic Harrison, who took an active part in circulating the petition of the anti-suffragists, that the women of all classes showed a decided coldness at the mention of the word suffrage, and on being assured that it was an anti-petition they signed it eagerly. According to Mrs. Harrison a quarter of a million signatures were secured very quickly.

The accepted plan for the new city hall in Portland, Me., provides for the placing of two statues in front of the building. It is conceded that William Pitt Fessenden, the distinguished United States senator, will be honored in one of these places, and there is a movement to devote the second niche to a statue of General Neal Dow, Maine's lifelong advocate of prohibition.

W. D. Sloane has given $150,000 to Columbia university, which is to go to the erection of a seven-story addition to the hospital of the College of Physicians and Surgeons in Tenth avenue at 63rd street. Mr. Sloane and his wife have been constant givers to the college, which is now the medical department of Columbia, and their great gift is the Sloane maternity hospital, whose administration they have followed, says President Butler of Columbia, "with the closest personal attention and supervision in a way that has been exceptionally helpful." The new building is complementary to the other; it is for obstetrics and gynecology.

The new dormitory for the Lucknow College for Girls is to be erected as a memorial to Lilavati Singh, who at the time of her death was president of the college. Miss Singh was the only native teacher in the Lucknow college. As a student early in her career she refused a missionary scholarship because she preferred to earn her own education, though at the time she was supporting several younger relatives. In 1895 she took an A. M. degree, with honors at the University of Allahabad. Four years later she came to America with Miss Thorburn, whose school in Lucknow she had entered when less than 10. Here she helped to raise upward of $20,000 for educational work among women of India. In 1907 she was sent to Japan as the Indian delegate to the Y. W. C. A. to the Students' Christian Federation conference at Tokio. The new dormitory is erected by money contributed by her friends, the bulk coming from America.

DIV. 1, SOCIAL AND DANCE, TO-MORROW NIGHT, HIBERNIAN HALL.

BIG INSURANCE CHICAGO POLICE CHARGE OF ARSON

Think Kreigh Collins Was Murdered

KANSAS CITY, Nov. 13.—Insurance of $1,500,000 has been applied for on the life of George E. Nicholson, 49 years old, a cement manufacturer of Kansas City, for two of the companies of which he is the head.

Insurance men say this is the largest amount of insurance ever successfully sought at one time upon the life of one person.

From 9 o'clock Tuesday morning until 9 o'clock Tuesday night twenty-five physicians, were examining Mr. Nicholson. After it was all over the physicians declared that he was in perfect health and the agents of the insurance companies said the policies would be issued.

Mr. Nicholson is president and general manager of the Iowa Portland Cement company, the United Kansas Portland Cement company, the Dixie Portland Cement company and the Iowa Portland Cement company. He is worth $4,000,000 and is a widower with two grown sons. He already has four $250,000 insurance policies on his life, so that when the policies for $1,500,000 are issued he will have nearly $3,000,000 insurance.

The insurance is distributed through several companies, the largest amounts being taken by the Mutual and the Equitable of New York.

CHICAGO, Nov. 13.—Was Kreigh Collins, former western tennis champion, murdered and his body placed on the street car tracks? Police investigation of the case developed several strange circumstances, and at their request the inquest, began yesterday, was continued until this morning to allow further work by the detectives.

Mr. Collins' body was found Tuesday night on the street car tracks in Erie street, west of Franklin. It had been run over by a car and the police thought that death had been accidental.

Residents of the neighborhood reported, however, that they had heard two revolver shots about the time Collins was killed. This gave rise to a theory that Collins may have been dead before the street car passed over his body.

The body was so mangled that the police were unable to determine whether Collins had received bullet wounds. One theory of the police, is that Collins may have shot himself, but the general belief is that if he died from pistol wounds they were inflicted by holdup men.

articles were in the hallway and front room.

"What was the character of the furniture?" asked Mr. Rice.

Mr. O'Connor objected and after an argument Mr. Rice qualified his question.

Witness said that in consequence of what he observed at the fire he notified the office of the marshal's aid.

On cross-examination Chief Hosmer reiterated that the front door of the house was barricaded. He said that the firemen were unable to get into the house that way; it was necessary for them to go through the rear door.

The bed, according to witness, was up against the door.

Witness said he made his investigation after the fire had been extinguished. The main fire was in the bedroom which leads off the kitchen.

At this point Lawyer O'Connor produced a diagram of the house and Chief Hosmer marked out on this plan the points where the fire started. He stated that the fire was about five or six feet apart.

He denied that he saw a clothesline leading from one room to another, but said that he saw some clothes hanging on a rail on the side of a door.

Lawyer O'Connor laid considerable stress on the clothesline which he furnished was strung from the kitchen to the bedroom. Chief Hosmer said that if a line had been strung up between the two rooms that there would have been some debris on the floor.

If pressed by the examining attorney, Chief Hosmer said that it would have been almost impossible in the case in question to have the fire communicated from one room to the other by the clothesline.

Relative to her mental and physical condition, Chief Hosmer said that he did not think that she was "all right," and that she was shaking.

Capt. Joseph Baxter of the Lincoln street house, gave a graphic description of the fire. He said that when he arrived at the house the driver of the hose wagon shouted to him to "look out for people in the house."

He corroborated the testimony of Chief Hosmer relative to the two fires, the blockade against the front door and added that he found the side door was locked. The smoke was very thick when he entered the house and while making his way through the kitchen he stumbled over something and both found that it was a kerosene oil can.

Capt. Baxter also testified that he had a conversation with Mrs. Adams and that she complained of a loss of money which she had sewed up in a velvet sacque.

Witness said that he heard Mrs. Adams state that she was taking a bath when she heard some one scratching on a window and later saw a man. She left the bath tub and entered the cellar and later she was found just outside the cellar window.

Capt. Baxter said that Mrs. Adams was very nervous and complained of the loss of $900. He said that she stated that she was ready to move away and that the furniture had been packed for five weeks.

In answer to questions put by Lawyer O'Connor witness said that he did not know the defendant personally, neither did he ever see her picking up coal on the railroad tracks.

Questioned by Mr. O'Connor, witness answered that she set it was set on the first floor and not in the cellar.

George H. Chapman, a member of hose 9 in Lincoln street, testified that he was the first man to enter the house. He gained an entrance by breaking the glass in the side door. It was necessary for him to crawl on his hands and knees with the hose in order to reach the fire in the bedroom.

Witness saw a dog in the cellar. He was of the opinion that the dog was a St. Bernard.

Mr. Chapman, on cross examination, said that he could vouch for two fires, one in the bedroom and the second in the kitchen.

Lieut. James W. Halstead of the Protective company testified that he went to the fire, but that there were at least three pieces of apparatus on the scene before he arrived.

He saw Mrs. Adams in the yard in the rear of the house. She was about ten feet from a cellar door. He was attracted to the rear of the house by the woman's cries. She was moaning and hollering, and said she had lost $900. Owing to her condition witness deemed it advisable to send her to the house of a neighbor. Witness said that she did not want to go away from the fire, but that he took hold of her and led her away.

Mary C. Dolan who resides in French street, was arrested last night by Patrolman David Petrie. When she was asked to plead to being drunk she denied the allegation and said that she would not have been arrested but for the fact that her landlady was sore on her because she would not send her company home at an early hour. A fine of $5 was imposed.

Fred Redfern entered a plea of not guilty to being drunk, but when it was learned that he was a parole man from the state farm he was bound over under $500 until tomorrow. In the meantime he will be returned to that institution.

John H. Brady, John Archambeault and Michael J. Casey, charged with being drunk were each fined $5.

There was one $2 drink.

FINNISH DIET

Was Dissolved for Refusing to Pass Bill

HELSINGFORS, Nov. 13.—The Finnish diet was dissolved today because of its refusal to sanction the bill introduced by the government asking for an appropriation of $4,000,000 for the defense of the empire. An election will be held Feb. 1 and the new diet will assemble March 1.

The dissolution of the Finnish diet was anticipated when the government bill was rejected yesterday. The conflict in the diet was the same as that which took place in the senate and resulted in the resignation of many Finnish senators and the substitution of Russian military officers. The senate had expressed a willingness to contribute $2,000,000 as an annual appropriation for the internal defense, but double that amount was assessed by the Russian cabinet as Finland's contribution for the defense of the empire.

RESCUED WOMAN REMAINS OF FORT JAMES STORROW

Who Had Fallen Into Swimming Pool

That Was Built in Pre-Historic Time

Favored for Mayor of Boston

NEW YORK, Nov. 13.—Henry Lang, a chief janitor at Columbia University, plunged into the pool in the basement of the university gymnasium yesterday afternoon and rescued Mrs. Mamie O'Mara, a scrubwoman, who had fallen in. She had gone down for the second time when Lang, attracted by cries of another woman, dragged her out unconscious.

With two other scrubwomen Mrs. O'Mara went to the swimming room in the lunch hour yesterday to clean the pool near the shower baths. As the pool is closed at noon there were no students about. Mrs. O'Mara was scrubbing the pavement when she slipped on the soapy stone and fell into the water.

Lang was on the top floor of the building when he heard the cries of Mrs. O'Mara's companion. He ran down the stairs with about a dozen students who had been in the gymnasium and locker rooms.

The students stood off, as they could see no signs of the woman in the water, but Lang mounted to the top of an eight foot tower used for diving to get a clearer view of the bottom of the tank. In the deepest part he saw Mrs. O'Mara. He threw off his coat and dived in.

He got hold of the woman, lifted her to the surface and swam to the shallow part of the pool, where she was lifted out of his hands by the students. After being resuscitated Mrs. O'Mara went home to 127th street unnerved by the shock.

CADILLAC, Mich., Nov. 13.—A. C. Fessenden, while out hunting yesterday discovered near Boone village on the crest of the hill the well defined remains of a fort built in pre-historic times by Indians or some tribe that inhabited this region before the white man. This is the third find of this sort. Mr. Fessenden has made in the vicinity of Boone during the past eight years, all within the radius of a few miles. In some parts of what was once an enclosure the embankment is three to four feet high with a trench on either side. Some of these primitive earth works consist of two trenches close together, showing plainly that a stockade had been erected. A number of glass vessels were dug up.

WM. STODDART

WANTS TO SUE HIS WIFE IN NEW YORK

NEW YORK, Nov. 13.—Mary Elizabeth Powell Stoddart, who went to Nevada some time ago to sue her husband, William Lee Stoddart, an architect, of 31 Union square, for a divorce was defendant in a suit on Justice Blischoff's calendar in Part III. of the supreme court yesterday brought by her husband for a separation on the ground of abandonment.

Counsel for Mrs. Stoddart objected to the suit against her going on yesterday on the ground that Mrs. Stoddart doesn't live here any more. Stoddart's lawyer contended that a wife cannot defeat her husband's legal rights by moving out of the jurisdiction. The court reserved decision.

BOSTON, Nov. 13.—James J. Storrow, former chairman of the school board and member of the banking firm of Lee, Higginson & Co. was last night nominated by the committee of 150 as the mayoralty candidate against John F. Fitzgerald, and he accepted the nomination.

The committee met in Wesleyan hall, Bromfield street, and in addition to nominating Mr. Storrow, created a new party, the Citizens' Municipal league.

The selection of the candidate and the creation of the party constituted the entire business of the session. It also marked the opening of one of the most strenuous and long drawn out political contests ever waged for municipal office in this city, which will end on the afternoon of Jan. 11, when the polls close for the first city election under the new charter.

Harmony prevailed throughout the evening. The program was so carefully carried out that only 15 minutes were required to transact the entire business. There was not a hitch, and the smoothness which characterized the convention was accomplished through the efforts of former Mayor Nathan Matthews, whose advice was sought immediately after the committee of 150 met for the first time on Tuesday of last week.

Mr. Storrow's name was the only one presented for the mayoralty nomination as was predicted after interviews with prominent members of the committee of 150. He was recommended for nomination by the committee of nine on mayoralty, of which Charles S. Hamilton was chairman, and there was no second choice. The committee was united on his nomination, and the full body, which had constituted itself as the Citizens' Municipal league of the early part of the session, accepted the recommendation of the committee of nine with but one dissenting vote.

Enthusiasm for Storrow

The announcement of Mr. Storrow's name brought forth unbounded enthusiasm, and gave the promoters of the new league such encouragement that they are confident that their candidate will be able to go out and defeat Fitzgerald, Hibbard, Brand and every other candidate who remains in the fight.

The action of the convention was no surprise, as every member of the committee of 150, which afterward formed the committee of 150, believed from the outset that Mr. Storrow was the logical candidate for mayor of Boston, and the one man able to enter the fight, win the election, and give the municipality a sound, business-like administration.

Although it was generally expected that the convention would also nominate a slate of candidates for the new city council and the school board, the committee of nine on the balance of the ticket was not fully prepared to report. Chairman Nathan Matthews explained that more time was required, and the convention allowed until next Tuesday evening for the report. On that evening another meeting will be held, when Mr. Storrow will appear and formally accept the nomination.

No attempt was made to have Mr. Storrow attend last night's meeting, but Sec. David F. Tilley was authorized to inform Mr. Storrow that he was the choice of the convention.

Thanksgiving Day In Town and Country

SUGGESTIVE OF GOOD THINGS TO COME

THE first Thanksgiving proclamation by a president of the United States was made forty-five years ago. Lincoln was the president who did it.

When a president issues his proclamation, naming the last Thursday in November as the day (this year it falls on the 26th), the governors of the several states follow with their proclamations, each calling upon the people of his state to give thanks to Almighty God for what they have received during the preceding year. That makes Thanksgiving day.

The observance of a day for giving thanks and offering prayer dates back to 1621, when Governor Bradford suggested it to the New England colonists after their first harvest. In 1623 there was a famine in New England, and the people met for fasting and prayer. While so engaged a copious shower fell, and the day was turned into thanksgiving. The custom of meeting to give thanks once a year followed in New England, and it has become universal in the United States. During the Revolution congress recommended a day of thanksgiving annually.

While Thanksgiving day is observed all over the land in the same spirit generally, different sections have certain customs that make the day distinctive. Every city, town, hamlet and out of town locality has its religious observance of the day in one way or another, for it follows that a man may give thanks without kneeling in a pew; but, aside from such obligations, the day is given over to visitation and reunions, and in some cities festivities give the occasion an aspect of hilarity. Unique Masqueraders in Gotham.

In New York city the children for many years have indulged in a custom that has no connection whatever with the spirit of the day. The custom parades of the nature of Mardi Gras in New Orleans in some respects. The pageantry and tinsel of the southern city's festival are cut out of the custom in the metropolis; but what it lacks in glitter is more than made up in grotesqueness. The custom is unique in that it has no counterpart in any other city of the land. It originated among the foreign born children in whose countries there is no such day. To these the day is a holiday suggesting the carnival, and where there is a carnival there is a masquerade. It is rather singular that while the custom originated on the east side of the city, which has a population peculiar to itself, the odd and picturesque features have become well nigh universal, and the merry masqueraders are now seen on the avenues of the upper west side and on Broadway quite as much as in the section where the custom had its christening.

So far as appearances indicate, every child who is permitted to run the streets of New York city is, for one day at least, a gamin. Early in the day they block the sidewalks, revel in the thoroughfares, chase vehicles, and openly and persistently beg pennies or any sum from all classes. Bishop, priest, old men and women returning from church or on their way to make a visit, beaux and belles out for a promenade—every adult is intercepted and asked for some contribution. If the intercepted dodges one set of masqueraders he comes in contact with another just ahead or around the corner, and this continues, unless a storm breaks in, until after dark.

Washington being the favorites. Many of the makeups are striking, and some are even costly, especially among the better class of children. The American Indian is a favorite to imitate, inasmuch as the garb of his race admits of a variety of color schemes. Gypsies lurk in the path of the citizen, and clowns prance in front of pedestrians in the pranks of the harlequin. Others appear in the uniform of the police and solicit in a threatening manner. In some of the open squares of the city there are cakewalks, a baker in the vicinity offering the prize. Many urchins attire themselves in the garb of the family domestic. Sometimes a demure widow will be impersonated. Again the young woman of flirtatious manner will be represented.

In some instances the makeup is artistic. All these gamins are of the male persuasion. They blow horns in the cars of passersby, straddle broomslicks after the supposed manner of old time witches and scamper and scoot whenever the victim appears.

In all this revelry of paint, tatters, tinsel and fancy the police never interfere with the buffoonery that holds possession of the streets. So long as the participants do not commit a misdemeanor the puppet show goes on unmolested.

The Better Observance.

But all is not mimicry. The day has its better side in family reunions and dinners. In this respect the dinners are not confined to the rich and well to do, for the poor are always remembered, and even the prisoners are not forgotten. While all who have been favored of the gods are beneficiaries and have much for which to be thankful, the hand of charity is open and extended in such manner as causes the oppressed to be thankful for our day at least.

In the latter respect Thanksgiving day is the same all over the land. It is the day when tapers are lighted and conviviality of the higher sort has sway. More jokes come of Thanksgiving than any day in the year unless Christmas be excepted—jokes of the best type, humor of the better spirit.

The turkey for the day is the king bird of the land. The eagle retires while the feast of the fattened bird gladdens the home, the places of the mighty and the hovels of the poor. Thanksgiving without turkey would be like Christmas minus Santa Claus. Not only is the turkey the favorite bird of the gastronomist, but at this particular season it is the inspiration of the muse. All sorts of meters are indited to it from gay to grave. The lines here are of the former brand:

What makes the turkeys gobble so
And spread their feathers out?
What makes them try to look so lean
When they are overstuffed?
Why do they fly so high at night
And crouch so low by day?
They know the axman's on their trail
And hastening on their way.

What makes the little boys so good
And ready for the bed?
They know that on Thanksgiving day
With turkey they'll be fed.
What makes your friends so happy when
They see you in the street?
Because they think you'll ask them to
To get some turkey meat.
Why does the preacher "cut it down"
From "tenthly" to "in brief"?
He fears you'll leave him off the list,
And that would cause him grief.

And Peary's here to stay.
They left the pole upon the ice
To be here turkey day.
And that is why Tatt hurried home;
He's hungry, too, I ween.
He wants a bird like Teddy had,
With good things stuffed between.

No wonder, then, the turkeys' call
In plaintive tone is heard.
They hear the shout: "Off with their heads!"
Bring on the bird! More bird!"

THE GREATEST RAILWAY TERMINAL IN THE WORLD

Completion of the Pennsylvania Company's Station That is to Open in December

NO aggregation of superlatives can give an adequate conception of the extent and beauty of the Pennsylvania Railroad company's terminal in New York city, which will be practically ready Dec. 1, 1909. It will require time and personal inspection to bring out the magnitude of the marvelous work and the perfect system connected therewith.

The first stone in the masonry was laid June 15, 1908, and the last was put down July 31 of the present year.

tion in the world. Its completion transforms a hitherto unnoticed and in some respects squalid section of the metropolis into a pulsating center of trade and commerce. By reason of the ramifying system of the Pennsylvania company the terminal becomes the artery of travel from the great west and from New England, connecting with the travel and traffic of the south. It also includes a great postoffice building. It brings to a realization the dream of the late A. J. Cassatt, who in terminal tracks is sixteen miles in extent. There are eleven passenger platforms, a total of four miles, and twenty-five elevators. The artificial light of the building will consist of 30,000 electric bulbs and electroliers. The daily service of this enormous structure will consist of 400 Pennsylvania trains and 600 Long Island trains. The capacity of the terminal will be about 100,000 passengers a day. The maximum capacity of all the tunnels is 144 trains an hour. The number of columns supporting the whole building is 650, the greatest weight on any one column being 1,658 tons. The entire structure is 774 feet long and 432 feet wide, with an average height above the street of 60 feet and a maximum height of 153 feet. The central waiting room is 227 feet long and 103 feet wide. The

It is estimated that if these bricks were placed end to end they would reach from the site of the terminal to Galveston, Tex., with enough left over for another line from New York city to Philadelphia and nearly a score of miles to spare.

THE THANKSGIVING BILLY POSSUM.

BACK as far as I remember
The last Thursday in November
Has been given up to turkey in the good old fashioned way
Till I think there is occasion
For a little variation
In our culinary gratitude on each Thanksgiving day.

WE'VE had turkey boiled and roasted,
Turkey browned and turkey toasted,
Turkey truffles, turkey giblets, turkey hash and turkey stew,
Turkey stuffed and turkey basted,
Turkey cold and stale and wasted,
Till the turkey is as ancient as a new joke by Depew.

WE'VE had turkey to satiety.
We are praying for variety.
Is there not some other bird or beast on which to chew our praise?
I submit as a solution
That we make a substitution
For our antiquated, antedated friend of other days.

LET our tables burst in blossom
With a fragrant Billy possum—
North and south we will unite in a Thanksgiving worth the while.
By this token of affection
We will end the blight of section;
We'll be optimistic "possumists" and smile, smile, smile.

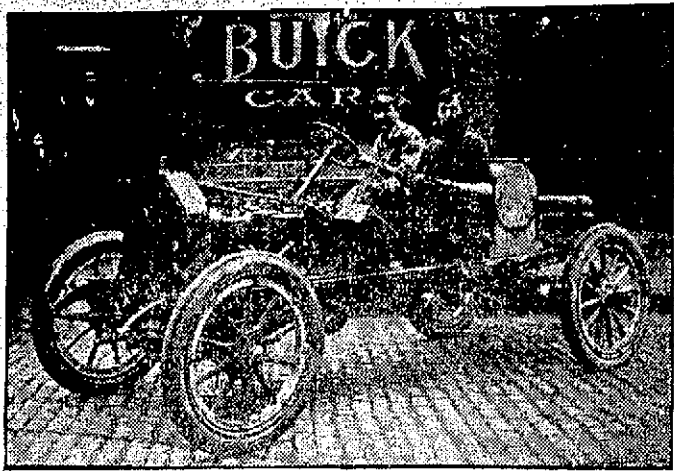

PENNSYLVANIA RAILROAD STATION, NEW YORK CITY.

The walls of the station are nearly a half mile in extent and inclose eight acres of ground. The entire territory is bounded on the north by Thirty-third street, on the east by Seventh avenue, on the south by Thirty-first street and on the west by Ninth avenue. It is the most capacious railroad station in the world. Its completion transforms a hitherto unnoticed and in some respects squalid section of the metropolis into a pulsating center of trade and commerce. ROBERT BURMAN IN HIS BUICK

ROBERT BURMAN

Had Narrow Escape From Death

SAN ANTONIO, Tex., Nov. 18.—Driving his Buick racer at a terrific pace into the stretch turn yesterday in the six hour race, the closing event of the four days automobile meet, Robert Burman narrowly escaped death when his machine was overturned and he was hurled to the ground. Burman was badly shaken up and severely bruised, but not seriously injured. The car turned a complete somersault, just missing Burman when it fell to the ground.

Of the five cars which started in the race, four were wrecked or withdrawn. The Chalmers-Detroit car, driven by Ben Johnson, was awarded first prize after covering 216 miles in 4:52. The second and third prizes were pooled and divided between Clark and D. Hymel.

The race started at 11 o'clock this

MAY BE MURDER

Portion of Girl's Body Found in Ash Pile

TROY, N. Y., Nov. 18.—The leg and part of the thigh of a girl about 16 years, apparently very recently severed from the body were found by the police in an ash pile in a lot in the center of the city last night. It is known that the ashes were not dumped in the lot until Tuesday. The police are working on the theory of murder.

W. J. MOXLEY, WHO CONDUCTS ODD CAMPAIGN IN CHICAGO

CHICAGO, Nov. 18.—Chicago people in general and William J. Moxley in particular are having a world of fun out of Mr. Moxley's campaign for representative to fill the vacancy caused by the election of Mr. Lorimer to the senate. Moxley is the regular republican candidate. The independent republican candidate is Charles L. Barnes and their democratic opponent is Frank S. Ryan. Newspaper paragraphers and other wags characterize Mr. Moxley's fight as a "whispering campaign" because of his departure from the beaten paths of political methods. Smokers, vaudeville entertainments and hand to hand greetings, with heart to heart talks, are the features of the Moxley campaign, and the candidate is having as much fun out of it as his constituents. He declares himself that he is getting more real amusement out of the race than both of his opponents put together. The election takes place on Nov. 23.

Auto Accident Victims in Serious Condition

SPRINGFIELD, Nov. 18.—So critical was the condition at 9 a. m. today of the four survivors of the auto accident in West Springfield last night in which five business men were hurled from a car, that the list of fatalities was expected to reach three before the close of the day.

Max O. Drecorn was instantly killed, while W. Reid, a prominent architect, and A. L. Leberte, a builder, were so badly injured about the head that their chances of recovery were considered early today to be very slight.

J. Lewis Perkins, the owner and driver of the auto, suffered only a few bruises, while John Chadwick was painfully but not seriously injured.

Mr. Perkins said that in turning out suddenly for another car, his machine struck a tree.

SOME CHAMPIONS AT LIVE STOCK SHOW AND VIEW OF GREAT ARENA AT CHICAGO

CHICAGO, Nov. 18.—All cattle trails now lead to Chicago, and the reason thereof is the great international live stock exposition, which begins on Nov. 27 and lasts to Dec. 10. During the second week of the live stock exposition the Chicago horse show will be held, and the events combined will bring to the city by the lake the champions of all the other horse and cattle shows of the year. Chicago expects the biggest crowd since the World's fair of 1893 and has provided a series of surprising entertainments for the visitors. Every ranch and horse farm in the country that boasts pedigree stock will be represented at one or the other of the big events, and it is estimated that the sales of blooded horses and cattle will reach far into the millions of dollars. The prize list of cups, medals and cash is the biggest ever offered to the cattle and horse breeders in this country. Draft shows are open to the world. A feature of the horse show will be the draft horse class, which will bring together a finer array of heavy horses than did either the London or New York show.

19 WERE INJURED Trolley Did a Somersault in Providence, R. I.

PROVIDENCE, R. I., Nov. 18.—One passenger was seriously injured while 18 others were more or less hurt at Cranston early last evening, when one of the cross-town cars which runs from Pawtucket to the Print Works village, left the rails opposite the Narragansett trolley park.

The body of the car went in one direction, turning a complete somersault, while the trucks flew to the opposite side of the street.

The car was well filled with passengers, there being about 45 in all, mostly women. As it neared the gateway of the park, running at high speed, there is a sharp curve and a switch to cross over the double track. At this point, the forward trucks of the car left the rails, separating from the body, which turned a complete somersault, throwing the passengers in all directions.

The most seriously injured was Miss Annie Dodd. She was seriously cut and bruised and suffered from nervous shock. Her condition is serious.

The other passengers who are injured are: Patrolman Edward Leacy of the Cranston police; Miss Fannie Park, 286 Cranston street; Mrs. John Smith, 155 Main street; Mrs. M. J. McDonald, 100 Main street; Mrs. J. W. Angell, 27 A street; James McDonald, Madison street; Jas. Milligan, Cedar street; Anthony Perry and Alice Roberts, 40 Oak street.

The remainder of the passengers are all foreigners and it was impossible for the police to learn their names without the aid of an interpreter.

The car was in charge of Motorman Terrance Sherry and Conductor James W. Willard.

After the accident the injured were removed from the wreckage by means of the fire engine, and taken to the Overland Inn, where medical aid was summoned, after which many were sent home.

The cause of the accident is not exactly known, but it was either caused by a stone on the track or the motor man running into the switch at high speed. The motorman said last night that the brakes would not work when he attempted to stop the car.

NO REPORT YET

Has Been Received
From Astor's Yacht

NEW YORK, Nov. 18.—The fear that Col. John Jacob Astor's yacht Nourmahal with the owner and his son Vincent aboard may have been disabled in the West Indian hurricane of last week was further increased today by the failure of the various vessels known to be seeking the whereabouts of the missing yacht to report her.

Neither at the New York maritime exchange nor at the headquarters here of the yacht club which had sent out a general inquiry for the yacht yesterday had any word calculated to allay the anxiety of the friends of Col. Astor been received.

The Nourmahal is believed to have left Kingston, Jamaica, in the interval between Nov. 5 and Nov. 10. Among the vessels asked to report her are the

ENCOUNTERED TAIL END OF THE HURRICANE

NEW YORK, Nov. 18.—Captain Krause of the steamer Prince August William, which arrived here yesterday with additional reports on the West Indian storm, said that he navigated his vessel from Colon to Kingston, Jamaica, through a rainfall so thick that the voyage was as though it continued fog and fog night. It was impossible to take observations, and almost a miracle, he said, that he stumbled, as it were, upon Kingston in the dark.

When he left there 30 inches—nearly seven feet—of rain had fallen. He also encountered the tail end of the recent hurricane. This and the rainfall delayed his vessel nearly two days.

NEW OFFICERS

Of Industry Council
Nominated Last Night

The regular meeting of Industry Council was held last night in Odd Fellows hall in Middlesex street. There was a large attendance of members, and Regent Richard T. Mower occupied the chair.

The committee in charge of the tournament reported that the first game in the series between the different councils of the city would take place this evening after the meeting of Lowell council, No. 8.

After the meeting a very interesting debate took place and proved a considerable success, and the council intends to have similar debates in the near future. Under the head of good and welfare, interesting remarks were offered by Past Grand Regent John J. Hogan, Thomas Garvey, James Gorman, Joseph McLean, M. D. Wm. H. Stafford, Michael Sullivan, Frank Fox.

Nominations for the different officers to be elected at the next regular meeting were presented by the different committees appointed by the regent at the last meeting.

John V. Sharkey, who has filled with credit the offices of orator, vice regent and several minor positions, was nominated for regent, and the selection is generally felt to be a just recognition of efficient work. Not only has Mr. Sharkey been an earnest worker, but on the floor of the council meetings he has proven himself a skilful debater, a possessor of fine judgment, his election as well as the election of the other officers will take place at the next meeting.

The other officers nominated and the positions are as follows: Vice regent, James Gorman; orator, David Hogan; collector, Thomas P. Roulier; treasurer, Charles H. O'Donnell; chaplain, Michael Sullivan; secretary, Frank Fox.

The supper was prepared by members of the King's Daughters club. After the supper an entertainment was also provided, the leading features of which were readings by Mrs. Dorothy Berry Carpenter of Lynn, Mrs. W. H. Popin, soprano soloist of the choir, sang "Carmen" with her usual good taste and fine expression and Mr. Henry S. Hardy, bass of the choir, sang "The Bandolero". The performance concluded with a brief address by Rev. Mr. Cummings.
